

MIGs Chase U.S. Airplane Over Denmark

COPENHAGEN (UP)—Communist MIG-type jet fighters invaded Danish territory and started to intercept a U. S. Air Force training plane Thursday, but failed to open fire.

The American plane was a two-place jet trainer being delivered to Denmark's Air Force from a U.S. base in West Germany. The craft and its two American occupants finished the flight safely.

The Americans, whose names were not released immediately, told Danish Air Force authorities that the MIG-type fighters buzzed their plane over the Danish island of Lolland, which lies 40 miles across the Baltic Sea from Communist East Germany.

The American plane was a two-seater T33 training version of the F80 Shooting Star.

An official American spokesman said later that three "MIG-type" planes had been involved in the incident.

Lt. Col. H. H. Klint, information officer of the staff of the Danish supreme commander, said that investigations were being carried out to establish, if possible, the nationality of the intruding planes.

Solon Asks Inquiry Into Kulich Case

WASHINGTON (UP)—Rep. Don Magnusen (D-Wash.) asked Thursday for a congressional inquiry into the Army's proposed "undesirable" discharge of a reserve corporal whose father was accused of being a Communist.

"I seriously wonder whether it is not a violation of constitutional guarantees to draft a man into the service and then subject him to the lifetime handicap of an undesirable discharge because of something his father may have said or done or believed before the son was taken into the service," Magnusen said in a House speech.

"In a free America any use of a doctrine of guilt by association is bad enough; guilt by inheritance is even more intolerable."

Magnusen introduced a resolution calling for an investigation by the Armed Services Committee.

The serviceman involved is Cpl. Walter William Kulich, 22, Aberdeen, Wash. Kulich got an honorable certificate of separation from service on Jan. 6 after two years active duty. About a month later according to Magnusen he was told by the Army it had received charges his father was a Communist. He was told he could attempt to disprove the charges or accept an "undesirable" discharge.
