'Smileroo' Attraction List Grows

Statesman News Service

DALLAS—The roster of attractions at the Dallas Smileroo August 4-6 includes many big names from far and near.

The Queen's Parade on Thursday will feature Queen Donna and her court. The reigning beauty of the Smileroo is Miss Donna Mendenhall of Sheridan.

In the same parade "Miss Majorette of Oregon," Mary Jane Wait of Rickreall, will display her baton twirling talents. Later in the month Miss Wait will go to Columbus, Ohio, to compete for the Miss Majorette of America crown.

Miss JoAnn Carr, chosen Girl of the Year by the Girls' League, also will be honored in the parade.

Nine members of the New York Giants professional football team will be on hand at the courthouse lawn Saturday Aug. 6, at 10:30 a.m. Elected to make an appearance are Earl Pitman, 6-foot, 6-inch tackle weighing 310 pounds; Don Heinrich, former University of Washington star; Wayne Berry, ex - Washington Stater; Cliff Livingston, former UCLA; John Steinberg of Stanford fame; Roosevelt Brown a 245 pound tackle, and, rounding out the heavyweight contingent, Ray Wietecha, Charley Conerly and Bob Ward.

Royes Note 44th Wedding Anniversary

Statesman News Service

FALLS CITY—The Rev. and Mrs. James H. Royer celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary Saturday night at the home of their son, Robert W. Royer and his family of Swegle Road, Salem.

Also present were their granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Martin, and her husband and two children of Falls City, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Roland M. Royer, and two children of Turner.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Royer have four children. Two of these are in the service; Sgt. 1c Roland M. Royer is at present in the Army in Korea and is due home on Aug. 5. Airman 3/C Jerry E. Royer is in the Air Force in Victorville, Calif. They also have six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Mr. Royer has been pastor of the Falls City Methodist Church for the past seven years.

Portuguese Eager For Paratroop Duty

LISBON, Portugal—Portugal now has its first paratroopers, to meet the demands of NATO.

"Everyone wanted to volunteer for the new corps," an Army leader said, "as soon as we called for enlistment, but not all could pass the strict tests required."

After six months of hard training the first group of 200, has now received insignia and uniform similar to that of British paratroopers.

LOT OF RED HERRING

LONDON—Britain has sold Soviet Russia 135,000 barries of cured herring. J. Henderson Stewart, joint under-secretary in the Scottish office, said the contract
