

Two Sheridan Engagements Told

SHERIDAN—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chamberlain have announced the engagement of their daughter Lorraine Ellen Chamberlain, to Arnold D. Hostetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hostetter, all of Sheridan. The wedding date has been set for November 20.

Miss Chamberlain is a student at Oregon State College, and Hostetter is stationed in the Navy, on the U.S.S. Kearsarge.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Thomas of Sheridan have announced the engagement of their daughter Velma Nadine, to Donald Dell Stuck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stuck of Sheridan. July 8 is the wedding date set by the couple. Both are Sheridan high school graduates.

Degrees Conferred

The majority degree was conferred on Dorothy Kinney Ingram, Justine Lewis Jones, Jody Bayer, Louise Owens and Darlene Looze at the last meeting of the season of Bethel 43 with Honor Queen Karen Thomas presiding.

During the ceremony Dianne Kelley and the choir sang. Accompanist was Joan Culbertson, Bethel musician.

Those honored were Nancy Snider, Jody Bayer, and Mrs. Norman Fletcher, guardian No. 35, past guardian No. 43. Also honored were those having June birthdays.

The first fall meeting will be held on September 12.

Mrs. Merlin R. Bourquein, whose wedding took place at the First Christian Church in Portland on June 25, is the former Beth Haviland Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Clinton Weeks of Salem. The groom is the son of Mrs. Earl H. Waller of Colton, Calif. (Logan-Markham Photo.)

Miss Weeks, Mr. Bourquein Wed in Portland Ceremony

Miss Beth Haviland Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Clinton Weeks, became the bride of Mr. Merlin R. Bourquein, son of Mrs. Earl H. Waller, Saturday, June 25, at the First Christian Church in Portland. Dr. Myron C. Cole officiated at the four o'clock ceremony.

Mr. David O. Johnson sang and Miss Laurie Pratt was at the organ. Yellow and white gladioli and snapdragons, white stock and white tapers decorated the church.

Toastmistress Officers Installed

New officers for the Salem Toastmistresses were installed June 23 by installing officer Mrs. Evelyn Prugh, Stayton Toastmistress and council chairman of District Two.

Mrs. A. J. Ullman is the new president; Mrs. Robert Morrow, vice president; Mrs. R. H. Vincent, recording secretary; Mrs. Vestal Matter, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Billie Jean Briggs, treasurer; Mrs. Marion Woodson, council representative.

Mrs. Morrow won an Oscar for her speech. Miss Myrtle Weatherholt was toastmistress at the meeting and speakers were Mrs. Kay Burns and Mrs. Agnes Gartrell. General evaluator was Miss Ada Ross, and Mrs. Ullman was in charge of table topics. Mrs. James Hartley was the hostess. Guests were Miss Ellen Duffy, Miss Margaret Maddox, and Mrs. Claude Jorgensen.

Miss Bishop Becomes a June Bride

Miss Shirley Arlene Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Merlin Bishop of Salem, was married to Mr. Richard Lee Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben R. Hughes of Halsey, Sunday, June 26, in the garden of the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wall, Albany.

The Rev. G. Wesley Turner of the First Methodist Church of Lebanon performed the evening ceremony.

Beds of blooming fuchsias and begonias and a rosebud covered trellis made a romantic setting in the garden for the bride who wore a white net covered satin ballerina length gown with embroidered tulle lace bodice and peplum trimmed in satin, and a lace jacket edged in tatted lace. For something borrowed she wore a white tulle fingertip length veil with a coronet of satin embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white bridal Bible, topped with yellow-throated white orchid and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Milton Ingram was matron of honor and Miss Mary Jane Hughes, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Both wore embossed taffeta ballerina length dresses with bodice, peplum and jacket of crystalite.

Mr. Merle Peters was best man, and ushers were Mr. Jess Bishop, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Milton Ingram.

A white linen sheath with navy jacket and white accessories was worn by the bride's mother, and the mother of the groom wore a pink gown with white accessories. Both had pink rosebud corsages.

At the reception in the garden following the ceremony, Miss Myrna Dufour and Miss Lois Hofstedt poured, Miss Arlene Darr cut the cake, Miss Karen Glenn passed the guest book, Miss Gail Watson presided over the gift table, and Miss Sharon Long and Mrs. Grady Morgan served.

For their wedding trip to the Oregon Caves, Crater Lake and California, the bride wore a dusty pink suit with pink and white accessories. After the first of July, the couple will make their home on a farm near Halsey.
