

Show Winner At Mt. Angel Repeats Feat

By LILLIE L. MADSEN
Garden Editor, The Statesman
MT. ANGEL — Rain and chilly weather hadn't spoiled the primroses for the eighth annual Primrose Show sponsored by the Mt. Angel Garden Club Sunday afternoon and evening in St. Mary's School dining room here. There were 266 entries this year compared to 178 a year ago.

Miss Juliana Dehler again (she won a year ago) won the sweepstakes award, the seedling trophy going to Mrs. Dave Shepherd. Mrs. Shepherd's seedling was a rose shade of the polyanthus, a big well-shaped plant with strong textured blooms.
Daughter Winner
Mrs. George Schmidt was runner up to Miss Dehler, and her daughter, Miss Janice Schmidt was winner of the junior sweepstakes in arrangement. Rose Palmer took the junior plant sweepstakes award.

A plant sale, arranged by the Garden Club members, proved very successful as did the free coffee hour.
First place winners at the show included:

Acaulis: Blue, yellow pastel and lavender, Miss Dehler; rose and purple, Mrs. Schmidt.
Polyanthus: White, dark yellow, rose and lavender, Miss Dehler; pink and bronze, Mrs. Frank Pranger; light yellow, light red and pastel, Mrs. Schmidt; dark red and purple, Mrs. A. A. Hauth; Bazaar, Mrs. Paul Sliffe; wine, Mrs. George Fisher.

Juliae: Purple, Miss Dehler; wine, Mrs. Sliffe. Auricula: Yellow and brown, Miss Dehler; purple, Mrs. Sliffe; chartreuse, Mrs. Schmidt; rarities and oddities, Miss Dehler.

Cowichans: Red, Mrs. Schmidt and purple, Mrs. Sliffe.
Cut flower arrangements: large arrangements, Mrs. Joe Henny, Brooks; early, Mrs. Jack Bartlett of Brooks, large mixed bouquet, North Howell Grange.

Junior section: Plants, Rose Palmer, Mary Palmer, Janice Schmidt. Arrangements — Dish, Rose Palmer; large arrangements, Rose Palmer; small arrangements, Mary Palmer.

Labish Meadows took the blue ribbon in the garden club collection of primroses with Woodburn Garden club second.
Mrs. Marguerite Clarke of Clackamas and Mrs. Carroll Tarpen of Beaverton, the two judges, commented upon the fine quality as well as the number of primrose blooms.

The committee responsible for the show consisted of Mrs. O. J. Williams, chairman, and Mrs. Paul Sliffe, Miss Juliana Dehler, Mrs. Frank Pranger, Mrs. John Drescher, Mrs. Mark Wampach and Theresa Duda.

Chiang Talks With Visiting U.S. Officials

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chiang Kai-Shek discussed the "broad overall situation" in the Formosa area with two high visiting U.S. officials Sunday, a Chinese source reported.

A Nationalist Foreign Office informant expressed doubt that the offer of Premier Chou En-Lai of Red China to negotiate with the United States on the Formosa crisis even came up.

Chiang conferred in the afternoon with Walter Robertson, assistant U.S. secretary of state, and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. They exchanged views on the U.S.-Nationalist treaty under which the United States guarantees to defend Formosa and the adjacent Pescadores from any Red attack.

The meeting was described as amicable.
This contrasted with gloomy speculation among Nationalists that at the least Chiang would be asked to abandon the offshore islands of Quemoy and the Matsus.

Some U.S. quarters expressed belief developments might not be that severe for the Nationalists, who have vowed to defend both Quemoy, across the strait, and the Matsus, 120 miles northwest of Formosa.

The Chinese source said Chiang, Radford and Robertson talked about subjects "much broader" than the offshore islands.

This largely coincided with Robertson's own remarks to newsmen when he arrived Saturday. He said he would not comment on a report "I came here to talk over any evacuation," and declared: "I just came to consider the problems of our treaty."

U. S. Ambassador Karl Rankin and Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yeh were the only others taking part in the conference, which lasted from 4 p.m. until dinner time. Guests said Chiang appeared in a cheerful, amiable mood at dinner.

After dinner, the five went back into a session that did not break up until 10 p.m. Chang Chun, Chiang's secretary-general, attended this meeting. Talks will resume Monday.

CASPIAN, Mich. (AP) — After 74 years, Peter Dzanbozoff saw his first movie. A retired iron miner, Dzanbozoff can't remember what the picture was, but he liked it. He just happened to see it when he stopped to see his son, Tom, in a between-features musical act.
