

59-18 Senate Vote Gives Approval to Foreign Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Thursday night passed the entire $4 billion dollar foreign aid program President Eisenhower has asked for the year starting July 1. The vote was 59-18. For the first time since 1950, the Senate failed to remove so much as one penny from the global aid authorization bill which Eisenhower on April 20 called "an indispensable part of a realistic and enlightened national policy."

Sweet Home Mother Finds Missing Son

UKIAH, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Thelma Stockett, 47, Sweet Home, Ore., found Thursday the six-year-old son she has accused her divorced husband of stealing. Sheriff Reno Bartolomei said Henry Stockett, 49, was held on the child stealing charge in Palo Alto where he had refused to tell anyone where the boy, Frank Paul Stockett, was. Sheriff Bartolomei said Stockett, who divorced his wife in Mexico in January, 1952, lured Frank Paul into his car at Sweet Home May 19. The father and boy disappeared. Mrs. Stockett learned a member of Stockett's family would appear in court at Palo Alto June 1. She found her husband there and he was arrested on her complaint Wednesday. She learned from one of Stockett's family that he was living "somewhere around Ukiah." Mrs. Stockett arrived here this morning and asked Sheriff Bartolomei's aid. In a check of stores and banks Stockett's Sherwood Valley address turned up in a Bank of America credit application. Lt. Curtis Hollingsworth took Mrs. Stockett to the Sherwood Valley school where they found Frank Paul.

Billy Graham Predicts Small Paris Meetings

PARIS, France (AP)—American evangelist Billy Graham, who launches his first crusade in a predominantly Catholic country here next week, said Thursday he hopes to encourage more Frenchmen to go to church and read their Bibles. The North Carolina preacher stressed that Catholics are invited to his revival meetings, even though the meetings are sponsored by Protestants. Fresh from a seven-week campaign in Britain where he preached to millions, Graham said he was counting on only three or four thousand persons a night at his Paris meetings. But he predicted to newsmen that even if only a few thousand come "it will have an effect on religious life." Graham vigorously denied he might be leading an anti-Catholic crusade. The Rev. Jean Paul Benoit, chairman of the French Evangelical Alliance which is sponsoring the Graham campaign, said that if any of Graham's French converts indicated they wanted to join the Catholic church they would be encouraged to do so.

St. Helens Mill Plans Reopening

ST. HELENS, Ore. (AP)—St. Helens' two largest industries, closed by a strike since March 31, announced Thursday they will attempt to reopen Monday. The management of Fir-Tex Insulating Board Co. and Western Insulated Board, Inc., said they hoped to reach an agreement with the AFL Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union by then. If not, they will reopen anyway, the announcement said.

Charles C. Edwards who will oppose Gus Moore for position on Salem School Board.

Petitions for School Board Posts Checked

Petitions for Gus Moore and Edith Brydon, candidates for the Salem School Board, are now being checked for verification of signatures, according to Connell Ward, clerk-business manager for the Salem district. Moore will be opposed by Charles C. Edwards of the Howell-Edwards Funeral Home. Moore, chairman of the board this year, will be succeeded by Harry Scott as chairman. Mrs. Brydon is a candidate to serve out the unexpired term of Mrs. Fay Wright. She was appointed to the board following Mrs. Wright's death. John R. Moore, secretary of the AFL Retail Clerk's Union, has announced his intention to oppose Mrs. Brydon, but his petition has not been filed as yet, Ward said.

Stork Wins Race Twice

MADRAS, Ore. (UP)—The joke about people racing the stork to the hospital isn't so funny to Mr. and Mrs. Joe McInturff, Jr., of Madras. They have made the hurried, harried jaunt twice in one year, and both times the stork won. Not only that, but the two children were born at almost the same spot. On May 31, a dash from Madras to Pioneer Memorial hospital in Prineville 38 miles away was climaxed with the birth of a girl, Aletha Louise, on the outskirts of Prineville. On July 17, 1954, the McInturffs were in a hurry to reach the hospital. A son, Tommy Joe, was born on the same outskirts of Prineville. Mother and four - pound, three-ounce daughter are doing fine.

California Lad Located Safe

YREKA, Calif. (AP)—Bobby Davenport, 7, lost in the mountains since Monday noon, turned up at the Oak Bottom ranger station Thursday, the sheriff's office reported. He was reported "in pretty good shape." His mother just happened to be at the station when he wandered in. Bloodhounds had been flown in from Oregon in the search for the child, which disappeared and repeatedly returned to a point on a turbulent creek which plunges out of the Marble Mountains into the Salmon River near the tiny community of Somes Bar.

Hammarskjold Encouraged by Release of GIs

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold said Thursday he is encouraged by Red China's release of four American aviators. He added he will not rest or relax his efforts until 11 other American fliers are sent home from Communist China.

The 11 Americans still held may be a more difficult case. They were convicted by Peiping of alleged espionage against Communist China.

The four fliers released earlier this week were not charged with anything at the time Hammarskjold talked with Premier Chou En-Lai in Peiping last January about the 15 fliers.

Hammarskjold at a news conference, refused to be drawn into a row about who gets the credit for release of the four men.

He was asked to comment on a statement by V. K. Krishna Menon, Indian diplomat who recently talked with Chou, that the fliers were released at the request of the government of India. Hammarskjold smiled and said he had read that with "some little surprise."

He said Menon will see him on his arrival at the U. N. June 9. U. N. officials claim Hammarskjold's efforts were responsible.

Hammarskjold refused also to discuss Menon's suggestion that one reciprocal way for the United States to decrease tension was to express regret that a plane carrying Red Chinese diplomats to the Bandung conference was destroyed by sabotage.

He questioned Menon's further suggestion that tension would be eased by permitting more Chinese students to return to Red China. He said this information is that all who had applied for exit permits had been given them.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief U. S. delegate to the U. N., and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, called on Hammarskjold and personally thanked him for his efforts to free the men.

Long Illness Takes Life of B. W. Wilmot

Bernard William Wilmot, 70, 840 Market St., died Thursday at a Salem hospital he entered a few hours earlier. A resident of Salem for 18 years, Wilmot was born Nov. 18, 1884 in Springfield and lived in Eugene and Portland before moving here. He had been ill about three years. He leaves the widow, Mrs. Inez Wilmot, Salem; son Orval Wilmot, Arcata, Calif.; sister, Mrs. Bessie Hyland, Salem; two brothers and two half-brothers, Walter L. Wilmot, Mead, Wash.; C. W. Wilmot, Phoenix, Ariz.; Ermyle E. Buell, Spokane; George C. Buell, Boise; four grandchildren. Services will be 2 p.m. Monday at the Virgil T. Golden Funeral home. Burial will be at Restlawn Cemetery.

Keizer School Awards Made

Statesman News Service
KEIZER — Earline Boardrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Boardrow, North River Road, was named recipient of the Keizer school scholarship award at eighth grade promotion exercises Thursday night. Eighty-one students were promoted.

The citizenship award went to Larry Franklin Bahns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schmidt of Harmony Drive. The scholarship winner is selected by the faculty, while both faculty and students participate in naming the recipient of the citizenship award.

BROKEN PELVIS
Charles L. Taber, upon whom a push-truck load of storage batteries rained Wednesday, sustained a broken pelvis, Salem General Hospital reported Thursday. Taber, 30, 228 Patterson Ave., was wheeling batteries into a boxcar at the Gould-National battery plant when the flat sheet between car and loading dock slipped. Taber is in "good" condition otherwise.
