Miss Patricia Healy Married At St. Joseph's on Saturday

Miss Mary Patricia Healy became the bride of Bruce Kipling Shurtleff at a beautiful spring wedding Saturday afternoon at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Healy and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. W. Bruce Shurtleff of Lincoln, Neb. and the late Mr. Shurtleff. The Rev. Joseph E. Vanderbeck officiated at the 3 o'clock nuptials. Vocalists were Mrs. Lorraine Nelke and Mrs. Carol Ritter with Mrs. Raymond S. Barton, the organist. The altar was banked with bouquets of white stock, snapdragons and calla lilies.

For her wedding the bride selected a handsome gown of lace and net over satin designed with a bouffant skirt over a hoop and terminating in a train. The fitted bodice was made with a tiny collar and long sleeves and the skirt was enhanced with scalloped lace insertion. A coronet of lace embellished with a heart shaped pearl design held in place her fingertip illusion veil. The pearl design was repeated on the veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Walk Before the Bride

Three attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Carol Fisher was the honor maid and bridesmaids were Miss Jan Foulger and Miss Jo Ann Ricketts. They wore ballerina frocks of aqua crystalettes with bolero jackets and matching halo head-dresses. Their mitts and sandals were white and they carried old fashioned nosegays of pink and white roses, sweetpeas and bouvardia.

Doyle Dodge stood with Mr. Shurtleff as best man. Ushering the guests to the pews were James McGrath, Robert Faulk and Jerry Toole, all of Portland, and A. F. Johnson.

Mrs. Healy attended her daughter's wedding in a mauve pink polished cotton gown with white hat and accessories, matching sandals and corsage of pink and white roses. Mrs. Shurtleff came west for her son's marriage and she wore a navy blue net gown with corsage of pink roses.

Kay Wesely Becomes Bride of Mr. McDonald at Church Rites

Green and yellow were the colors selected by Miss Kay L. Wesely for her marriage Saturday evening to Norman L. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McDonald. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Wesely.

The ceremony took place at the First Christian Church with the Rev. Wayne A. Greene performing the 8 o'clock rites. Mrs. Jack L. Smith was the vocalist and Mrs. Kay Craycroft the organist.

Pale green candles decorated the altar, the church windows and the aisle. The alternate pews were adorned with yellow bows and the aisle was marked off with yellow ribbon. Baskets of snapdragons and iris with greenery banked the altar. The green and yellow color scheme was repeated in the decorations at the reception.

Lighting the candles were Miss Elsa and Miss Sandra Mykol, cousins of the bride, who wore yellow ballerina frocks of crystalettes.

The bridal gown was of Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with a cathedral train. The bodice was made with a low, rounded neckline edged with gathered scalloped lace extending to a scalloped V in back. The full skirt was designed with a deep hem of nylon tulle ruffles. Her scalloped fingertip nylon tulle veil, sprinkled with rhinestones, was caught to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of red roses and white spider chrysanthemums.

Bridal attendants Mrs. Harry Stalnaker was the matron of honor and she wore an

Campbell-Fry Rites Read In Reno

Married in Reno Saturday night at the First Methodist Church were Miss Gwen Fry and Gary Campbell, both of Salem. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaMont A. Fry, formerly of Salem and Independence, who recently moved to Yakima. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell of Portland, formerly of Salem, and the late Mr. Campbell.

The Rev. Stephen C. Thomas officiated at the nuptials before members of the immediate family, who accompanied the couple south for the wedding.

The petite bride wore an ankle length gown of Venetian lace fashioned with a rounded scoop neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and a drop waistline. Her shoulder length illusion veil was caught to a Venetian lace headdress adorned with clusters of lily-of-the-valley on each side. She carried a lace covered white Bible marked with lily-of-the-valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powell of Salem, the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, attended the couple. Mrs. Powell wore a watermelon red and white print two-piece silk afternoon gown and carried a pastel nosegay.

Mrs. Fry chose a navy blue full skirted gown for her daughter's wedding with a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Campbell attended her son's marriage in a grey jacket ensemble with corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

The wedding reception and supper was held on the roof garden of the Mapes Hotel in Reno.

The newlyweds have left for a honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe and California coastal points. For traveling the new Mrs. Campbell changed to a navy and white polka dot dress with navy blue coat and white accessories.

After June 1, the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 605 Breys Avenue.

Royer, Mrs. John Henning, Mrs. Roy Vibbert and Miss Shirley Rice.

The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon at various lakes in British Columbia. For going away the bride changed to a grey wool suit with turquoise accessories and a white orchid. The bridegroom is stationed at Camp Hanford, Wash., with the U. S. army.
