Council Has Busy Session At Jefferson

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
JEFFERSON—The Jefferson City Council held a busy session Monday night.

It was decided that the city would charge $40 for water meters with a 3-4 inch hookup. Anything over 3-4 inch pipe will be charged the cost of installation.

The City Hall rent was raised from $1.50 to $2.50. Everyone using the hall will be charged that fee. The money will be put in a fund for upkeep of the building and the recorder is to buy anything needed for the hall from this fund.

Mayor Charles Borst asked City Marshal George Armstrong to take over the cemetery and to obtain a caretaker. The latter is to mow the grass, open the graves, and do anything that needs being done. He also is to see that each family owning a lot there pays for having it taken care of.

A budget meeting will be held Thursday night, May 23, at 8 in the City Hall.
