

Mrs. George R. Peper Jr. (Loretta Loena Juedes) who was married Saturday night at St. John's Lutheran Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Juedes and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Peper. The couple will live in Bremerton, Wash. (Jesten-Miller Studio).

Miss Loretta Juedes Bride of George Peper on Saturday

Spring flowers in pastel shades and yellow tapers provided the setting for the wedding of Miss Loretta Loena Juedes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Juedes, and George R. Peper Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Peper, Saturday night at 8 o'clock. The ceremony took place at St. John's Lutheran Church with the Rev. H. W. Gross officiating.

Mrs. William H. Fischer was the vocalist and Mr. Fischer the organist. Lighting the candles were Miss Hazel Davies and Miss Marilyn Rehm, niece of the bride.

The bride chose a gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin. The lace bodice was fashioned with a Queen Ann collar enhanced with sequins and the bouffant skirt of tulle terminated in a court train. Her double veil of nylon tulle was edged in lace and was caught to a crown of net trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Florence Neavoli was the honor maid and she wore a ballerina gown of pale yellow organdy. The bridesmaids, Miss Lois Juedes, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Carl Werner, the bride's sister, and Miss Angela Gutierrez, wore ballerina frocks of mist blue organdy. They all wore bandeaux of net and carnations to match their frocks and carried pastel bouquets combined with net in contrasting colors.

Two Flower Girls
Linda Winters, niece of the groom, and Linda Werner, niece of the bride, were flower girls and wore yellow and blue frocks respectively. Dale Werner the bride's nephew was the ring bearer.

Donald Peper stood with his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Don Cogburn brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Allard Juedes, the bride's brother, and Dr. Stanley Stocker. Ushers were Harland Juedes, also a brother of the bride, William Wilson and Robert Nopp.

Mrs. Juedes wore an aqua gown and corsage of white roses for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Peper chose a rose crepe gown with lace inset and corsage of roses.

Reception Follows Rites
A reception was held in the fireside room. Pouring were Mrs. Emma Gene Miller, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Herman Rehm, sister of the bride. Mrs. Carl the cake, assisted by Mrs. Harsoos, the bridegroom's aunt, cut and Juedes and Mrs. John Winters. Assisting were Misses Mavis Mallon, Janice Rehm, Marlys Fisher, Maudry Wilson, Marie Pardo, Mary Edwards, Mrs. Kenneth Russell and Mrs. Don Cogburn.

The newlyweds left for Nevada and California on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride donned a white linen two-piece ensemble with beaded trim on the collar, white accessories and corsage of yellow roses. After
