More Miles on River Opened Up for Fishing

PORTLAND — Twenty additional miles of the West Fork of the Millicoma River are open to trout and salmon.

The State Fish Commission said Wednesday a $26,000 fishway has been completed to help fish over Vaughan Falls in Coos County.

Determined Linksman

TACOMA — Wilson F. Wilson is a determined man where golf is concerned.

Last January he slipped walking down the elevated 14th green at the Brookdale course here and broke his back.

This week, wearing a brace, Wilson returned to the Brookdale layout for the first time since his accident and used a six iron to dunk a hole in one on the 130-yard 15th hole.

GOLFERS TO PLAY

PORTLAND — Three Portland golfers—Roy Atkins, Bob Parry and Gene Maidmont—will play in the National Public Links tournament opening July 11 at Indianapolis.

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Three British professionals—a Scot, an Englishman and a Welshman—caught the Old Course of St. Andrews in a sunny, benign mood Wednesday and took three strokes off par for 69s in the opening round of the British Open golf championship.

One of the three, Dai Rees of Wales, has been runner-up in the last two British Opens.

Other 69s were shot by Syd Scott of England and Eric Brown, a former Scottish fireman on a railway engine. Scott shared second place with Rees and Bobby Locke last year when Australia's Peter Thomson won.

The best shooter of five Americans was Ed Furgol of Clayton, Mo., the 1954 United States Open champion; who had 36-35-71. Nelson hits 72.

Three par 72s were shot by Byron Nelson, a veteran Texan who is on a sentimental journey to the home of golf; by Joe Conrad, San Antonio, Tex., the British Amateur champion; and by Jimmy McHale of Philadelphia. Johnny Bulla of Pittsburgh was high American with a 75.

Both McHale and Conrad are amateurs and along with Scotland's A. M. M. Buecher lead the non-salaried players.

Just behind the three leaders with steady 70s were British pros Henry Cotton, Bernard Hunt, Frank Jowle, and Cecil Denny, all of England; Denis Smalldon, Wales, and Ian Martin, Scotland. Low Qualifier

Jowle was low qualifier and the man who shot the New Course in 63 on Monday.

Bracketed among the 71s along with Furgol and 10 others was Thomson, the defending champion.

The tournament continues with another 18-hole round Thursday. After that trip round the 6,936 yard hole course the field will be shaved to a maximum of 50. Survivors will play two rounds Friday, bringing to a close the 85th British Open.

Walet Grabs Sailboat Win

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash. (AP)—Eugene Walet, 20-year-old New Orleans, La., skipper, outran the field in four out of five scheduled races Tuesday and Wednesday to win the Dragon Class Olympic Games sailboat trials.

Walet amassed 3,715 points in the first four heats of the race for the 23-foot racing sailboats and the fifth heat was called off. Judges said he couldn't be beaten by runner-up P.S. Padelford of Seattle even if he sank. Padelford had 2,460 points.

Walet took three firsts and a second in the four heats in Port Townsend Bay. He will represent the United States in the Olympic Games races at Melbourne, Australia, next year.

Aussie Davis Team Backed

NEW YORK (AP)—Harry Hopman Wednesday figured the Australian Davis Cup team is an even bet against the United States right now and might even have an edge by the time the challenge round is held at Forest Hills, Aug. 26-28.

The Australian team captain bases his optimism on a "much more relaxed and settled" Lew Hoad and a couple of new doubles combinations including the winning team at Wimbledon in Hoad and Rex Hartwig. The other team is made up of Ken Rosewall and Neale Fraser.

Hopman spoke freely at a press conference for the Australian team and Bill Talbert, the U.S. captain. Hopman arrived from London Wednesday with Hartwig to join his other players, Rosewall, Fraser and Ashley Cooper. Hoad will fly directly from London to Chicago in a few days, said Hopman.

St. Paul Open Set To Kick-Off Today

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The long-range sluggers of golf's money wheel wade into four days of unshackled blasting in the $15,000 St. Paul Open starting Thursday at Keller Course.

No needle-eye accuracy off the tees will be needed this week at the 6,600 yard public links, which required four months of ingenious toughening a year ago to hold scores in the PGA tournament within respectable bounds.

Scorched by the sun for three weeks, Keller's rough has been reduced to harmless stubble, no problem at all for pro golf's musclemen.

More Amiable
The conditions promised to make Keller's par 72 even more amiable than usual and automatically made title threats of such maulers as Mike Souchak, the season's leading money winner, Sam Snead, George Bayer and others.

Grouped with them as firm contenders were Tommy Bolt, Dow Finsterwald, winner of the British Columbia Open last week, Billy Maxwell, Bob Rosburg, Bud Holscher, Doug Ford and former National Open champion Julius Boros.

Many of the pros were predicting a winning 72-hole total of 263, or 20 under par. The course record of 266 shared by Lloyd Mangrum and Cary Middlecoff was considered within reach.

Golfers Paced By Mrs. Giles

Mrs. Robert Giles took top honors in low putt competition of the Oak Knoll Women's Golf Association Wednesday at Oak Knoll.

Competition was restricted to the greens and nine holes were played. Mrs. Giles scored a 15.

Second was Mrs. Elmo Bennett with an 18; third, Mrs. Ted Kerr with a 19.

Today, Oak Knoll ladies are to travel to the Woodburn Golf Course to play there with the Woodburn women. Some 18 to 20 Oak Knoll ladies are expected to be on hand for the 9 a.m. tee-off.

Next Thursday, Woodburn women will travel to Oak Knoll for a game there with Oak Knoll women.

Detroit Tigers Sign Ex-Baltimore Pitcher

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers Wednesday signed righthander Joe Coleman, recently released by the Baltimore Orioles.

Coleman had an 8-1 record with the Orioles and had been hampered by arm trouble.

U.S. Open Champion Demonstrates Long Iron Technique

For More Fun In A Boat Use Common Sense Afloat

KNOW YOUR BOAT Every boat has its limitations. Learn what you can expect from your boat.	HEAD INTO THE WAVES If waves are high, head your boat at an angle towards the waves at slow speed.
BALANCE YOUR LOAD Distribute weight evenly in the boat—from side to side and from bow to stern.	USE THE RIGHT MOTOR Too much power can damage your boat—may even swamp it. Look for OBC recommended horsepower plots.
WATCH THE WEATHER Head for shore before a storm breaks. If caught out, seat passengers on floor.	DON'T OVERLOAD Seats do not indicate capacity. Two or three adults may be a full load under many conditions.
KEEP LOW And step in the center when boarding the boat or changing seats.	AVOID SHARP TURNS Fast, sharp turns are hard on equipment—and sometimes on people. Take it easy.

Follow the eight simple rules shown here for more safety and fun afloat this season, says the Outboard Boating Club of America, national organization of outboard boat and motor owners. Boating is the safest of outdoor sports, says OBC, if you'll use common sense and courtesy.
