

Molotov Arrives in U.S. Backed by New Propaganda Campaign

Statesman, Salem, Ore., Thurs., June 16, 1955—(Sec. 1)—3

By BRUCE W. MUNN
NEW YORK (UP)—V. M. Molotov, stout-faced apostle of Soviet foreign policy, arrived Wednesday from Moscow, backed by a massive Communist propaganda campaign aimed at winning the Big Four talks.

Coinciding with Molotov's arrival was a major broadcast by Moscow Radio setting forth the Kremlin's aims at the forthcoming "meeting at the summit" and blaming the United States in advance for failure should failure occur.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold MacMillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay begin a two-day conference Wednesday and then journey to San Francisco Monday to meet Molotov and lay plans for the July 18 meeting of the heads of government.

The occasion of the San Francisco meeting is a tenth anniversary commemorative session of the United Nations in the city where it was born. Molotov leaves for the West Coast by train tonight.

Moscow's Program
Moscow Radio's latest outpouring set forth what is expected to be the Kremlin's official proposal for the Geneva conference agenda. The broadcast, quoting the official Communist newspaper Pravda, listed four major topics:

1. "Reduction in the armaments of states and the prohibition of atomic weapons."
2. "The creation of collective security in Europe."
3. "The safeguarding of peace and security in Asia and the Far East."
4. "The restoration of the legitimate rights of the Chinese Peoples Republic (Communist China) in the United Nations."
