

Statesman's HOME Panorama

Women . . . Music . . . Fashions . . . Features

Visitors in the capital are Mrs. Stephen Fouček and children, Barbara, Kip and Stephen, in front. The Foučeks formerly made their home here and have been in Buenos Aires for the past year, where he was with the American Foreign Insurance Agency. The family returned from South America to the states by plane. They are stopping in Salem for several weeks prior to leaving for their new home in Boise, Idaho, where Mr. Fouček will be in business.

Returning to Salem to make their home after a several years absence are the Richard Sullivans, who have been living in Bend. Mrs. Sullivan is pictured with their sons, Bobby, Casey and Duff. They are now at home on Will street and Mr. Sullivan is opening his own tax accounting business in Salem.

Leaving the past week for a summer in England and Europe was Miss Helen Lane, a member of the South Salem High School faculty. She will sail from Quebec on June 30 for England, joining the New York University traveling workshop of Europe. They will be at the University of London for two weeks, then leaving for Belgium, the University of Heidelberg in Germany, Switzerland and Paris.

Arriving in the capital the past week to make her home was Miss Carroll Elizabeth Berry, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Logan Berry. Miss Berry arrived from Florida, where she has been attending the University of Florida in Miami. Her engagement to Robert Lee Gibson of Miami was recently announced in the Florida city.

From Detroit, Mich., have come Mrs. Louis Hodak and daughter, Kathy, pictured above. With Mr. Hodak, they arrived in May from the East and will make their home in Salem. Mrs. Hodak, the former Honora Reidy, resided in Salem until her marriage.

Mrs. Charles N. Flitton Jr. and son, Charles, at the left, have been visiting in the capital the past month from their home in Vicksburg, Miss., where Lt. Flitton is stationed with the U. S. Navy. Mrs. Flitton formerly resided in Salem and has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Brown E. Sisson. After a visit in Lebanon and McMinnville this week they will return south June 18.