

Operatic Couple on Radio This Weekend; Baritone Sings Monday

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Music Editor

The better music programs for the weekend begin this morning with the New York Philharmonic Symphony under Dimitri Metro-poulos and with John Corigliano, violin soloist. Two young vocalists, Marilyn Horne and Harve Presnell are Standard Hour's soloists. Theodore Uppman is the Standard Hour's soloist.

10:30 on CBS—New York Philharmonic-Symphony, Dimitri Metro-poulos, conductor. John Corigliano, violin soloist. James Fasset, music commentator.

Overture to "La Forza del Destino" Vgrdi
Symphony No. 3 in G minor Rousset
Violin Concerto in D minor Sibelius

Greek Dances Skalkotas
7:30 on NBC—The Standard Hour presents Marilyn Horne, soprano, and Harve Presnell, baritone, with the Standard Symphony of Los Angeles under John Barnett.

Couperin Suite Couperin-Barnett
Ritorna Vincitor—Verdi
"Aida" Miss Horne

Two Panamanian Dances—Still Vision Fugitive—Massenet
"Herodiade" Mr. Presnell

Little Symphony: Peasants Dialogue Zeisl
Watch of the Guardian Angels Pierre Silvi: A Quest Ora—Leoncavallo
"Fagliacci" Miss Horne and Mr. Presnell
Gayne Ballet Suite Khatchaturian

9:00 on CBS—The Philadelphia Orchestra, Eugene Ormandy, conductor.
Overture and Allegro, from Suite "La Sultane" Couperin-Milhaud
Symphonie Fantastique Berlioz
Monday programs include:

8:00 on NBC—The Telephone Hour, with the Bell Symphony Orchestra and Chorus, conducted by Donald Voorhees; Theodor Uppman, baritone, is guest soloist.

Your Eyes Have Told Me So Blaufuss
Orchestra
Bright Is the Ring of Words Williams
Mr. Uppman

Jamaican Rumba Benjamin Orchestra
Home on the Range Trad. arr. Guion
Because I Were Shy Trad. arr. Johnston
Mr. Uppman

The Young Prince and the Young Princess from "Scheherazade" Rimsky-Korsakov
Orchestra
Promesse de Mon Avenir from "Le Roi de Lahore" Massenet
Mr. Uppman

8:30 on ABC—The Voice of Firestone, with Jerome Hines, basso and his wife, Lucia Evangelista, soprano, with orchestra and chorus under the direction of Howard Barlow. (Listed as The Barlow Concert on KEX.)
El Rancho Grande—Uranga
Freddie and His Fiddle, from "Song of Norway"—Wright-Forrest
Chorus and Orchestra

Red River Valley Traditional Song of the Open Road Malotte
Mr. Hines
La ci darem la mano—Mozart
"Don Giovanni" Romberg
Desert Song
Miss Evangelista and Mr. Hines
Rhenish Symphony—Schumann
Orchestra

(Note—The Voice of Firestone can also be seen and heard over KFOR-TV Channel 12 at 7:30 Monday.)

Friendship Night for Chapter

Friendship Night was observed Wednesday evening when Ainsworth Chapter met for the regular semi-monthly meeting.

Honored guests included Harold Ayers grand organizer of the Grand Chapter of Oregon from Meridian Chapter at Eugene; Mrs. Ruby Miller and Paul Halweg, worthy matron and worthy patron of Venus Chapter at Donald; and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Poythart, worthy matron and worthy patron of Barzallai Chapter, Albany.

The Rev. E. J. Holland spoke and Miss Sharon Anderson sang, accompanied by Mrs. James N. Francis.

Mrs. Elma Sherman, Howard Jenks, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koken will be the delegates from Ainsworth Chapter attending the Grand Session in Portland beginning June 6.

The Social Afternoon Club will meet for their monthly luncheon Thursday, May 26 at the Masonic Temple with Mrs. Frank R. Brown as chairman of the hostess committee.

At the June 1 meeting of the chapter there will be a covered dish dinner at six o'clock in the dining room of the Scottish Rite Temple for members and their families. Master Masons will be honored at this meeting and invited chapters include Gervais of Gervais, Naomi of Dallas, Evergreen of Woodburn, Victoria of Turner and Cedar Chapter of Scio.

Mrs. Luther Peterson served as chairman of the evening refreshment committee assisted by Mrs. Roy Hunt, Mrs. V. M. Koop, Mrs. Lowell Shinn, Mrs. Edna Thomas, Mrs. J. E. Webster, Mr. Warren Pahl and Mr. Fred Koken.

Mrs. William J. Bender will be hostess to members of Chapter CQ, PEO Wednesday at her home, 1132 Hines St., for a 12:45 dessert luncheon. Miss Winifred Carriethers will be the co-hostess. Reports will be given on the state convention held in Baker the past week and the chapter will celebrate its second birthday.

Meryl Metheny and Marda Miller of Scio will be among the young dancers featured in the second annual Don Allen Dance Studio Revue to be held May 27 at the Leslie Junior High School auditorium. (Jesten-Miller Studio).

Seen and Heard

A GARDEN PARTY . . . a week ago when Dr. and Mrs. Robert Moulton Gatke entertained a group of their friends at their Richmond Avenue home . . . the occasion to view the lovely garden and rhododendrons, which are now at their peak . . . The Gatkes are hosts for a similar affair each year so that their friends may view their picturesque garden, which is ablaze with color . . . a perfect setting with the Mill Creek bordering the garden . . . azaleas, rhododendrons, which are Dr. Gatke's pride and joy, tulips and lilacs all in bloom . . . guests shown about the garden by the host, assisted by his two sons, Richard and Robert . . . Richard busy taking movies throughout the afternoon . . . Dr. Daniel Schulze and Prof. Earl Brown . . .

Tea . . . served inside . . . and the rooms of the Gatke home resembling a garden with exquisite bouquets arranged by Dr. Gatke . . . A panoramic view of the garden from the picture window in the den . . . and a bouquet of azaleas and tulips on a table before the window . . . On the mantel twin vases filled with yellow azaleas and lilacs and other bouquets of azaleas, tulips and lilacs about the rooms . . . The tea table covered with a pink cloth and the centerpiece of azaleas and tulips in shades of pink . . .

Among those calling . . . Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Dean and Mrs. Melvin H. Geist . . . Mrs. Geist chic in a navy costume ensemble with a navy and white polka dress and coat lining to match . . . a perky navy and white straw hapeau . . . Mrs. Ernest C. Richards pouring one hour . . . Miss Lois Latimer wearing a becoming blue print dress . . . Dr. and Mrs. George Martin viewing the rhododendrons . . . A sister duo . . . Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce, who are busy with plans to move into their new home, come June . . .

Also noted . . . Miss Lelia Johnson, in a pink linen dress, inviting guests to come in for a cup of tea or coffee . . . Dr. Gale Currey planning a summer in Norway, where she will study at the University of Oslo and will be living on the campus . . . Dr. Marion Morange will be in Vermont this summer visiting friends and will also study at Middlebury College . . . Dr. Martha Springer, the Otto J. Wilsons, the Clifton Mudds, J. E. Laws and Clarence Byrds among those enjoying the gardens . . .

AU REVOIR COFFEE . . . a week ago Saturday when Mrs. Edward A. Lebold and Mrs. A. L. Adolphson entertained at the former's lovely Kingwood Heights home . . . guests invited to say farewell to Mrs. Thomas . . .

A Windshar, who left this past week for Portland to make her home . . . she was accompanied by daughter, Joan, and their new home is in the Alameda district . . .

So appropriate . . . the table centerpiece . . . a moving van flanked by red roses and pink snapdragons . . . a beautiful embroidered linen cloth on the table . . . A large bouquet of lilacs and tulips on the piano . . . guests enjoying the lovely view from the picture windows of the Lebold home . . . Mrs. Windshar wearing a becoming two-piece white dress with corsage of red roses . . .

Saying farewell . . . to the honor guest . . . Mrs. T. J. Brabe smart in navy blue . . . Mrs. Charles E. Wagner, Mrs. Oscar Christensen, Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mrs. Dick Ross, Mrs. Duane Gibson . . . Mrs. Floyd Kenyon, Mrs. E. A. Guenther, Mrs. M. S. Innocenti and Miss Lorraine Meusey wearing a good-looking grey pleated ensemble with navy straw . . . Mrs. E. H. Kennedy busy with decorating plans for her new Morningside home, which will be completed by early summer . . . Mrs. T. Harold Tomlinson and Mrs. L. V. Benson, who have been legislative secretaries during the session, enjoying seeing their friends again after four months of working . . . Mrs. Leslie Burdette, Mrs. C. Lester Newman and Mrs. William Schlitt chatting over the coffee cups . . .

WEDDING ECHOES . . . one of the first large weddings of the season took place at St. Joseph's Catholic Church a week ago when Patricia Healy became a bride . . . So attractive the ballerina frocks of the attendants . . . of turquoise crystallette with tucked bodices in back and large bows . . . most effective as the girls walked down the long, white carpeted aisle . . . Patricia all smiles as she left the church with her handsome bridegroom . . . immediately after the reception the newlyweds left for Lincoln, Neb., to make their home, driving by way of California . . .

Setting . . . for the reception was the Gold Room at the Marion Hotel . . . the newlyweds receiving for over an hour . . . huge baskets of white calla lilies, stock and snapdragons on either side of the line . . . Stunning was the large arrangement of pink cherry blossoms and lilacs at one end of the room . . . The bride's table covered with a white satin cloth and centered with a tiered cake encircled with roses and bouvardia . . . the punch table with a pink cloth and the anniversary candle, which will burn each year on the couple's wedding anniversary . . . Ed Syring playing background organ music throughout the reception . . .

Dance Revue Slated for Friday

An event of Friday, May 27 will be the second annual Don Allen Dance Studio revue to be held at Leslie Junior High School will feature 150 dancers as well as acts by professional entertainers from all parts of the state.

The performance will be divided into three sections which will include tap dancing, ballet, and a professional variety show.

The ballet section of the show is under the direction of Marcelle Renoux of Portland, formerly with the American School of Ballet in Hollywood. Miss Renoux's background includes musical comedy work on Broadway. She will bring ballet students from Portland to add to the show.

The tap section of the show is under the direction of Gene Gebauer, Salem, who supervised and directed last year's show. All routines, costumes and orchestrations are entirely new and original for this year's show.

The final section of the revue will be a professional and semi-professional variety and vaudeville show.

Tickets are on sale at Stevens & Son Jewelers, or they can be secured from students of the Don Allen Dance Studio.

From out-of-town . . . came Mrs. Jack Wittliff of Astoria wearing a handsome mink stole with her outfit and escorted by son, Jack Beakey . . . the two later going on to the Mother's weekend festivities at Oregon State . . . Senator and Mrs. Francis Ziegler over from Corvallis . . . longtime friends of the Healy's, the Sam Arnotts, down from Seattle for the occasion . . .

Among others . . . Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newberry accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, the William Bissells . . . the E. Burr Millers . . . Mrs. Miller donning a yellow chapeau with her black outfit . . . their son-in-law and daughter, Paul and Nancy Hawkins, way up in Alaska and awaiting the arrival of their furniture . . . at present there are just two cots in the house . . . Bobbie Sjoding, wearing a full skirted white frock, receiving best wishes on announcement of her recent engagement to Jerry McCallister . . . Young marrieds assisting . . . Dorothy Kertzel (Mrs. Stanley) and Joanne Raines (Mrs. Douglas) . . . Julie Foulger having the time of her life passing the dream cakes tied in blue tulle . . . her sister, Jan, one of the bridesmaids . . .

Also spotted . . . Mrs. Chester Fritz wearing a handsome red knit coat and white hat and carrying a large black patent purse . . . A foursome . . . Ralph and Sidney Schlessinger, accompanied by their attractive spouses . . . The Ralph Schlessingers soon to move to Portland as they have sold their Fawk Street home . . . Mrs. Sam Speerstra wearing a smart red straw with her navy and red print shantung ensemble . . .

Senior Recital Event of Today

A joint senior recital of the Encore Club of South Salem High School and the Crescendo Club of North Salem High School will be presented this afternoon in the auditorium of the State Blind School at 3 o'clock. This will be the first joint recital of the two clubs and the varied program will include voice, piano and instrumental numbers by the senior members.

Advisors are Howard Miller for the Crescendo Club and Victor Palmason for the Encore Club. The public is invited to attend and refreshments will be served following the recital.

Pianists appearing on the program are Vicki Ward, Phoebe Lou Braun, Lorraine Bagley; vocalists, Marilyn Shields, Velva Clark, accompanied by Gaynelle Metheny, Jim Heath, Marilyn Myers, accompanied by Shirley Pugh, Earl Neuman, Beverly Hamman, Bill Wilson, Georgia Walters, Sandra Mischke, Don Williams; organ, Joan Harrison; violin, Jan Button, Bertha Beckley and flute, Reiden Iverson.

Spinsters will be entertained Monday night at the home of Miss Mary Louise Lee, 1076 Bellevue St., at 8 o'clock. Co-hostesses will be Miss Ann Carlson and Mrs. Ervin C. Smith. Petitions will be read for new members during the meeting at which Miss Marjorie Becke will preside.

The Sojourners will meet for a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon Thursday afternoon at the Salem Women's clubhouse. Mrs. Roger Webb is chairman of the committee for the annual guest day. Assisting will be Mrs. Charles R. Shaw, Mrs. J. E. Webster, Mrs. O. W. Wensley, Mrs. Loren W. Lewis and Mrs. Carl Muller.

Convention To Open in Eugene

Kenneth Lindsey, for 17 years an Independent member of the British Parliament, and Kenneth O'Connell, University of Oregon professor of law, will be guest speakers at the state convention of the League of Women Voters of Oregon scheduled for Eugene, May 22, 23, 24.

Mr. O'Connell will address the Monday evening dinner meeting, speaking on "Women in Politics."

Mr. Lindsey, at present teaching International Relations in the political science department of the University of Oregon; is scheduled to speak on "Through British Eyes" at the Tuesday meeting.

The convention opens Sunday evening with a buffet supper and meeting at the Laurelwood Country Club. Highlights of the 3 day meeting will include a message from national by Mrs. Edward L. Hughes, president of the Portland League, who with Mrs. Ronald K. Campbell, president of the Oregon League, has just returned from the national council meeting in Washington, D.C.

At Monday's dinner meeting the new Leagues of Oregon will be honored. These include Beaverton League, and the Provisional Leagues of Coos Bay, Milwaukie, and Oswego. All local League presidents have been asked to tell of highlights in their leagues this year.

Evening Circle of the Leslie Methodist WSCS will meet Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. George Rohde, 2755 Pioneer Drive, at 8 p.m. A puppet show will be presented by Elisabeth Olsen. Mrs. John Stuller will be the co-hostess.

PROTECT YOUR EYES!

Guard that precious eyesight with regular check-ups by our regular optometrists.

USE YOUR CREDIT AND OUR EASY PAYMENT PLAN
Optometrists
At Boring Optical Corner 12th at Center Dial 3-6506 Free Parking Space
Dr. E. E. Boring	Dr. Sam Hughes

At Roberts Bros. 340 Court St.

Decorative Fiberglass PLANTERS and BOWLS

Beautifully proportioned bowls and stands enhance any decorative scheme . . . dozens of practical uses for home or office. Bowls are lightweight, shatterproof — large selection of molded-in colors and textures. Offered in 2 sizes, choice of black iron tripods . . .

- 15 1/2" DIAMETER BOWL
WROUGHT IRON TRIPOD
30" High Tripod with Bowl 1195
- 15 1/2" DIAMETER BOWL
WROUGHT IRON TRIPOD
16" High Tripod with Bowl 995

Exciting array of the new Espana colors: petal pink, Caribbean blue, coral, white, black, transparent. Adequate size for small tree plantings—graceful patio accessory—use as a soft drink cooler, storage area.

Roberts Bros.
340 Court Street

WE GIVE AND REDEEM 2x GREEN STAMPS

Miller's FUR STORAGE

is real
COOL!

And every Fur wants to get into the act! Call today to book your fur for a Summer-time stand in our safe scientifically controlled cold storage vaults on our premises.

Phone 2-2431

Miller's Fur Dept.

Miller's

THE MOST BASIC BEAUTY DISCOVERY since soap and water. New Velvet Foam is a perfectly pure, non-alkaline "facial wash" with none of the harsh, drying or irritating after-effects of ordinary soap and water washing. Velvet Foam your complexion, it will come clean immediately, immaculately as you give it the gentle, truly safe beauty care on which your skin thrives. $1.50 the tube. (plus tax)

Charles of the Ritz

Mary Thomas Meisl
Interior Designer
Roberts Bros.