Monmouth, Independence to Hold Reception for Teacher Who Won National Acclaim

MONMOUTH — A public reception for Miss Margaret Perry, honored this week as national "Teacher of the Year," will be held next Wednesday from 4-8:30 p.m. at the Oregon College of Education faculty lounge in the library building, the college announced Friday.

Civic organizations of Independence and Monmouth are sponsoring the reception and open house. Invitations are being extended to Gov. and Mrs. Paul Patterson, Charles Byrne, chancellor of the state system of higher education; State School Supt. Rex Putnam, Walter Leth and Joseph D. Rogers, Polk County legislators; also to superintendents and principals of school districts in this area.

It is hoped that many former graduates of Monmouth schools also will attend, OCE reported.

Miss Perry and two of her Monmouth fourth-grade pupils are expected home Monday from a trip East where they met President Eisenhower and received the national award.
