

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it all right for a woman, who is marrying for the second time, to wear white?

A. No; nor does she wear a veil or carry orange blossoms. And the simpler the ceremony, the better taste it displays. The most sensible woman marries inconspicuously at home or in church, with only intimate friends and relatives present to witness the ceremony.

Q. Is it proper for an engaged couple to mail birthday cards to friends signed with both of their names?

A. This is quite all right.

Beach-Atkin Wedding Sunday

Sunday afternoon at a ceremony at First United Brethren Church, Miss Leora Beach was united in marriage to Billie O. Atkin. Miss Darlene Rambo and Mr. Albert C. Taylor, brother-in-law of the groom, attended the couple. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Harold Beach.

The bride wore an ivory suit and accessories and an orchid. Miss Rambo wore a gray suit with pink accessories and pink carnation corsage. The bride's mother was attractive in dusty rose with carnation corsage. The ceremony was read by the pastor the Rev. Richard V. Kilmer in the presence of relatives and friends.

The couple leaves Tuesday for Louisiana where Mr. Atkin will be stationed with the U. S. Airforce.
