The Claude A. Millers' picturesque garden in Manbrin Gardens will be among those to be shown during the Salem Garden Club's annual summer tour on Thursday, August 4. Above, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their daughters, Diane and Pamela, pictured by their beautiful, new swimming pool overlooking the Willamette river. Pink petunias encircle the garden bordering the pool, with steps leading down to the pool from the upper terrace.

Two Salem Garden Club members, Miss Ellen Quail and Mrs. Roy E. Smith, who is tea chairman for the tour, are shown in the Orey Barnes' garden, which overlooks the Willamette river. The tour features gardens in Manbrin this year and is open to the public from 2 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

Tea will be served at the Russell Eyerly home on the North River Road during the Salem Garden Club's annual summer tour on Thursday between 2 and 9 o'clock. The public is invited to stop at the Eyerly home either enroute to Manbrin Gardens or on returning to Salem. Pictured at the tea table, left to right, are Mrs. Eyerly, Mrs. Jack Henningsen and Mrs. Kerby E. Johnson, president of the Salem Garden Club.

A feature of the Frank Junta garden on Shoreline Drive in Manbrin Gardens, which will be open to the public on Thursday for the Salem Garden Club's tour is the large patio with brick wall, which extends the length of their home. Above, are Mrs. L. K. Bateman, who represented the Manbrin Gardens Garden Club in assisting the Salem club with the tour, and Mrs. Junta.

At the right, Mrs. Roy Harland and daughter, Carol, are pictured on the spacious patio of their attractive home on Rivercrest Drive, which will be among the gardens open for the Salem Garden Club's tour on Thursday. The sweeping lawn extends to the river bank and flanking the patio are large beds of pink petunias and bright colored marigolds.

Manbrin Gardens . . .

Outstanding event of the coming week will be the Salem Garden Club's annual summer garden tour. Eleven gardens in Manbrin Gardens will be open to the public on Thursday, August 4 between 2 and 9 o'clock. The gardens are both small and large and several have a river view.

Featured are patios, terraces, planters, redwood paneling, hanging baskets, pools and colored lighting effects for outdoor living. Most of the gardens shown are maintained by members of the family and many have built their own terraces or patios.

Mrs. Gordon Black is heading the tour committee and tea will be served throughout the afternoon and evening at the Russell Eyerly home, 2741 N. River Road. Mrs. Roy E. Smith is heading the tea directorate.

Gardens, which will be open to the public, include Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Harland, 4135 Rivercrest Drive; Mrs. and Mrs. Robin Lewis, 4055 Rivercrest Drive; Mrs. and Mrs. Kenneth Bell, 4225 Shoreline Drive; Dr. and Mrs. William C. Crothers, 4235 Shoreline Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Miller, 4245 Shoreline Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Orey Barnes, 4255 Shoreline Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Junta, 4315 Shoreline Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Silas Gaiser, 524 Manbrin; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hagemann, 473 Manbrin; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Samsel, 694 Wayne Drive; and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolz, 641 Wayne Drive.
