U.S. Considers Basing Air Units on Formosa Action Seen County Polio Shots

The long-awaited Salk vaccine inoculations will begin in Salem and throughout the state May 9, County Health Officer W. J. Stone

To Start on May 9

Vaccine to inoculate Marion County children will be brought to Salem by county health officials Monday morning. It was due to arrive in Portland by plane Friday night. Dr. Stone said Friday the clinic schedules planned for April 25 will be in effect for the Marion County inoculations. The State Board of Health and the Oregon Medical Society's public health committee decided at a meeting Friday to go ahead with the mass program after expressing complete confidence in the The doctors decided to delay start of the program a week beyond Monday, May 2, the original date, to permit county health boards, schools and others connected with it to get organized. Plans for the vaccinations were held up earlier in the week when several children in other parts of the country came down with polio after receiving shots of Salk vacclue from the Cutter Laboratories. However, State Board of Health and Medical Society members spent two days assembling information from over the nation and after analyzing it, they pronounced the vaccine safe.
