Call Threatens Union Agent At Portland

PORTLAND (AP) — Frank Mulloy, business agent for the Teamsters Union local here, reported Saturday that he had received a telephone call threatening the bombing of his home.

It was the latest in a series of bombing and extortion threats which have plagued the Pacific Northwest for the past two weeks.

Eight juveniles, ranging in age from 11 to 17, were taken into custody Friday for earlier threats.

The 17-year-old admitted that he had sent a note demanding 200 from Thomas Binford of Portland. Harn was threatened to Binford's 7 1/2-year-old son unless the demand was met.

The others were involved in less serious threats.

Parents of 6th Graders Asked To PTA Meeting

Parents of sixth grade children in Parrish Junior High School's district are invited to that school's final Parent-Teachers Association meeting, 8 p. m. Tuesday in the cafeteria, it was announced by Mrs. W. E. Greif, who will be installed that night as president for the next school year.

Mrs. Greif, currently publicity chairman, succeeds Dick Sorick. The other new officers will also be installed.

She said the program will include an explanation of the purposes and goals of the Parrish PTA and a tour of the school. Colored slides will be shown and refreshments will be served afterwards.

Traffic Victim Rites Tuesday

Statesman News Service

WOODBURN — Last rites for William J. Arney, 31, Woodburn route 1, will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at Ringo - Cornwell Chapel. The Rev. Ormal B. Trick will officiate. Vault interment will be at Belle Passi Cemetery.

Arney died Thursday from injuries incurred the same day in a traffic accident between Hubbard and Aurora. Born Aug. 20, 1923, at Tillamook, he had lived at Woodburn since 1930, served with the Army during World War II, and had been employed since as a mechanic at a Woodburn seed mill.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Arney, Woodburn; three brothers, Clarence of Sheridan, Kenneth of Baker and Roy of Woodburn; four sisters, Agnes Fletcher, Tillamook; Grace Thompson and Doris Hughes, both of Seattle; and Martha Tuhn, Cottage Grove.

Word Omitted From Story

A petition filed Friday by L. H. Wright of Stayton, in which he urged the Marion County Court to decide soon on the relocation of a Silverton-area road, was printed Saturday with a word omitted. Correctly worded the petition reads:

"Although we do not object to the Silverton Chamber of Commerce, we do not look with disfavor upon the selection of the straight line route proposed between the Evergreen School and an intersection with the Silverton and Salem highway, particularly if this latter route would permit of earlier and substantially less costly construction."
