OCE Wallops SOCE 16 to 9

KLAMATH FALLS — (Special) Oregon College of Education drubbed Southern Oregon 16 to 9 in their first game in the Oregon Collegiate Conference baseball championships being held here this weekend. It was a homer-punctuated game with OCE slamming three among its 19 hits and SOCE getting two.

Getting homers for OCE were Gene Owens in the first inning with none on, Jack McRae in the second with none on and Wayne Osborn in the fourth with none on. McRae's was the longest, a 450-footer that sailed far out of the park.

Homers for SOCE were hit by Ned Landers in the first and Bob Smith, also in the first. Owens leads batters. To go with his homer, Owens also hit a triple and two singles in five trips to the plate. McRae also had a triple. Hitting doubles for OCE were Von Summers and Dean Sorenson. Everyone on the OCE team had at least two hits except Barry Adams.

Ted Owens and Summers pitched the game for OCE with Summers coming in to relieve Owens in the fifth.

OCE will now meet Eastern Oregon at 8:30 Saturday morning in the second game of the tourney. OCE drew a bye in Friday's play.

North Salem and South Salem High Schools split in their district tennis action Friday with each school qualifying three men to go to the state tournament.

North Salem will send Larry Johnson in the singles and Dave Socolofsky and Marv Rhine in the doubles. South Salem will send Stan Page in the singles and Phil Burkland and Bob Wulf in the doubles.

In Friday's action Johnson defeated Kent Jaquith of South Salem 6-0, 6-2 and then downed Jack Bowman of North Salem 6-0, 6-2 and won his semi-final round against Don Lebold of South 6-2, 6-2. Page defeated Jim Hardie of North 7-5, 6-3 and Glen Durham of North 6-0 and 6-1.

The North Salem doubles team of Socolofsky and Rhine eliminated Gerald Minife and Bill Cummings of South 6-3, 6-1. Bill Jacobson and Roger Stewart of South 6-0, 6-1 to gain the semi against the South duo of Wulf and Burkland.

Wulf and Burkland defeated Lee Weaver and Keith Boyer of North Salem 6-1 and 6-0 after drawing a bye in the first round. Wulf and Burkland won their first set against the North's Socolofsky and Rhine by 6-4 and 7-5 scores. They finish their best two-of-three sets Saturday. Both teams will go to state finals but the results of Saturday's play will determine their order.

Johnson and Page will also play a best two-of-three sets Saturday to determine their order in the state tourney, although both will go.

440, 880 Hold Relay Feature

MODESTO, Calif. — The middle distances will hold the spotlight Saturday night in the 14th renewal of the California Relays. The half and quarter-mile events for individuals and the 440-yard and medley relay have attracted banner fields and, with hot and windless weather expected, records of almost any caliber could go by the boards in the opinion of Meet Director Tom Moore.

Miler Wes Santee, who has failed repeatedly to crack the four-minute mark, will hook up with Lon Spurrier, the ex-California runner, in a special 880-yard run. Spurrier, now in the air force, shattered the world half mile record with a 1:47.5 clocking March 26 in a triangular meet at Berkeley.

The 440-yard field features the three top quarter-milers in America — Lou Jones of Manhattan College and Fort Knox, J. W. Mashburn of Oklahoma A. & M. and Jimmy Lea of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The trio is expected to lead the field of candidates for 400-meter berths on the 1956 U. S. Olympic team.

Oregon City Raps Preps in Playoff

WOODBURN (Special) — Oregon City won the District 4 championship and a ticket to the state baseball playoffs by blanking Mt. Angel, 11 to 0, Friday afternoon. Hugh Hendry limited the losers to only two hits in going the seven inning stretch for Oregon City.

Oregon City bunched eight runs in the second inning, sided by two singles by Jerry Frick, single safeties by Tom Gilbert and Bob Mahoney and a double by Hendry.

Dual Program On Oval Menu

The midget auto racers, prime favorites with many fans, make their initial appearance of the 1955 season at Salem's Hollywood Bowl tonight. Time trails, which will include both Ford and Offenhauser powered cars, will start at 7:45 o'clock. Then will follow trophy dashes, heat ramps and main events for both makes of tuff buggies.

Since a midget auto program is booked for Portland's Jantzen Beach area tomorrow afternoon, Washington and Canadian entries slated to appear in Portland will also enter tonight's events here.

Valley Sports officials have merged with Oregon Sports chiefs on the Saturday night-Sunday afternoon programs in Salem and Portland so that racers will be more inclined to come in from distant points to drive in both programs.

Many of the "name" drivers of the last few seasons will be at the wheels of their favorite speedsters tonight. Bob Gregg, the Vancouver heavyweight, who holds the local track record for midgets at 15.85 seconds for a single lap, will handle Clarence Smith's No. 25 "Offy." Len Sutton, the 1954 Oregon and Washington midget driving champ for Offenhausers will be riding herd on Homer Norman's swift No. 1 Offy, and Chuck Tontz, who won the Oregon-Washington title in 1954 for Ford powered cars will be in with Wes Beck's Offy this time. Tontz has switched from a Ford to an Offy.

Congdon Top Threat
Another topnotcher to keep an eye on is the veteran Russ Congdon of Vancouver, B. C., who also drives one of the Offies. He is slated to lead a group of at least four Canadian entries into the local fray.

Other prominent pilots entered include Palmer Crowell, Bill Berry, Gene Fletcher, Don Nelson, Pogo Lundquist, Larry Eastman, Ray Jensen, Ken Peterson, Smokey Blake, Hal Kidem, Red Anderson, Mel Anthony, Mel Gaughy, Johnny Ellis and Bill Gallagher.

It is possible that three or four cars from the Grants Pass Association will also be up for both the Salem and Portland meets.

Husky Net Team Cinches ND Title

PULLMAN, Wash. — Washington virtually won the Northern Division tennis tournament crown on the first day of play Friday, sweeping all four players into the singles semi-finals.

The Huskies accumulated 14 points before rain washed out most of the second round doubles matches. Oregon State had 4, Oregon 3, Washington State 2 and Idaho.

Ray Albano of Washington had the hardest time reaching the singles semi-finals, finally beating Bill Myers, WSC, 6-4, 7-5.

In the other three Husky quarter-final wins, Bill Quillian beat Terry Clifford of WSC 6-4, 6-1, Dan Lim defeated Bob Jensen, OSC, 6-3, 6-0, and Doyle Perkins beat Ron Carlson, Oregon, 6-0, 6-1.

North Salems Down Saxons

3-1 Game Closes Season for Teams

Coach Bill Hanauka's North Salem Vikings defeated South Salem for the second time this season Friday by a 3 to 1 score at Waters Field in a non-counting baseball game.

It was the final game of the season for the Vikings and Coach Hank Juran's Saxons. Fred Keipinger and Jack Loy, who took over in the fourth inning, teamed up to limit the Saxons to only four hits. John Frederick allowed the Vikings six hits in losing the game.

North Salem Scores
North Salem scored twice in the first inning on bases-loaded singles by Don Pigsley and Bob Jantze. North added its third run in the sixth when Pigsley singled and then scored on a single by Fred Stephens.

The Saxons got their lone run in the second when Jerry Walling singled and then came home on Frederick's double. Frederick's double was the only extra-base hit of the game.

Suspension Given Fight Managers

NEW YORK — Bill Daly and Tex Pette, former co-managers of Welterweight Vince Martinez of Paterson, N. J., were suspended Friday by the New York State Athletic Commission at an inquiry into an alleged managerial boycott against Martinez.

Julius Helfand, chairman of the commission, said the hearings would be concluded Monday when the "loose ends" of the inquiry will be cleaned up.

Martinez had been idle since December and the commission has been trying to find out if the International Boxing Guild (an organization of fight managers) has "grounded" the boxer because he broke away from Daly, who is treasurer of the IBG.

Walker Team Sweeps First Matches

Briton's Title Hopes Crushed

By STERLING SLAPPEY
ST. ANDREWS, Scotland — America's unquenchable young amateur golfers crushed Britain's hopes of winning the Walker Cup Friday when they swept all four of the opening day's foursomes matches in the 15th international team competition.

This totally unexpected triumph sent the United States into Saturday's singles needing to win only three of eight matches in order to retain the trophy. It was a crushing setback for the British team, regarded as the strongest of the post-war era.

Although the Americans had been slight favorites to win the Walker Cup for the 14th time, nothing like Friday's sweep was foreseen. The Britons, more accustomed to foursomes play and to the vagaries of St. Andrews weather, had been expected to show their best.

Only twice before in Walker Cup history — in 1928 at Wheaton, Ill., and in 1932 at Brookline, Mass. — had Britain failed to get even a half in the Walker Cup foursomes.

Friday only the top American team, Harvie Ward of San Francisco and Don Cherry of Wichita Falls, Tex., had to go the full 36-hole distance over the windswept 6,926-yard Old Course of St. Andrews. They rallied at the finish to down Ireland's Joe Carr and England's Ronnie White, the best of the British amateurs, one up.

Billy Joe Patton, the happy-go-lucky clogger from Morganton, N. C., and young Dick Yost of Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash., turned back Gerald Micklem of England and John Llewellyn Morgan of Wales, 2 and 1.

Portland's 21-year-old Bruce Cudd, youngest of the Americans, and Jim Jackson of St. Louis routed the Scottish team of David Blair and Robin Cater, 5 and 4.

Singles Saturday
And Joe Conrad, 25-year-old Air Force lieutenant from San Antonio, Tex., and grim-faced Dale Morey of Indianapolis turned back Ian Caldwell and Ernest Millward of England, 3 and 2.

In the singles pairings, Ward and White were given the top spots, affording the 29-year-old San Franciscan the opportunity to become the first American to defeat White in singles.

Blues Nudge Golds 6 to 5

Game's Result Gives Grays Junior Title

The Leslie Blues edged the Leslie Golds, 6-5, Friday in the final game of the Salem Junior High Baseball League, thus keeping the Golds from sharing the league championship with the Parrish Grays. The win by the Blues gave the Grays complete rule of the title.

With the score tied at 5-5 in the last of the seventh inning, Dan Moore singled with the bases loaded to score the winning run.

Three triples were hit in the game, including one each by the two pitchers, Dale Wulf the victor and Cliff Johnson the loser. The Golds' Mike Coy also got one in the sixth to score two ahead of him.

Moore, who hit the game-deciding triple, hit safely three times in four trips, including a double.

Golds 012 002 0—5 7 2
Blues 011 201 1—6 7 5
Johnson and Dallman; Wulf and Goertzen.

Albany Wins Title

PRINEVILLE — Albany combined three of its four hits, scoring three runs in the sixth inning, to defeat Prineville 3-2 and win the district 8A high school baseball championship Friday.
