Flying-Saucer Costume Tops Keizer Parade

KEIZER — A pint-sized parade Friday opened the festivities of the Keizer Carnival.

Winner of the gold trophy was Alben Jayes. He wore a flying saucer costume. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alben Jayes Sr., 465 Chemawa Rd.

First ribbon went to a group of baton twirlers, Annabelle Standish; Tracee, Penny and Melodie Daugherty; and Barbara Barton.

Second ribbon winners were Joe Smith and Phillip Beebe. Third ribbon went to Kathy Beebe. Over 50 children participated in the parade.

The Keizer Carnival continues Saturday with a grand parade at 1 p.m. A breakfast Sunday from 8 a.m. to noon will conclude the festival, sponsored by the Keizer Lions Club.

Proceeds will go toward the Lions Clubhouse, park and a swimming-pool fund.
