

Miss Shiela Tulare is Married

The Leslie Methodist Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Shiela Joyce Tulare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Tulare, and Melvin Everett Hagedorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hagedorn, on Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Robert McIlvanna officiated at the 2 o'clock nuptials before a setting of snowballs and lilacs.

Norman Warden was the vocalist and Mrs. McIlvanna was the organist. Miss Ann Case and Miss Sharon Johnson lighted the candles. The bridal gown was of white lace over net and taffeta fashioned with a Peter Pan collar, three-quarter length sleeves and a court train. A crown of orange blossoms held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a white pearl Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Jo Ann Gilbert was the honor maid and she wore a white ballerina net frock over taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Gay Blackman, who wore green net over taffeta, and Miss Beverly Wagers, whose frock was of yellow net over taffeta. They all carried bouquets of pink sweet peas and summer blooms. Karm Hagedorn and Bobby Kopschki were flower girl and ring bearer respectively.

Dean Hagedorn was best man and ushers were Vernon Hagedorn and William Cogswell. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Tulare wore a grey silk redingote gown with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a charcoal silk afternoon gown with white accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlor. Mrs. Vernon Hagedorn and Mrs. Dean Hagedorn poured. Cutting the cake were Miss Rowena Latimer and Mrs. Emma Latimer with Mrs. Vera Bassett assisting.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Hagedorn donned a blue linen suit with white accessories. On returning from the Oregon coast they will be at home in Salem at 2180 N. 4th St.

Members of Hanna Rosa Court, Order of the Amaranth will meet at the Masonic Temple Monday night at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Melvin Everett Hagedorn, the former Shiela Joyce Tulare before her marriage Saturday afternoon at the Leslie Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Tulare and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hagedorn. (Photo by Donn's Studio).

Seen and Heard..

TRAVEL TALK . . . Mr. and Mrs. James Mosolf, daughter, Marcia, and Sidney Weeks left Saturday for a month's motor trip East. They will tour the New England States, also visiting in Washington, D. C. and New York City.

Flying . . . to Detroit Monday will be Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth T. Hartwell . . . after taking delivery on a new car in Flint they will drive to Washington, D. C. and New York . . . they will come west via the northern route, stopping at scenic spots and Yellowstone National Park . . . after leaving Utah they will go on to San Francisco, where Mr. Hartwell will enter the Downtown Classic Bowling tournament the end of June . . . while in the bay area they will also visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knapp in Berkeley.

Heading East . . . come Tuesday will be Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Inglis of Dallas, who will entrain for Rochester, New York to attend the graduation of their son, Allan E. Inglis, from the University of Rochester Medical School on June 12. . . Mr. and Mrs. Inglis will vacation in New York and the New England states, returning to New York City to join their son and daughter-in-law for a few days before returning West. . . Allan and Helen Inglis will make their home in New York, where the young medico will take his internship in surgery at New York City Hospital. . . The senior Inglis plan to be away until early July.

MOVING NOTES . . . Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sullivan and their three sons, Bobby, Duff and Casey, are being welcomed back to Salem . . . they have been residing in Bend, where Mr. Sullivan was with the State Tax Commission . . . they have taken a house on Will Street and Mr. Sullivan will soon open his own tax accounting office in Salem.

Friends . . . of Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Beach and daughters, Sharon Love and Barbara, of Portland, will be interested to learn that they are moving this week to San Mateo, Calif. . . Mr. Beach has been transferred to the San Francisco office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. . . they have already obtained a home in the Peninsula city. . . Mrs. Beach is the daughter of Mrs. Robert H. Baldock and made her home here until her marriage. . .

Change of address . . . for Mr. and Mrs. Allan R. Mann Jr. (Elizabeth Johnson) of Portland . . . they moved June 1 to their newly built home on Perriander Avenue in Portland Heights. . . Mr. Mann is with the American Finance Co. . .

NUPTIAL NOTES . . . One of the lovely late spring weddings took place a week ago when pretty Nancy Moorefield became the bride of Milton Schultz at the First Presbyterian Church. . . Exquisite was Nancy's beautiful wedding gown of tulle and lace ever seen . . . the very bouffant skirt of puffed tulle designed in panels bordered with narrow lace and caught at the bottom with tiny nosegays . . . the gown, a copy of the one worn by Leslie Caron in "The Glass Slipper" . . . Nancy and Milton clearly speaking their vows and all smiles as they left the church . . .

Noteworthy . . . the dozens of young people, mostly college friends of the bridal couple, attending the rites . . . many driving over from Oregon State . . .

The reception held in the church parlors . . . some thirty Beta Theta Pi fraternity brothers of the groom singing the sweetheart song during the reception . . . Nancy's Delta Delta Delta sorority sisters forming a semi-circle and singing the traditional pansy song for the newly married duo . . .

Good-looking Joan Seamster, smart in a white and black ensemble with large, black hat, joining her Tri Delt sisters from Oregon State . . .

The bride's table . . . covered with a white damask cloth and centered with a silver bowl filled with garnet red roses and white snapdragons and daisies . . . roses and dainty white blooms encircling the punch bowl . . . a garnet red cloth on the guest book table with the anniversary candle . . . attractive Betty Zahara, also a Tri Delt and wearing a pink frock, in charge of the guest book . . .

Among the guests . . . The C. A. Burkland family . . . Diane, home from Linfield College and singing at the ceremony . . . her white waltz gown adorned with narrow rows of lace on the skirt and an aqua jacket . . . her brother, Phil, later squiring pretty Jane Moorefield, who was her sister's honor maid . . . Mrs. Gary Jones up from Eugene and accompanying her mother, Mrs. Marvin Lewis, and young sister to the rites . . . Marcia Maple, who will be moving this summer to Coos Bay with her parents, the Howard Maples, over from Corvallis with the college contingent . . . attractive white frocks worn by candlelighters Coleen Welch and newly engaged Louisa Lamb . . . her fiancé, Daryl Girard, one of Willamette's star athletes . . . Roberta Sears and Patsy Spier, sophomores at Oregon State, among others here for the nuptials . . .

A GARDEN SETTING . . . for the wedding reception of Darlene Engdahl and Donald W. Thieses a week ago at the First Baptist Church . . . The color scheme throughout of pink and toast brown . . . all pink candles in the church . . . the attendants carrying pink wicker baskets filled with pink flowers with their waltz frocks of toast crystalite . . . the bride's gown of ice pink marquisette . . .

White wrought iron . . . furniture, hanging baskets of pink and brown flowers and garlanded pillars providing the garden setting for the reception . . . the bridal party standing beneath pink flocked trees highlighted with spring flowers . . . a white wrought iron settee and table, where the bride placed her wedding bouquet, and a large pink bird cage containing love birds forming the background for the receiving line . . .

The bride's table . . . covered with a pink cloth garlanded with sweet peas and butterflies and a centerpiece of pink carnations in a gold cage . . . two round tables for the bride's cakes, which were iced in pink . . . brown floor length cloths festooned with pink and white flowers and butterflies . . . on either side of the cake tables were two white carts, where the punch was served . . .

Girl Musicians Given Ovation In Scandinavia

(This is second in a series of notes by Muriel Fitts, Salem violinist, who is on tour of Europe and Scandinavia with the Little Chamber Orchestra of Portland, under the direction of Boris Sirpo.)

By MURIEL FITTS
Special Correspondent

The name "Good Will Tour" carries with it many responsibilities. We not only have to play well, but also look nice and share time with the people who are treating us so well. Much of our day is taken by rehearsals but we also have to find time for banquets, leaving time of course for traveling.

Our first concerts were given in Copenhagen and Oslo, where we had good reviews, critics praising us for "rhythm, precision and thematic interpretation." They compared us to the Italian string group, the Virtuosi di Roma.

Longest Stay in Finland
Our longest stay has been in Finland, where we had many heartwarming experiences. There we received the warmest welcome to date. At the Helsinki airport, we were met by the usual reporters, photographers and town dignitaries, and also by the Helsinki Men's Chorus, which serenaded us as a welcome. Afterwards we were invited to be their guests, and they presented the Sirpos with flowers.

The presentation of flowers is a beautiful tradition throughout Scandinavia. It is a way of showing honor and respect, and I might add, that everywhere we have been showered with them.

During the last week in Finland, we played six concerts in as many different towns. We played everywhere to sold-out houses and were called back for encore after encore. We were showered with flowers and after each concert crowds were waiting in the streets.

Crowd Cheered
At Tampere the crowd followed us through the town square cheering and singing the national songs of Sirpo's home province, Karelia, which was lost to the Russians in the war.

Rotarian families have entertained us royally. We were made to feel so much at home, that it was hard to believe we were on foreign soil.

Outstanding events of our trip so far have been the dedication of Sirpo Hall in Lahti which was followed by a reception given by American Ambassador and Mrs. Jack McFall; the concert we played for the president of Finland at the palace and a dinner party by the Helsinki University Chorus, which came to Portland two years ago while on tour.

Another memory will be that of the long bumpy bus trip from Turku to Lahti on which several of the girls were badly affected with "mal de bus," landside version of the well known mal de mer.

Dallas Dateline

Teachers are Departing on Vacations

By B. NORBERG
DALLAS—Summertime makes it possible for teachers to see some of the country they talk about during the school year. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Burden and daughter, Linda, left Friday for San Diego to spend the summer. He is a member of the Junior high and Senior high faculty.

Mrs. Velma Hodgson, fourth grade Morrison school teacher, and Mrs. Edna McCleary, of the Junior high building are taking a quick swing to El Paso, Texas, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hodgson and family and into Mexico for a bull fight before attending summer session at Oregon College of Education.

A trip for a combine business and pleasure. A new car recently driven home belong to Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Miller and son, Danny. They were gone a month and included stops in Chicago, Niagara Falls, New York City, Washington, D.C., Austin, Texas and Salt Lake City on their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morgan, in their new car, drove home a northern route and along the Oregon Trail. Mt. Rushmore and the Badlands of South Dakota were impressive and a road block set up by a buffalo herd, surprising the mountains in the Grand Teton national park and the Blue Mountains of Oregon alternated valley scenery with the Snake river valley and the Columbia river drive.

Another new car family is Dr. and Mrs. Robert S. Sandilands and children. They are medical missionaries under the Presbyterian board who have been in this area for the past year visiting relatives and friends. After picking up a car in Indiana they left New York City on June 1 for Paris and will be in M.P.A. Bafia, French Cameroons, West Africa later this month to carry on their missionary work.

A long distance flying trip began this past week for Mrs. C. E. Jepsen. She has gone to the Island of Sylt in the North Sea and to Schleswig-Holstein, Germany to visit a brother and sisters who she has not seen for thirty years. She expects to return home in August, accompanying friends from The Dalles who also are visiting in Germany.

On a two week vacation to Lake Andes, South Dakota are Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Kliever and children, Diane and Dicky. They are visiting relatives of Mrs. Kliever on the mid-western trip.

Miss Fannie Dempsey returned home Memorial Day from an 18 day vacation in Vallejo, Calif. She visited in the home of her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Allgood, and children. An evening in San Francisco and a snowy trip in the Mt. Shasta area helped to make this a memorable trip. The Allgoods visited in Dallas last fall during the Thanksgiving season.

The engagement of JoAnn Carr to Rex Domaschofsky, both seniors in the 1955 graduating class, was announced this week by her mother, Mrs. William Bledsoe. Rex is holder of football, basketball and baseball letters for each of his four years in high school and JoAnn was recently honored as Girl of the Year. No date has been chosen for the wedding.

A move back to the soil is planned by Mr. and Mrs. G. Brandli, who operated the Dallas Creamery for many years. They have purchased farm land close to Indio, Calif.

Crown Guild to Meet

The Crown Guild of the First Presbyterian Church will be entertained at a 1:15 dessert luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. W. Loucks, 250 West Washington St. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. William C. Crothers, Mrs. Walter Snyder and Mrs. T. Harold Tomlinson. Mrs. Bjarne Ericksen is leader of the group.

The Credit Women's Breakfast Club

will hear a report of the Pacific Northwest Council convention held in Vancouver, B. C. last month at the regular breakfast meeting Tuesday morning at Nohlgren's at 7 a. m.

American War Mothers will meet Tuesday afternoon in the Carrier Room of the First Methodist Church at 2 p. m. This will be the last regular meeting for the season, with social meetings scheduled for the summer months.

The Laurel Guild of the Knight Memorial Church will be entertained Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Arnold, 1315 N. 21st St., at 8 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. George Sundlie and Mrs. Ralph Weaver.

Furs
• Custom Designing
• Restyling
Your old coat can be newly styled into a stole, jacket or bolero now at summer rates.

Ben Wittner at Lachelles
1348 Ferry Ph. 24727

See it blended here for you!

FACE POWDER

Blended by hand by an expert especially to match and enhance your complexion. It's wonderful.

Introductory size $1
Others at $2
and $3, plus tax
first floor

Lipman's of Salem

Lipman's of Salem

Two important fabric fashions at savings . . .

FABRIC SALE

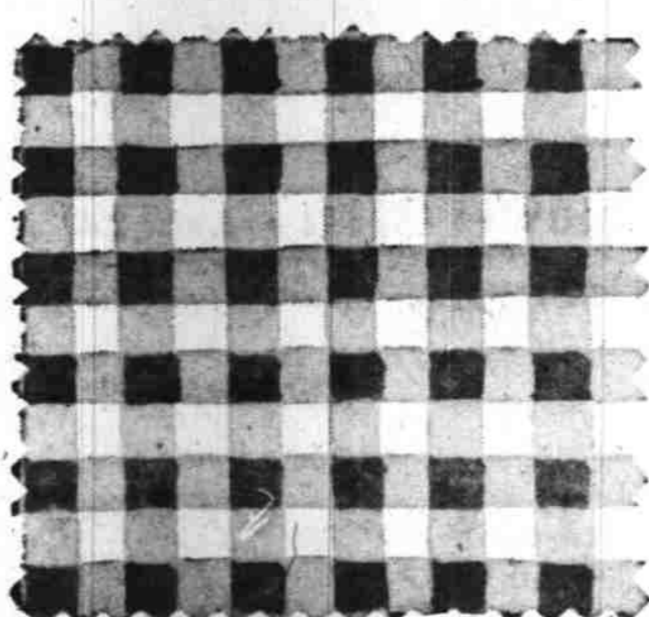

Washable combed cotton
Signature Prints

reg. 1.39

79c

yard

Cotton and Acetate
Miracle Prints

reg. 1.29

88c

yard

These wonderful cotton prints that are so proudly designed by American Artists that each carries the signature of its creator. Select the ones you like best from a large assortment.

Rich looking pongee weaves . . . wonderful for traveling because they're crease-resistant. All extra wide . . . 45 inches . . . available in a rainbow of colorful patterns . . . and so very easy to sew!

Lipman's fashion fabrics, second floor enjoy every day of summer . . .

Carefree Styles in Permanent waves

BY
Erich of New York
Creator of Hair Styles

When Erich supervises your summer hair styling, you may be assured it will be a joy to you all summer long. Staying at home, or vacationing, or traveling, you can have a coiffure that is manageable under all weather and fun conditions.

permanents from $10
hair cuts from 1.50

Lipman's of Salem

You may use your Lipman charge account at Erich of New York Beauty Salon.
3-3921
Women's 3rd floor

Lipman's of Salem

First in Salem — Ours Alone!

Mallinson Cruisline
Dresses by David Crystal

$19.00

Mallinson's wonderful rayon-woven-like-linen to stay coolly composed all day, all summer, anywhere . . . at its best in David Crystal dresses of elegant simplicity. Sizes 8 to 16, 10 to 20 and 14 1/2 to 22 1/2.

Lipman's gown shop, second floor