Coquille Girl, Air Force Man Wed in Church

Miss Cordelia Valerie Horton, daughter of Mrs. L. C. Horton, and Alan Frederic Oppiger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer P. Oppiger, Independence, were married at St. James Episcopal Church at Coquille June 19 at 4:30 p.m. The Rev. B. Jean Clark officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, attired in a gown of white nylon tulle over satin, made with a lace bodice and sleeves, carried a spray of blue iris and stephanotis on a white prayer book. The bride veil was of French illusion and was fingertip length. It was held in place by a crown of sequins and pearls.

Arthur L. Horton gave his sister in marriage.

Soloist was Carroll Nickles and organist Robert Burns.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Theron Miller was matron of honor. She wore a yellow gown and carried a nosegay of blue iris and yellow daisies.

Miss Bettye Millsap of Portland, Miss Marcia Hodgson, Ross, Calif., Miss Margaret Ednie, Halaula, Hawaii, and Miss Bonnie Stoerner, Coquille, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were of blue and flowers of blue and yellow.

Roger Middleton was best man. Dale Kohler, Mapleton, Donald Bowman, Merrill, Robert Gilman Jr., Medford, H. Paul Keefe, Eugene, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a navy ensemble with pink accessories and the groom's mother navy and white silk print taffeta with white accessories. Each wore an orchid.

During the reception, held in the church parlors, Mrs. L. V. Horton and Mrs. Gordon Kohler cut the cake. Mrs. Verl McCurdy, Mrs. Harold Kohlhorst and Mrs. Everett Schmidt poured. Assisting were Mrs. Rod Noak, Mrs. Warren Hawkins, Miss Mary Sundet, Miss Patricia Beard.

The couple went to San Antonio, Tex., where they will reside while the groom is in the air force at Lackland Air Base.
