Legions Dump Albany 7 to 3 Locals Win Eighth Straight Victory

The high-riding Capitol Post No. 9 - Salem Downtown Merchants Association American Legion Junior baseball team downed Albany's Juniors, 7-3 for their eighth straight victory Friday at Waters Field.

The Salem team was out-hit but not out-scored in the non-counting Junior Legion contest. Albany banged seven hits off pitcher Dick Cobb while Salem get only four off Albany's Vannice.

Salem scored first in the second frame with two runs - both of them being walked in when Vannice issued five straight bases on balls.

Albany Scores One

Vannice singled to score Weiss in the third inning for Albany's first run.

Salem's big inning was the sixth when they pushed across five runs. Cobb walked, Jim Michaelis singled and then Ron Baker tripled to score the two ahead of him. An error then brought Baker home.
