25 Home Runs Spark NL Play

Chisox Sweep Pair From Washington

By JOE REICHLER THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It took a downpour in Philadelphia to dampen the home record by the National League Sunday.

With even pitchers and pinch hitters getting into the act, National League batsmen walloped 25 home runs, which would have tied the record for most in one day but two four baggers were washed off the books.

Cincinnati's Wally Post and Philadelphia's Andy Seminick lost home runs when the second game was ended by rain with the Reds leading 4-3 in the third inning. That cut the league's total to 23, two shy of the record.

The American League hit a comparatively low total of nine home runs to boost the two leagues' total to 32, eight short of the two-league record.

Niemann's Grand Homer A grand slammer by Bob Niemann and a two-run job by Bob Kennedy helped the Chicago White Sox to a doubleheader sweep over Washington 1-0 and 8-4.

The twin triumphs moved the runner-up Sox to within two and a half games of the American League leading New York Yankees who lost two to Cleveland 10-2 and 7-3.

The Indians stunned the Yankees with five home runs, four of them coming in the first game at the expense of ace pitcher Bob Turley.

Vic Wertz hammered a pair, one in each game. His second climaxed a four-run seventh inning that broke a 3-3 tie. Bob Lemon and Early Wynn each won his eighth game. Turley lost his fifth and Whitey Ford his second.

The Oregon Statesman

Statesman, Salem, Ore., Monday, June 13, 1955—(Sec. 2)—1

Looks as if the king salmon have hit Westport, Wn., with an all-out assault. More than a dozen kings were taken last week weighing between 30 and 35 lbs. The average king was running at 20 lbs. Nice thing about was that nearly every angler who mooched with herring took a limit of fish.

Nicer yet, the fish are close in with the offshore limit buoy 2. Most of the fish were tagged near buoy 8 which is just outside the entrance to the bar.

Not so nice is the fact that safe and sane fishing this season will be done strictly from chartered boats handled by competent skippers who know when and when not to cross the bar. It is too bad that the south jetty at Westport is beaten down but that is the way the wind blows and he small boats will have to stay inside if they want to stay healthy.

The big kings or chinooks are showing at Winchester too, and the only thing holding most of the anglers down is the wind. Our hot inland weather has made for strong winds along the coast and hitting against an out-going tide makes the bar a bit on the rough and dangerous side.

Coos Bay Offers Salmon, Bass

Numerous salmon have also been taken at Coos Bay with quite a few of them inside the bar. Coos Bay at this time offers both salmon and striped bass to the angler who wishes to travel and take his choice.

The Umpqua river near Reedsport and on up into the Smith river offers large striped bass this time of year and the angler may use either bait or plugs and jigs.

As for trout fishing we won't say you can't catch a fish on (Continued on next page.)

Furgol Snags International Title; U.S. Team Tops Field

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. Open Champion Ed Furgol surged from behind Sunday to win the $150,000 International Golf Championship in a three-way sudden death playoff.

Furgol, the withered-arm iron-master, also teamed with PGA titlist Chick Harbert to win the team championship as the United States scored a clean sweep in competition against 25 foreign countries.

All the drama was packed into the playoff as Furgol first shot down Belgium's Florv Van Donck and then ousted Australia's Peter Thomson on the third extra hole.

Thomson, the 25-year-old Australian hotshot who led the field by a stroke going into the final round Sunday, was caught at the finish by Van Donck's par 70 and Furgol's brilliant three-under 67.

Furgol, shoving off for the U.S. Open in San Francisco this week-end, stamped himself as a real threat to retain his title. He played precision perfect golf, particularly with his irons. His 67 was the low score Sunday.

Ed's teammate, Harbert, was in with a 72, giving him fourth place in the individual play at 281 — one over par. Furgol, Van Donck and Thomson were in at one-under par 279.

Big Money Winner Furgol was the big money winner, collecting $2,500 for first prize in the individual play, $1,250 for a half share in the first money for the teams, $100 for low score Sunday and $50 for a share in the low team score plus a $25 share in the low team score Saturday, when the United States and Australia each had 139.

That gave Ed a net gain of $3,925 for four days of play. Right fair for a guy who said "I can't putt."

Salems Snatch 8-5, 9-8 Wins

Oldtimers to Play Prelim Mix Tonight

By AL LIGHTNER Statesman Sports Editor

Regaining their run-making savvy following Saturday's setback, the Salem Senators Sunday plastered the Tri-City Braves in both ends of the Waters Field doubleheader, by scores of 8-5 and 9-8.

It took an extra inning to put the snatch on the second game, which ended in a gleeful uproar as Mel Krause was walked with the bases loaded, forcing across the telling tally.

Uncle Hugh Luby's laddies did nothing to hurt their bid for the Northwest League lead in winning both battles, but the big test is now at hand. The Eugene Emeralds roll into town tonight for the opening clash of a five-game series, and a peek at the loop standings will assure how big a series this one will be for both clubs.

Nine 1940 Members As a prelude for tonight's commencing, the Eugene and Salem Oldtimers will play a 2-inning grudge game, starting at 7:45 o'clock. Nine ancient who played on the first Senators team back in 1940 will be in the lineup. (See rosters at conclusion of this story.)

Sunday was Uncle Hugh's birthday (he was 39 for the fifth straight year), and his unwhiskered whizzers couldn't have given him a better present than the two victories. It required five hours and fifteen minutes to get them, but you'll get no complaints from Hugh or the crowd of 1,872 that watched.

Incidentally, that was the second largest crowd of the season, being topped only by the 1,967 of opening night.

Steady Barrage A steady barrage of base hits — 15 all told — won the Sunday opener for John Wortham. Salem tagged Jack Widner and Stan Arthur for two runs in the first, another in the third, three in the fourth and solids in the sixth and seventh to build up their margin.

Chiefs Remain 2 Games Ahead

WENATCHEE (AP) — The Wenatchee Chiefs stayed two games in front in the Northwest League Sunday by taking a doubleheader from Lewiston while second-place Salem was downing Tri-City twice.

Today's scores were 4 to 3 in the opener and 13 to 6 in the wild finale.

In the opener, John Marshall twisted his fifth victory by holding Lewiston to four hits. A home run by Jerry Zuleva in the eighth gave Wenatchee the winning run.

Glenn Irsinghaus pitched and hit the Chiefs to the second game victory. Irsinghaus got off to a wobbly start as Lewiston compiled all of its runs in the first four innings.

But Irsinghaus blasted two-run doubles in both the third and sixth innings.

Lewiston's Bob Williams cracked a double with the bases full good for three runs in the second inning to tie the score at 4-4 before the Chiefs moved ahead for good.

Spokane and Yakima split in their doubleheader. Spokane took the opener, 5-4, but Spokane came back to win the free-hitting second game, 19-6.

Cobb Hurls Two-Hitter . . .

Salem Juniors Wallop Silverton Club, 13-1

Salem's Capital Post No. 9 American Legion Junior baseball team clobbered Silverton's Juniors, 13-1, Sunday afternoon at Barkley Field and Salem's Dick Cobb came within one inning of a perfect no-hit game.

Cobb had pitched a perfect game up to the ninth inning. Silverton then got their only two hits and lone tally when Richard Kenize doubled and Kjos followed with a single to score Kenize.

In going the nine-inning route, Cobb struckout 13 and walked nine.

Salem's hitting was led by Bob Russell who had three for four, including two doubles, Ron Baker with three for six and Dale Jones with three for five.

Coach Bill Bevens' Salem club opened their scoring with two runs in the first inning. The first one came when Jim Michaeils scored on an overthrow to third.

A pair of singles by Jones and John Garner accounted for the next one.

Salem Scores Three Three more Salem runs came in the third on Russell's double, an error off Michaeils' grounder that scored Russell, Ron Baker's single to score Michaeils and another single by Jones that scored Baker.

Biggest run-producing inning for the Capital Post team was the seventh when they pushed four more runs across. These came on a combination of Russell's second double, three walks, an error and a single by Jones.

Salem scored three more in the eighth, two of them coming home on Russell's single.

Next game of Salem will be at Stayton Wednesday night.

Briggs Named To Start Game

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — San Diego's Tommy Herrera and Sacramento's John Briggs were named Sunday night as probable starting pitchers for the Pacific Coast League's top team-All Stars game Monday night.

San Diego, leading the league by three games, is host opponent to the collection of stars from the other teams. They will be managed by Oakland's Lefty O'Doul.

San Diego Manager Bob Elliott gave no indication of other pitchers he may use if Herrera, a right-hander with a record of five wins and three losses, gets into trouble.

O'Doul is expected to have four other mound reliables to call on.

Race Record Set by Jaguar

LE MANS, France (AP) — A Jaguar driven by Mike Hawthorne and Ivor Bueb of Britain set a record Sunday in winning the Le Mans 24-hour sports car race marred by death of at least 77 persons.

Hawthorne finished the gruelling 307-lap race with an average speed of 172 kilometers (about 107 miles per hour) to set the mark.

In second place were Peter Collins of England and Paul Frere of Belgium in an Aston Martin. Third were Johnny Claes and Jacques Swaters of Belgium.

Each lap was eight miles, 675 yards in length.

America's main challenge was offered by Briggs Cunningham of Greens Farms, Conn., who with drew his Cunningham car and Jaguar because of mechanical troubles.

A flaming, plunging Mercedes smashed into the rear of an Austin Healey Saturday afternoon in front of the main grandstand.

The crash sent the silver German racer hurtling over a dirt retaining wall into a tightly packed crowd. The front part of the car exploded in flames amid the screaming spectators.

Pierre Levegh of France, driver of the Mercedes, was killed instantly.

Campy Leads All-Star Poll

CHICAGO (AP) — Brooklyn catcher Roy Campanella, making one of baseball's biggest comebacks of the year, took an early lead in the All-Star baseball poll Sunday.

The stocky Dodger slugger received 2,118 votes to pull far ahead of Chicago Cub rookie Harry Child who was second with 963.

Yogi Berra, New York Yankee catcher, was tops among American League vote getters with 1,609.

Sherman Lollar of the Chicago White Sox was second to Berra with 1,294.

The game will be played in Milwaukee's county stadium July 12.

Colgate Ousts Southern Cal

OMAHA (AP) — Western Michigan scored three runs in the last inning to beat favored Oklahoma A. and M. 5-4 and put a weird finish to the second day of the NCAA baseball tournament.

Western Michigan had trailed, 4-2, going into the ninth.

The first two batters, catcher Fritz Messner and pitcher Miki Schwartzkoff, walked.

Bill Lajoie, attempting to sacrifice, bunted to third baseman Jim Wladward, who threw past first. Rightfielder Mel Wright fielded the ball and threw home, the ball hitting Bronco coach Richard Erickson in the head.

As the players rushed toward the fallen coach, Messner, Schwartzkoff and Lajoie rushed home with the victory.

The weird finish stole a two-hit victory from Aggie pitcher Ken Kinnaman, who struck out 11 before being relieved in the ninth after walking the first two men. Reliever Don Anderson was the loser.

Coach Not Hurt Erickson was not hurt. Wake Forest won its second game earlier tonight, defeating Colorado State College, 10-0. Lefty Lowell-Davis gave up but four hits.

Davis, although sharp in striking out 10 batters, failed to equal the performance of Arizona's Carl Thomas, who tied an NCAA tourney strikeout record of 15 as his teammates eliminated Springfield College, 6-0.

In the first day game, Colgate ousted the University of Southern California, 6-4.

Colgate used a five-run third inning to gain the victory. The eastern club got only two hits in the big frame, but one of the blows was Guy Martin's 345-foot triple with the bases loaded.

PORTLAND (AP) — Vince Allen-holen, 18-year-old University of Portland student, won the Rose City Amateur Golf Tournament Sunday with a record low score of 207 for 54 holes.
