Wenatchee Walloped By Emeralds, 10-1

WENATCHEE — The Eugene Emeralds shellacked Wenatchee, 10-1, Monday night and leapfrogged over the Chiefs into first place in the Northwest League pennant chase.

The victory gave the Emeralds a 28-17 record for a .622 percentage. Wenatchee now has a 32-21 record and a .604 percentage, good for second place.

Largest Crowd

The largest crowd of the season, 3,067, turned out to watch the opening game of a critical series between the two leaders.

Eugene, after four innings of scoreless ball, broke the game wide open in the top of the fifth with eight runs on a single, four walks, a hit batsman, an error and Ron Jackson's 2-run double.

Two walks and a single by Hal Toso produced two runs for the winners in the ninth inning.

Chiefs Get Run

Wenatchee got its only run in the seventh inning on a walk and manager Edo Vani's double. Vanni had put himself back on the active list after saying only last week that he was through playing baseball forever. George Storti went the route for the Emeralds in giving up a paltry five hits. It ran his record to 6-2. Bob Roberts, who now has a 1-1 record, was the loser in a 7-hit performance.

Jamboree Set Friday Night

A baseball jamboree and field dedication will fill the bill at Barrick Field Friday night when the Salem Junior Baseball season gets underway.

The field will be officially dedicated at Barrick Field in honor of Dr. L. E. Barrick, long-time former member of the Salem school board.

Present will be all teams in the Class C and Class B divisions in the league and their managers and sponsors. Two games, each three innings long and between teams from both leagues, will fill the ball-playing end of the program. There are 18 Junior Baseball teams, nine in each league.

A drawing prior to the games will determine which four teams are to play.

Bruce Williams, Salem attorney who is active in the Junior Baseball program, will be master of ceremonies. Assisting in the dedication and remainder of the program are Bill Beard, president of the Junior Baseball League, and Lee Shinn.

Friday night's program will get underway at 7 p.m.

Snead Blisters Portland Links

PORTLAND — Sammy Snead, the belting West Virginian, increased his stature as one of the favorites Monday by firing a 6-under-par 64 in a practice round for the Western Open golf championships.

Par for the 6,606-yard Portland Golf Club course is 72.

Other playing practice rounds Monday included Julius Boros, ex-U. S. Open champion; Carry Middlecoff, defending Masters' champion; and Gene Littler, Tournament of Champions winner.

Big Names Arrive

Many more of the big name golfers who played in last week's National Open at San Francisco are to arrive Tuesday to get in a few practice rounds before the tourney opens Thursday.

About 175, including a number of Pacific Northwest amateurs, have entered the four-day, 72-hole event.

There will be no qualifying round with the entire field playing 18 holes Thursday and Friday. The field will be cut to the low 60 and ties for the final rounds Saturday and Sunday.

Lindsey, Kamaroff Vie For Mat Title Tonight

The Northwest heavyweight mat title belt recently won by Luther (The Tank) Lindsey goes on the block for the first time tonight in a main event match at the Armory. Lindsey puts his title up against Ivan (Killer) Kamaroff, the bruising Russian.

The mix should be a sizzler, for Lindsey is at his best against the ge is who rough him around. And roughing people around is Ivan's pet project. They'll go two out of three falls, with a one-hour limit.

Kamaroff lost to World Champ Lou Tessa here two weeks ago, fans will recall, but managed to gain a fall on the champion. Lindsey was downed by the champ the next night at Portland, but also gained a fall on him.

Three newcomers, all highly rated as topnotchers, dot the three prelims on tonight's card. In the special event Gory Guerrero, the junior heavyweight champion of Mexico and one who has been seen many times on the Hollywood TV's mat programs, makes his debut with Bill Fletcher, the fisty beller from Boise.

Doug Donovan, rated as a really tough hombre from Kansas City, and one who doesn't mind starting a riot or two now and then, opposes popular John Arjon in one of the single-fallers. Arjon being

by Al Lightner

This, that, etc.

The pro gridders haven't yet begun their training for the 1955 campaign, but over 30,000 tickets have already been sold for the New York Giants-San Francisco 49'ers clash in Seattle's Husky Stadium in August. Which is the reason why villager Harley Hoppe is so pale these days. He came within a whisker of landing the promotional job for that one . . . Players at Salem Golf Club were given a luff the other afternoon by the gent who forgot to close the door while using the telephone booth. He was obviously calling his wife, but not to tell her he was. "I just thought I'd call you before I got busy with the customers in the store again, honey," was all the conversation that was heard. The gent then strolled to the tenth tee, hacked out a beauty and was off down the fairway with the "customers." . . . Then there was the big Willamette Valley Lumberman's picnic just off the No. 9 fairway to the right on Saturday. So friendly were the frolickers with their refreshments that hardly a soul played down the left side of No. 9 all afternoon. Everyone seemed to be slicing, purposely . . . Best tree climber at SGC is Dick Hendrie, and he proved his right to the title the other day after a shot made by Uncle Hugh Luby. Hugo isn't one immune to giving a club a heave when he makes a bad shot, and those who have played with the Senators generalissimo have learned to wear crash helmets out of necessity. Hugh was teeing off on No. 14, loused up the shot and gave his driver a mighty throw. His aim was bad and the club sailed high into the top of a tree, where it stayed. It took light-weight Dick 10 minutes to climb the tree to rescue the thing, and club officials are now thinking of forcing Uncle Hugh to tie his clubs to his wrists just before each shot . . .

No More Midnight Oil at Waters Field

There'll be no more of the midnight messes at Waters Field if Luby has anything to say about it. The recent Eugene-Salem doubleheader, which finally ran itself out at 12:15 a.m., convinced the GM that the night twin bills should start earlier than 7 o'clock. Consequently, when the Senators make up a pair of rainouts with Spokane here next week, the double dips will get underway at 5:30 p.m., and will be called "Hamburger Specials." Folks getting through work at 4:30 and 5 p.m. can go right to the park, fill up on some of Ed Randle's juicy hamburgers, see the twin bill and get home at a decent hour. The 7-inning game will be played first, so that the regular 9-inning mix can get under way around eight o'clock.

"We might just as well start at 5:30, for we'll probably have many more people in the park at that hour than we'll have at midnight," is the way Luby calculates. And from a newspaperman's standpoint, one who has a 12-midnight deadline five nights a week, and another at 11:30 the other two nights, we offer a gold-plated hip, hip, hoorah for Luby. Even if he does throw golf clubs . . .

Grand Prix Race May Be Cancelled

LUCERNE, Switzerland — The annual Grand Prix Automobile Race of Switzerland, one of Europe's major auto racing events, may be cancelled this year because of the disaster at Le Mans. An extraordinary session of the Swiss Auto Racing Club took no action on the race, but sentiment among members appeared to favor cancellation of the race at Bern, scheduled for Aug. 20 and 21.

A definite decision will be taken this week at a conference of the organizers, the Swiss automobile clubs and the Swiss authorities.

Matches Start At Wimbledon

Richardson Loses; Drobny Snares Win

By STERLING SLAPPEY

WIMBLEDON, England — Sweden's slugging Sven Davidson whipped American star Ham Richardson in a rugged five-set match Monday to lead a rout of seven Yanks on the opening day of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships.

The second prominent American to follow Richardson to the sidelines was 41-year-old Gardner Mulloy who was playing big league tennis when many of the youngsters of the 1909 Wimbledon Championships weren't as tall as the rackets they now use.

Mulloy of Miami, Fla., lost to Britain's No. 1 player, Tony Mottram, 6-1, 6-4, 6-1 while Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., put up a much tougher fight before losing to Davidson, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 4-6, 8-6.

Defending Champ Victor

The eight-man seeded ranks stood intact with only Lew Hoed, No. 4 ranked, and Jaroslav Drobny, defending champion from Egypt, having any real difficulty.

Drobny, seeded sixth, won from Rene Buser of Switzerland, 6-3, 6-1, 6-2, despite a minor shoulder injury and appendix trouble. Drobny annually is a near hospital case during Wimbledon and his ailments are expected.

Hoed, a bridegroom of 48 hours, looked sluggish and sleepy as he defeated fellow Australian, Robert Howe, 6-5, 7-5, 6-2.

Tony Trabert, the No. 1 seed from Cincinnati, using a weakly strung racquet "because it is better for control," won easily from Australia's Mal Anderson, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.

Ken Rosewall, No. 2 seed from Australia, defeated Britain's G.D. Owen, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1.

Results of Stars

Other seeded stars fared this way:

No. 3, Vic Seixas, Philadelphia, won from A.J. Clayton, Britain, 6-3, 6-0, 6-0.

No. 5, Rex Hartwig of Australia, defeated R.J. Lee, Britain, 6-2, 6-1, 6-2 and No. 7, Budgie Patty, Los Angeles-Paris, defeated fellow American G.W. Druliner, Los Angeles, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1.

Davidson is eighth seeded and is last year's U.S. indoor champion.

Other Americans to lose in the first round of the men's singles were:

Pablo Eisenberg, Maplewood, N.J., to Steffan Stockenberg, Sweden, 6-3, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4; Don Flye, Tacoma, Wash., to Martin Hime, Britain, 2-6, 7-5, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4; Tony Vincent Miami, Fla., to George Worthington, Australia, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1; Hugh Sweeney, New York, to Bill Seymour, South Africa, 8-6, 6-1, 7-5.

Two Stars Lose

Only two other players of inter-continental fame were eliminated.

CLAY HOPPER Even won milking bee.

Clay Hopper, boss of the Portland Bevos, came through right when he had to last week, if you listen to very strong rumors in the Portland area. 'Twas said by a number of influentials that Hopper was through as manager of the Bevers if he didn't have a good week at Hollywood. So he not only had a good week, but

Duck Grid Player Injured in Wreck

PORTLAND — Bruce Brenn, an Oregon football prospect, was taken to a Portland hospital for surgery Monday after receiving injuries in a truck accident.

Attendants at the Portland hospital said his injuries included a mild concussion, a fractured nose and severe scalp lacerations. Brenn's physician said that other than the possibility of infection from the scalp cuts the outlook was favorable.

Brenn is a former Boise Junior College player whose home is Moscow, Idaho. He was transferring to the University of Oregon in the Fall. He was driving a truck and trailer unit Saturday when it jack-knifed on a curve near Paterston Ferry in southeastern Wash.

Saxton Wins Bout

BROCKTON, Mass. — Former welterweight champion Johnny Saxton opened his campaign for another title shot by stopping durable Jimmy Fuller of Wilmington, Del., in one minute of the sixth round of a scheduled 10-rounder Monday night at Maple Arena. Saxton weighed 153½, Fuller 155.

Solons Win, Move 1/2 Game From Top

Odds Favor Moore Over Olson at 2-1

Shields Stars In 6 to 2 Nod

Whitson Hurls 7th Triumph at Spokane

FERRIS FIELD, Spokane — (Special to The Statesman) — The Salem Senators rallied for four runs in the ninth inning to take their Northwest League baseball series opener with Spokane here Monday night, 6-2.

The victory failed to elevate the Senators from third place in the standings, since Eugene topped Wenatchee 10-1. Eugene now leads the loop and Salem finds itself just half a game off the lead pace, even though in third place.

Shields Top Star

Bill Shields, the swift Salem outfielder was the hero of the game. He smacked a home run over the 380-foot left-center fence as first up in the ninth. Earlier, in the fifth he led off with a double and scored Salem's first run on another double by Mel Krause.

Then in the seventh, after winning hurler Bill Whitson walked the bases loaded, Shields ended what could have been a rally by catching Bill Staley's drive to right field and then throwing out losing pitcher Phil Page at the plate after the catch. The double play ended the inning.

Whitson's Seventh

Salem turned in another spectacular double play in the fifth inning to help Whitson to his seventh triumph of the season.

Spokane scored in the first and second innings. Krause's two-run double tied it in the fifth, the drive denting the 370-foot left field fence.

After Shields homered to start the ninth, Harv Koepf singled, Jack Dunn singled in a run, Floyd Robinson singled in another and Gene Tansell grounded out, with still another tally scoring.

Salem had 12 hits off Page. Whitson checked the Spokes with seven. Page whiffed nine, walked two. Whitson K'd 6, walked 6.

The teams play again Tuesday night.

Conley Wins Ninth . . .

Braves Top Bucs, 2-1; Giants Bow to Redlegs

The "other" teams in the National League were the only clubs at work in major league baseball Monday night. Big Gene Conley won his ninth for Milwaukee as the Braves beat Pittsburgh 2-1 and little Luis Arroyo nailed up his eighth while St. Louis defeated Cincinnati.

Cincinnati dealt the defending champion New York Giants their fifth straight defeat 5-3 in the only other game played. First place Brooklyn and runnerup Chicago had a day of rest in the National and the entire American League was idle.

Conley, beaten four times this season, wrapped up the Pirates in a four-hit job as Milwaukee won its fourth straight to move within 2½ games of the Cubs. The Braves are 13½ back of Brooklyn.

Braves Held to Four

Loser Vern Law and Bob Purkey combined to check Milwaukee at four hits, but the Braves turned two of them into a run. Bruton singled, stole second and rode home on Johnny Logan's double in the fourth.

Logan knocked Bruton home again in the sixth as Billy reached base on one of the Bucs' three errors.

Cincinnati climbed past Philadelphia into fifth place — with a four-run fifth inning on four singles, an error and Stan Palys' double. Loser Jim Hearn hadn't allowed a hit until the fifth.

Fowler Wins Game

Art Fowler went all the way for the first time this season for his second victory. The Giants, with Willie Mays still on the bench, scored on Dusty Rhodes' solo homer and a pinch-homer run by Bill Taylor with one on.

The lone Philadelphia run at St. Louis was unearned, sharpening Arroyo's earned run average to 1.91. The Cards had three unearned runs in the fourth inning to beat Murry Dickson.

Both clubs had seven hits, as the Cards pulled within two percentage points of the sixth place Phils.

Beyers Hurls Perfect Game

Carl Beyers of Mt. Angel Coop pitched a perfect no-run, no-hit, no-error softball game and struck out 14 as his Mt. Angel Coop team nipped State Prison Officers, 1-0, in a contest that was a true pitchers' duel—with Gene-Hilficker of the Prison almost duplicating Beyers' feats except for an accidentally-bunted singled that scored the winning run.

That was the second game in a City League doubleheader and the first game saw Kay Woolen down

Salem Juniors Win 6 in Row

WOODBURN — (Special) — The Salem Capital Post No. 9 American Legion Juniors won their sixth straight victory here Monday night, nipping the Woodburn Juniors by a 4-2 count in a non-league game.

Salem scored three runs in the fourth when John Garner singled, Roger Carda singled, and John Frederick singled to score both Garner and Carda. Frederick then came home on Ron Baker's single.

Woodburn scored both their runs in the sixth. It started when Erling walked and McCall tripled to score Erling and then McCall stole home for the second run.

Salem scored an unneeded run in the seventh. Ed Syring singled, stole second and scored on Bob Jantze's single.

Frederick was the winning pitcher, giving up seven hits and striking out 12.

Next game for the Salem team will be Wednesday night at 6:30 against Independence - Monmouth in a district Junior Legion clash.

Salem Boaters Score in Idaho

Members of the Salem Boat Club scored well in a regatta at Caldwell, Ida., Sunday, it was reported here last night.

Gib Ward won first in the B Utility and B Hydro events. John Hall was second and "Doc" Reinke third in the former, and Jim Woodroffe had a third in the latter. Paul Woodroffe had a second in the D Utility event, another second in the D Hydro race and a fourth in the F Hydro race.

Weight Still Big Question

Jim Norris Expects Gate of $250,000

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK — Odds favoring Archie Moore over Bobo Olson edged to 2-1 Monday as the light heavyweight champion predicted he would weigh "174½ pounds" at the weigh-in for Wednesday's defense against the middleweight king.

Moore boxed two rounds at his Summit, N.J. camp with sparring partner Clint Baco and indicated he may box two more Tuesday, the day before his most important fight, Olson shadow boxed, laughing and joking as he tuned up on the light bag at his Asbury Park, N.J. camp in his final workout.

While the boxers worked out of town, Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, predicted a gate of "$250,000 or more" for the 15-round match at the Polo Grounds. Norris said the advance sale was "around $100,000."

He pointed out that recent outdoor fights in New York had experienced a last minute gate rush when the fans realized they would not see the bout on television. The high for a last day sale was $162,000 for the Ray Robinson-Randy Turpin match in 1951.

TV to Cover Fight

Although the Moore-Olson scrap will be screened nationally (ABC) the New York area will be blacked out. There will be a network radio broadcast (ABC) with New York included.

Norris said he would meet with Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano two or three days after the fight to arrange a September bout for Marciano.

He said a Moore match would be very desirable, if Archie won decisively. However, he also claimed he would be interested in an Olson-Marciano match if Bobo "looked real good."

When the question of Moore's weight was brought up, Norris smiled and said he had the weight checked by "reliable sources" and had every reason to believe Archie would make 175 pounds. Dr. Vincent Nardiello of the New York State Athletic Commission nodded his head in agreement.

Moore Refuses Scales

Although reports from camp indicated Archie might be under the lightweight limit (175) he still refused to get on the scales in public.

Moore will get a two-hour period of grace to make the weight if he fails the first time at noon Wednesday. What happens if he doesn't make it then, is open to question.

Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York commission, said he would "cross that bridge when I come to it."
