Church Rites Unite Couple On Saturday

Miss Jean Mary Mikkelsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Mikkelsen of Lincoln, Nebraska, became the bride of Bernard Eric Krefl, son of Mrs. Hortense Krefl, on Saturday, July 9 at a 10 o'clock ceremony at St. Vincent de Paul church. The Rev. John Reedy officiated and Wayne Meusey played the organ. Pink and white gladioluses and larkspur decorated the church.

The bride wore a waltz length dress of tulle over satin. The fitted bodice and peplum were of chantilly lace. Her Juliet cap and short veil were trimmed with pearls and iridescent sequins. The bride carried a nosegay of white carnations. Mrs. Ernest Krefl was the matron of honor. Ernest Krefl, brother of the groom, was best man. Bernadette Krefl, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

Mother of the bride wore a blue lace dress with pink accessories and the groom's mother wore a pink linen suit with white accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

A 12 o'clock luncheon was served in the Camellia Room at the Hotel Senator following the nuptials. Mrs. William Zenger cut the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Krefl are both pharmacists. Mrs. Krefl is a graduate of Nebraska State University and Mr. Krefl of Oregon State College.

After a wedding trip down the Oregon and California coast, they plan to make their home in California.

Lansing Neighbors Garden Club met on Thursday for a picnic dinner at the home of Mrs. Ben Rathjen near Silver Creek Falls park. Driving up for the day were Mrs. Rex Peffer, Mrs. Robert Ballard, Mrs. Phil Aspinwall, Mrs. Roy Lively, Mrs. Milton Blackman, Mrs. H. Willard Cole, Mrs. Lloyd Keene, and Mrs. R. O. Anderson. A family picnic is planned for the park on the first Sunday in August.
