Legion Post, Truax Oil Gain Junior Ball Wins

American Legion Post 136 and Truax Oil scored two one-sided victories in the Junior Baseball League Tuesday.

Co-op Downed By Randle Oil

National Guard Tips Cascade Meats, 3-2

Two City League softball games Tuesday at Phillips Field night saw Randle Oil down Mt. Angel Co-op, 5-1, and IGA Stores get a win by forfeit from Burklund Lumber Company.

In the Industrial League at Olinger Field, National Guard edged Cascade Meats, 3-2, in a practice game and at Leslie Field First Christian Church defeated the State Correctional Officers, 10-5, in an exhibition game.

Norv Hillficker hurled the win for Randle Oil and allowed only three hits by the Mt. Angel team.

Randle Oil scored their first two runs in the second inning when Tinker Risteen was safe on a two-base error.

In the fourth inning the 136'ers added nine more runs. These came on six walks and three singles by Gydesen, Ritchie and Bob Hawkins.

Leading batter for Randle was catcher Woody Hall with a single and double in three trips.

The non-league National Guard victory saw the Guardsmen score twice in the first on three walks and a single by Wayne Bryant.

Wednesday night's softball games in the City League sends Kay Woolson against the State Prison Officers at 7:30 p. m. at Phillips Field in the opener and at 8:30 Randle Oil meets IGA Stores.

Randle Oil 020 021 0-5 4 3 Mt. Angel 000 001 0-1 3 4 Hillficker and Hall; C. Beyer and Bucheit, Annen (7).

National Guard 300 001-3 3 2 Cascade Meats 000 300-2 4 3 Walker and Ochse; Schaffer and Busby.

Yankee Tennis Stars In Opening Victory

DUBLIN (AP) — Hugh Stewart, defending champion in the men's singles, and four other American stars breezed through opening rounds of the Irish Lawn Tennis championships Tuesday.

Stewart, a towering Los Angeles veteran, defeated J. P. McHale of Dublin, 6-4, 6-2.

Stewart generally is favored to retain his title after the withdrawal of first seeded Budge Patty, the American living in Paris.

Colts Sign Coach

BAITMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Colts of the National Football League Tuesday signed on a new coach, Tom Hughes of North Dakota University.

The North Dakota line coach will instruct ends for the Colts. A former tackle at Purdue and at Missouri, he played with the Los Angeles Dons in 1946.

He has had coaching duties at Oregon and Purdue and spent one year as a trainer with the New York football Yanks before going with North Dakota.

Donovan-Kamaroff Duet Win In Wild Tag Team Mat Battle

Luther Lindsey was forced to wrestle the final fall by himself Tuesday night at the Salem Armory against the combined forces of Doug Donovan and Ivan Kamaroff but after a valiant try was defeated.

Lindsey's partner in the tag team combo was John Paul Henning, who was injured in the second fall when Donovan hit two atomic drops on him and he was able only to return to the ring for a few seconds of the final and nearly riotous fall.

The first fall of the exciting brawl went to Henning when he and Lindsey worked big Kamaroff over and beat him with a series of leg locks, slams and a body press.

Forest Darling and Tom Penrod combined to hurl a no-hitter for Truax, although one run was allowed. Penrod relieved Darling in the second inning of the five inning game.

Truax got their seven runs in the third on only one hit but they capitalized on six Labish errors. The hit was a single by Ernie Karn that scored Gerald Girod, who had walked.

Karn scored on an error and another bunch of errors accounted for the other five runs.

Dean Posvar started the six-run fifth inning for Truax with a single, stole second for one of the nine stolen bases by the Oilers, and then scored when Mike Grove hit to the second baseman who errored.

Jerry Hawley, the next Truax batter, then slammed a long homer to right field for the next two runs.

Karn singled to drive in the next run after Gene Gilbertson had got on base when hit by a pitched ball.

A double steal accounted for the next two runs.

Labish Scores One

Labish's one run came in the second when three consecutive walks forced home Dean Westling, the losing pitcher.

In the Legion Post-Berg's game, the Legion club scored their first three runs in the opening inning.

A single by Dennis Gray drove home the first run and then Doug Ritchie, the winning pitcher who allowed only one hit, tripled to score Gray.

Richard Gydesen doubled to bring Ritchie home.

In the fourth inning the 136'ers added nine more runs. These came on six walks and three singles by Gydesen, Ritchie and Bob Hawkins.

Their final two came in the fifth on a walk, an error and a double by Gydesen.

Berg's scored both theirs in the third inning. After a walk, Bob Hawley singled to bring home the first run and then he scored on a sacrifice fly.

Two Games Tonight

Wednesday's Class B game will pit the Salem Lions against the Mill Supply Corp. on Barrick Field at 6 p. m. instead of at Olinger where it was originally scheduled.

The Class C game, also at Barrick and at 6 p. m., sends Steinke's against Nameless Market.

Berg's Keizer 002 00-2 1 3 Legion Post 300 92-14 8 0 Gettis, Hawley (4), Simmons (5) and Cales, Burritt (5); Ritchie and Parrie.

Truax Oil 007 06-13 6 4 Labish Center 010 00-1 0 9 Darling, Penrod (2) and Karn; Westling and Biggins.

AL Pitchers Vs. NL Power

(Continued from preceding pg.) at least three innings, but Musial was chosen by Durocher as the first base alternate to Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski, who is tied with Brooklyn's Duke Snider for the major league lead with 27 home runs.

The only question mark is Roy Campanella, the Dodgers' slugging catcher, who has been sidelined with an injury. It is not known whether he will be ready. As a precaution, Durocher named two other catchers—Del Crandall of Milwaukee and Smoky Burgess of Cincinnati.

Sherman Lollar of the White Sox is the only protection for Yogi Berra, the Yankees' durable catcher.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

RELEASING UNDER-SIZED FISH

SMALL FISH, CAUGHT ON A SINGLE-HOOKED ARTIFICIAL... SUCH AS A FLY, BASS BUG, OR SPINNER, CAN USUALLY BE RELEASED WITHOUT REMOVAL FROM WATER OR GRASPING BY HAND: LEAVE FISH IN WATER AND SHAKE THE HOOK LOOSE (SOME FISH SHAKE THEMSELVES FREE WHEN YOU HOLD HOOK).

LESS OF THE PROTECTIVE COVERING OF SLIME IS REMOVED IF HANDS ARE WET, BUT TIGHTER GRIP (NECESSARY WITH WET HANDS) INJURES FISH MORE THAN DRY HAND'S LOOSE GRIP. HANDLE ALL FISH GENTLY! IF HOOK IS SWALLOWED, CUT IT'S LINE AT LIPS. HOLD FISH UPRIGHT UNTIL IT SWIMS AWAY.

Campy's Hand In Law Fight

O'Malley to Face Slanderous Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — Counsel for a surgeon who operated on the left hand of Roy Campanella, Brooklyn Dodgers' catcher, accused Walter O'Malley, president of the Brooklyn club, of making slanderous statements against the doctor in papers filed Tuesday in supreme court.

The charges were made by counsel for Dr. Samuel Shenkman, Manhattan, neuro-surgeon, who is suing Campanella for $9,500 for medical services. They were contained in an affidavit accompanying a motion to restrict Campanella's demand for a bill of particulars.

Operating on Bankroll

In the affidavit, the lawyer, Benjamin Shenkman, charged O'Malley made a remark that the surgeon "thought he was operating on Roy's bankroll."

"The plaintiff," the affidavit said, "does not intend to permit these remarks to go uncontested. However, that is something for another forum."

The affidavit said in May, 1954, Campanella suffered an injury to his left hand "which not only limited his playing, but unless corrected would finish his playing days."

Campanella was operated on that month, but the affidavit said the catcher was unable to play in his usual manner.

The papers stated that Dr. Shenkman operated on the catcher last October, and that Campanella's batting average "at the present time" is .335, compared with .207 last year.

Bill Consolo, former Boston Red Sox bonus infielder, is playing second base and leading off for Oakland. He's there on option, having served his two-year bonus apprenticeship in the majors.

Brawl Spices Redlegs' Win

Giants Belt Bucs, Mays Homers Twice

point on and park policemen had to take the field to restore order. Big Ted Kluszewski, the Redlegs' muscular first baseman, who hit his 28th homer earlier in the game, did not take part in the battle.

After the brawl was over, with Tebbets, Walker and St. Louis catcher Bill Sarni ejected, Johnny Temple singled home the winning run.

Roberts Hits, Too

At Philadelphia, Roberts drove in three runs—two with a sixth inning double—to win his 12th decision, although needing relief help in the ninth. Andy Seminick put the game away with his two-run homer in the eighth off reliever Jim Hughes.

The victory broke a four-game Phil losing streak and gave them their second 1955 victory against the Brooks in 13 games.

Duke Snider smacked his 28th homer for the Dodgers, who now lead second place Chicago by 12 games.

Hector Lopez and Joe DeMaestri, an improbable pair for power, each homered for the A's to tumble the Indians five percentage points behind the idle Chicago White Sox. It was Hector's blow that did it, breaking a 3-3 tie in the eighth.

Gorman Gets Victory

DeMaestri got off his shot in the first, snapping Early Wynn's string of scoreless innings at 29. Lopez' homer gave reliever Tom Gorman his fourth victory, taking over for Bobby Shantz in the eighth, and made it 10 triumphs in the last 12 games for Kansas City.

The Giants made it in a breeze behind Mays' hitting and the fourth pitching of Johnny Antonelli, who fanned 10 for his seventh victory. Mays, who now has 25 homers for the season, has hit two home runs in a single game five times this year.

Former Champs Top Publix Field

NEW YORK (AP) — Two former champions, Gene Andrews of Pacific Palisades, Calif., the defender, and Andy Swedko of Pittsburgh, 1939 winner, top a field of 200 golfers who will begin play Monday, July 11, in the 30th Amateur Public Links Championship of the United States Golf Assn.

Prior to the main tournament, teams representing 32 districts will compete in an 18-hole team event Saturday. Aggregate scores of three players representing each qualifying district determine the team title.

The draw for the all-match play tournament was released Monday by the United States Golf Assn. It will be played over the 6,536-yard, par 36-34-70 Coflin Municipal Course at Indianapolis, Ind., winding up with a 36-hole final Saturday, July 16.

Andrews, who won the title last year by beating Jack Zimmerman, 1-up, at Dallas, was the only player not required to qualify for this year's tournament. The other 199 are survivors of a field of 2,006 which started in the sectional qualifying rounds.

Paul to Play Another Season

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Captain-linebacker Don Paul decided Tuesday to postpone his retirement from professional football and the Los Angeles Rams for at least another year.

Ending weeks of indecision, the 30-year-old veteran of eight seasons with the Rams checked in with president Dan Reeves and coach Sid Gillman and signed his 1955 contract.

The 225-pounder said it was hard to get "football out of my blood," and added that since meeting the new coach, Gillman, he finally resolved to play another year.

Gillman, meanwhile, opens training with some 30 rookies at the University of Redlands Thursday. Paul and the regulars report next week to get ready for the National Football League season.

Baltimore Boxer Injured in Bout

DETROIT (AP) — Bert Whitehurst of Baltimore suffered a brain concussion Tuesday night in a heavyweight bout with Johnny Sumner of Detroit.

Doctors at Detroit Memorial Hospital described Whitehurst's condition as fair. They also said he was suffering from heat exhaustion.

Whitehurst took a savage pounding in the 8-round bout. He staggered to his corner at the end of the fight and had to be assisted to his dressing room where he collapsed.

Whitehurst is a sparring partner for heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano.

Sumner was awarded a unanimous decision.

Larry Parker, University of North Carolina's top golfer, also is the star halfback on the football team.

GM Directors Recommend Split of Stock

NEW YORK (AP) — A three-for-one stock split was recommended Tuesday by the directors of General Motors Corp., to be voted on at a special stockholders' meeting Sept. 23.

The stock of the world's largest manufacturing concern has been rising steadily. Tuesday it climbed $3.75 a share on the New York stock exchange, closing at its record high of $113.37.

The rise took place before the announcement of the stock split as 23,400 shares of GM stock were sold on the big board, making it the ninth most active stock of the day.

On the San Francisco stock exchange, which closed after the announcement, GM stock rose to $118.75 a share. It closed at $121 in Los Angeles.

GM at present has nearly 93 million shares of common stock outstanding, more than any other corporation.
