

Tea Meeting For AAUW Saturday

Lipman's Tea Room will be the setting for the May meeting of the American Association of University Women on Saturday, May 21 at 2 p.m. There will be a short business meeting for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The tea hour will follow the meeting, and will continue until 4 p.m.

The Oregon Ceramic Studio of Portland will present an art exhibit, the theme to be "Good Design in Creative Art."

Oregon Ceramic Studio, organized in 1937, operates a contemporary craft gallery situated at 3934 Southwest Corbett Avenue, Portland. It is a non-profit making corporation maintained by volunteer workers in the interest of promoting high standards of design and workmanship among the creative craftsmen in Oregon and the Northwest.

The gallery is open to the public six days a week from 11 to 5, without charge, for the exhibition and sale of juried work, and for the sale of ceramic and weaving supplies. The studio is interested in fine creative contemporary work in the crafts, such as sculpture, pottery, weaving, jewelry, and drawings, paintings, photographs when allied to the craft work being shown.

Exhibitions are a part of the studio's educational program. Work considered is usually by Oregon or Northwest craftsmen or by nationally known artists in the field whose traveling exhibits have been requested.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Robert Corey, Mrs. Robert L. Turner, Mrs. Myron Pogue, and Mrs. S. V. Leek. Decorations will be arranged by Mrs. Douglas Freeburn.

PEO State Conclave In Baker

Of interest to PEO Sisterhood members in Salem is the state convention to open in Baker today. Sessions will be held at the Presbyterian Church from Monday through Wednesday noon. Mrs. Wendell L. Van Loan of Corvallis, is the state president and Mrs. Robert L. Ellstrom of Salem, the first vice-president.

The convention will open with a tea and a past presidents dinner today with business sessions slated for Monday and Tuesday. The BIL dinner will be Tuesday evening.

A highlight of the convention will be the educational hour Monday night with Mrs. Robert L. Ellstrom in charge. Awards of 8 scholarships to Oregon girls who will attend Cottey College next year will be announced during the educational hour. Announcement will also be made of the four recipients of the scholarships offered by PEO for use in Oregon colleges or universities next year.

The featured speaker on the educational program will be Miss Insa Abdir of Cairo, Egypt, a graduate of Presbyterian College for women in Cairo. She is studying for her master's degree at Oregon State College under the sisterhood's latest project, the international peace scholarship program. Mrs. Forrest Lemm of Salem will give a reading during the evening's program.

Honor guest for the convention will be Miss Ruth G. White, M.D., of Whittier, California, corresponding secretary of the supreme chapter of PEO.

The following delegates from the Salem PEO chapters planning to attend the convention are Mrs. G. W. Bruce, Mrs. Robert H. Dow, Mrs. J. Wesley Sullivan, Mrs. Lewis Mayers, Miss Jean Spaulding and Mrs. George Roseberry.

General Meeting WSCS

The general meeting of the West Salem WSCS will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Herman Kortemeyer. The prayer group will meet at the same place at 12:30 p.m. Dessert will be served at 1:30 p.m., followed by the general meeting. Mrs. Leo Estey will have the devotions and Mrs. N. E. Shaw the program. Mrs. A. J. Quirin, district secretary, will be the speaker and her topic will be "Status of Women."
