Walnut, Filbert Pools Closed For 1953, 1954

By LILLIE L. MADSEN
Farm Editor, The Statesman

The 1953 and 1954 walnut and filbert pools of the Salem Nut Growers cooperative have been ordered closed by the board of directors, Glenn W. Hansberry, secretary-manager, said Monday.

The 1953 pools and the 1954 filbert pool are to be paid immediately and the 1954 walnut pool will be paid as soon as possible, he added.

The annual meeting of the membership has been set for May 31 at 8 p.m. at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, 640 Hood St., Salem.

Matters to be taken up, reports Hansberry, are election of six directors and change in the by laws, as well as a discussion on the 1955 operations. Among the changes in the bylaws is one which will provide that all nine members of the board must own, operate or control a commercial nut acreage. Five directors will constitute a quorum.

The only two directors who will remain on the board are E. J. Allan and A. L. Page. Directors whose terms expire this year are H. M. Bibby, G. C. Hart, L. C. Marshall, A. A. Withers, Frank E. Way and H. H. Bosch. Some of the outgoing directors will be candidates for re-election. Three will be chosen for two-year terms and three for three-year terms. Mr. Hansberry, as secretary-manager of the cooperative, automatically serves as a director.

Hansberry was named during the past year as secretary-manager to take the place of J. J. Gallagher, who resigned, but remained with the cooperative until December to assist Hansberry in taking over the management.
