Miss Mary Laughlin Reveals Engagement to Mr. Barlow

Romantic news being revealed today is announcement of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Mary Penelope Laughlin, daughter of Mrs. S. B. Laughlin and the late Dr. Laughlin, to Howard William Barlow, son of Mrs. Howard H. Barlow and the late Dr. Barlow.

The couple will be married in late July and will make their home in Salem.

Miss Laughlin is a graduate of Willamette University and is a member of Pi Beta Phi. She later took graduate work at Bryn Mawr College in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Barlow is a graduate of the University of Oregon and is a member of Beta Theta Pi. He is a second year law student at Willamette University School of Law.

Musicians to Take Part in Festival

On Saturday, June 4, 121 student musicians from the Salem area and from Mt. Angel will participate in the regional Music Festival under the sponsorship of the Federated Music Clubs. This is the second annual regional festival to be held in Salem and Mrs. Harvey Gibbens is chairman.

At 9 a.m. the Sacred Heart Academy Choir, which is the first Federated Youth Choir in the state of Oregon, will be heard. Following the choir will be the violin and cello groups. These events will be judged by John O'Connor of Oregon State College at the Sacred Heart Academy with Sister Regina Mary and Mrs. Carlisle Roberts in charge.

Also on Saturday morning, beginning at 8:30, the piano divisions will be heard at Willamette Music Hall with Theodore F. Norman as judge. Mr. Norman is from the University of Washington. Members of the local organization and parents of students will assist with clerical work. The interested public is invited to attend. A small fee is charged which permits attendance at all events.

On Sunday all students receiving superior ratings in any division will appear in a special recital at 2 p.m. at Willamette Music Hall. Featured will be the Youth Choir of Sacred Heart Academy. Students receiving ratings of superior in violin and cello will each receive a cash prize from funds made available to the Oregon Federated Club for this purpose.

Students Win Awards on Campus

EUGENE—The school year's activities and classes are winding up at about the same time with "only" finals left before graduation on June 12. Dick Lewis was named a Distinguished Military graduate and was presented with the award at the military graduation exercises which took place on Tuesday.

An award went to Sandra Schori, who received one of the 77 scholarships awarded to upperclassmen for the 1955-56 school year. Sally Jo Greig received a state fee award granted by the University.

At the fifth annual banquet of Kappa Rho Omicron (radio honorary) Jean Smith was given an award for her outstanding contribution to KWAX, the campus radio station. Bill Cook and Jim Shull were recently tapped for the honorary. KWAX-TV produced its first show on June 2, "The Valiant," with the audio being handled by Jean Smith.

Salem Men Elected
Bill Cook was elected treasurer of the Air Command Squadron, the AF-ROTC honorary. A man with another big job for next year is Bill Mainwaring, who is in charge of promotion for the 1956 Religious Evaluation Week. Glenn Benner has just completed a year as president of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, men's music honorary, and as a member of Roger Middleton's band, which has been very successful.

Tom Bright, W. Ran Crosier, Al Heston, Randolph Middleton, Jacquelyn Saylor, Bob Sogge, and John Templeton are the seniors from Salem preparing for graduation exercises on Sunday, June 12. Highlighting the weekend, will be the reunion of five classes as the Class of 1955 receives its diplomas. The classes of 1905, 1910, 1915, 1925 and 1930 will attend the annual University Alumni Day luncheon on Saturday, June 11, and their separate class dinners that evening. Oliver Houston of Salem is handling the arrangements for the reunion of the class of 1910.

Chapter Holds a Model Meeting
Gamma Gamma chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held a model meeting in the Coral Room of the Marion Hotel Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. This meeting was the last in a series held to establish a new sister chapter in Albany.

Miss Barbara Skorney, Portland, state northwest district president, spoke on district and state structure of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Several members from Beta Epsilon chapter, Portland, were present.

Mrs. George Stein was general chairman of the meeting with Mrs. Robert Sandstrom, president of Gamma Gamma, presiding.

Plans are now being made for a pledge pin ceremony for the newly established chapter to be held in Albany.

Mrs. Harry B. Johnson entertained members of Chapter G, PEO at a dessert luncheon Thursday afternoon at her Morningside home. This was the last meeting of the season for the chapter.
