Dancing is again on the Willamette University agenda for this weekend as five men's living organizations have planned their spring house dances.

"Domine, a Study in Black and White," is the theme of the Baxter hall formal dance tonight, to be held at the men's dorm from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Mexico will be the setting of the Beta Theta Pi formal dance tonight, to be held at the chapter house from 9 to 12 o'clock.

"Mood Indigo" will be the prevailing theme at the Phi Delta Theta formal dance, to be held Saturday at the American Legion hall, while the Sigma Chi's have planned a Frontier Days setting at the Vern Coates barn outside of Salem.

A Chinese motif will be found at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon costume dance, which will be at the chapter house from 7 to 12 o'clock. An Oriental dinner will be served preceding the dance.

Coe of Month

Rosemary Weaver of Grants Pass was named Coe of the month of May by the Associated Women Students this week. A senior for music education major, Miss Weaver has served as business manager for the music department, is a member of Cap and Gown, and has held offices in Delta Gamma.

Pete Reed of Scappoose was elected president of the Letterman's Club for next year. Other officers are vice president, Ron Fitzgerald of San Mateo, Calif.; secretary-treasurer, Clariss Popper of Albany; sergeant-at-arms, Chuck McClure of Portland.

Student body officer candidates were revealed this week, with a total of 16 people competing for the coveted offices.

In the race for president are Chet Daniels, Albany; Dave Finlay, Silverton; Dale Patton, McMinnville; and George Biele, Roseburg. First vice-president nominees are Neil Caubie, Albany; and Bill Wheat, Milton-Freewater. Secretary candidates are Joan Lawson, Spokane; Charlene Miner, San Mateo, Calif.; and JoAnn Bernard, Torrence, Calif.; Second vice-president aspirants are Pat Farley, and Dale Greenlee, both of Salem; and Benny Lee, Portland. Running for treasurer are Marian Rutledge, Estacada; and Don Klindworth, Jim Mercer and Lewis Beatty, all of Portland.

The election will be held today and Monday, with run-offs Tuesday and Wednesday. Results will be announced Friday.

Awards to be Made

"Academy Awards" will be presented at the annual Willamette University Players banquet at China City Wednesday evening. Following the awarding of eight trophies, Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatics honorary, will tap members. Drama manager for next year will be announced at this time, also.

Pi Beta Phi members and pledges will honor their mothers Saturday afternoon at a dessert luncheon at the chapter house. Special guest of honor will be the sorority's housemother, Mrs. Merle Kaufman.

Four men's organizations will travel to the beaches Sunday for the annual picnics. The Sigma Chi and Phi Delta Thetas will go to Neskowin, while the SAEs will visit Mayor White's cabin at Lincoln Beach. DeLake is the site of the Baxter hall party.

Phi Sigma Iota, national romance language honorary, initiated new members at their banquet Thursday evening. New members from Salem are Pauline Mathews, Irene Fussler and Nadine Small.

Candidates for King Cotton of the Y-Teens Cotton Ball to be held Saturday night at the YWCA are left to right, Larry Graber, Bob Wulf, Jim Anderson, Dave Socolofsky, Gary Ramsden, Ken Schrecengost, Phil Webb and Mack Harris. The young men represent the Y-Teen clubs from North Salem and South Salem High Schools and two Cotton Kings will be chosen, one for each school. The ninth candidate, Wally Costello, was unable to be present for the picture. The Cotton Ball is one of the traditional events given by the Y-Teens and several hundred are expected to attend. Interclub president Barbara Bostrack will crown the Kings. According to tradition the girls will wear cotton dresses and the boys will wear cotton shirts. (Kennell-Elis Studio).

EUGENE — Spring term activities are dominated by sunbathing and dodging the campus sprinklers, although there are only four more weeks of classes. Junior Weekend and Mothers' Weekend began on Wednesday with the annual freshman-vs-sophomore tug-of-war over the millrace. The all-campus clean-up and terrace dance was held on Thursday and Friday evening will be the Junior Prom at which the Junior Weekend Queen will be announced.

Traditional violators have been dropped into Fenton Pool by members of the Order-of-the-O and more undoubtedly will go home dripping before the weekend is over. Several honoraries will tap for membership at the all-campus luncheon Saturday afternoon after a special meeting for the mothers that morning.

Sally Jo Greig, as co-chairman of the Canoe Fete committee, has been on hand for the planning of this special activity, the Canoe Fete, which is scheduled for Saturday evening. Proceeds from the event will be divided evenly between the Junior class and the committee for the restoration of the millrace. Bleachers have been constructed for spectators and living organizations are now working on the individual floats.

All Campus Sing
Many organizations will have mothers to dinner Saturday night and some are inviting them for Sunday. After the Sunday dinner, mothers will be entertained at the all-campus sing in which many Salem people will participate. Roger Middleton is leading the group from Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Last weekend's activity began with the concert in MacArthur Court by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra on Friday evening. Ron Walters headed the group which was in Eugene as part of the concert series provided by the University.

Bill Mainwaring and Ron Walters were among those who helped prepare the Sigma Chi house for their dance with the theme, "Bi-

Marriage of Duo Told

Miss Connie Rae Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Taylor, and Gerald Ice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ice of Yakima, were united in marriage April 25 at the Nazarene Church in Stevenson, Wash.

For her wedding the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with a rounded neckline and a gathered skirt terminating in a train. The gown was enhanced with seed pearl trim. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a white satin band adorned with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white Bible marked with white camelias.

The newlyweds left immediately after the ceremony for Globe, Arizona, where Mr. Ice is a pitcher for the Globe, Miami Arizona League. He is owned by the Yakima Bears, but has been optioned to the Arizona League. For traveling the new Mrs. Ice wore a charcoal grey suit with pink accessories.

MORE FLAVOR, MORE MEASURES

... SHAKE THE CAN

AND SEE.

It's easy to prove, before you buy, which brand of coffee gives you more real value. Shake several brands. Even though all cans are the same size, notice how other coffees rattle, but not M.J.B. It's quiet because it's packed to the brim.

There's more flavor, more measures inside the M.J.B. can because our full-flavor roast expands each bean—releases all the rich flavor, and increases the volume, too. As a result, you get 2 to 8 extra measures to the pound. Shake the can—prove for yourself M.J.B. is today's best coffee buy!

YOU CAN'T MAKE A BAD CUP OF M.J.B.
