

Miss Charlene Kerr Married At St. Vincent's Saturday

Miss Charlene Marie Kerr became the bride of Carl Wilfred Weathers at a beautiful ceremony Saturday morning at St. Vincent dePaul Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kerr and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Weathers.

The Rev. John Reedy performed the 10 o'clock nuptial mass before a setting of white stock and pink gladioluses. Wayne Meusey and Mary Krefit sang and Mrs. Meusey played the organ accompaniments.

Of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle was the bridal gown, fashioned with a fitted, lace bodice and Peter Pan collar sprinkled with seed pearls. The bouffant skirt ended in a chapel train with ruffled tiers of lace in back and panels of the lace and pleated, nylon tulle down the front of the skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a Juliet cap outlined in seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid combined with pink net.

Attendants Wear Pink

Three attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Rosalie Kerr, her sister's honor maid, Miss Betty Thompson and Miss Marie Christensen, the bridesmaids. They wore identical shell pink frocks with lace bodices, sweetheart necklines and bouffant nylon tulle floor length skirts. They carried cascades of American Beauty roses tied with pink ribbon. Nancy Kathleen Hammack, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl and wore a pink frock styled identical to the attendants.

Donald Weathers stood with his brother as best man and seating the guests were Ray Greene and Robert Hammack, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. The altar boys were Denis Van deWiele and Terry Kirk, cousins of the bride.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Kerr chose a steel grey lace gown over pink taffeta to which she pinned a spray of pink orchids. Mrs. Weathers wore a two-piece grey lace gown over pink and her flower girls wore pink spray orchids.

A Garden Reception

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the garden at the country home of the bride's parents. Pouring were Mrs. K. P. Smith, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. V. O. Weathers, the bridegroom's aunt. Mrs. Frank Kerr cut her niece's wedding cake. Assisting were Mrs. Carl Smith, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Jack McClure, aunt of the groom, Mrs. Lester Kirk, Mrs. Fred Viesko, Mrs. Laueren Hilton, Miss Sharon Kirk and Miss Carol Smith.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to Canada the new Mrs. Weathers was wearing a pink
