They'll Start for Giants in Spokane Opener Tonight

Rote, Eddie Price, Don Heinrich and Frank Gifford. The Giants will return to Salem for additional training starting Monday, and will play the San Francisco 49ers at Seattle August 20, and the Los Angeles Rams at Portland August 28.

Giants, Packers Go Tonight

Heinrich Gets Starting Nod

Rote, Gifford, Price Await Whistle Blast

SPOKANE (Special)—Don Heinrich will be directing the New York Giants split-T attack against the Green Bay Packers here Saturday night in the kickoff of an 18-game season for both teams. Heinrich will start in a backfield composed of Frank Gifford, Eddie Price and Kyle Rote.

Bob Schmelker and Ken MacAfee, ends; Roosevelt Brown Jr. and Howie Lehman, tackles; Bill Austin and Jack Stroud, guards, and Ray Wietecha, center, are the other Giant starters.

Kyle's Cousin
Quarterback Tobin Rote, cousin of the Giants' Kyle, will lead Green Bay. His halfbacks will be Al Carmichael and Breezy Reid with Howie Ferguson at fullback. The Packers present two strong ends in Gary Kafelic and Bill Howton.

Len Szafaryn and Tom Dahms at tackle; Joe Skibinski and Bud Brown at guards; and Jim Ringo at center also will start. The two teams played once last year. The Giants won 38-27.

The Giants' 46-man squad is in excellent shape following workouts here Thursday night and Friday morning. Quarterback Bobby Clatterback is the only player in doubt. He has a bruised pitching hand. Although he can pass all right, it is painful for him to accept the snap from center.

Kyle Rote, who was limping slightly during workouts in Salem earlier this week, has come along fast. His heel is still sore but he can run at top speed, and Coach Howell Friday morning decided that he would start.

Except for Heinrich, former University of Washington All-American, and Lehman, a rookie subbing for regular Dick Yelvington, this is the same Giant lineup which finished so strongly a year ago. Yelvington has a pulled groin muscle, but should see some action.

Heinrich was named a starter last week. Howell indicated at the time that Heinrich and Clatterback would share the quarterback duties during the Giants' six game exhibition tour. Veteran Charley Conerly would be used only enough to sharpen his timing.

Conerly Ready
But if Clatterback is unable to play, Conerly may have to spell Heinrich at times throughout the game.

Defensively, the Giants will line up with Jim Duncan, Ray Kruse, Hal Mitchell, Ray Collins and Barney Poole across the line. Pat Knight and Bill Svoboda will be linebackers. Wayne Berry, Em Tunnell, Johnny Williams and Matt Vujovich fill roles in the secondary.

Vujovich, a rookie, will be replacing Dick Nolan who twisted his ankle a week ago. Nolan probably will play a little.

Cascade Wins Softy Crown
Cascade Meats is the new champion of the city Industrial softball league. The team last night at Phillips Field downed Ray & Wilma's, 5 to 4.

Winning hurler was Sandy Potter, who allowed six hits, as did the losing twirler, Warren Miller. Cascade scored four runs in the first inning on three hits and two errors. The winning tally came in the third inning, when Chaddick was hit by a Miller pitched ball and scored on a single by V. Potter.

Guglielmi Terrific... All Stars Upset Pro Kings, 30-27

CHICAGO (AP)—Notre Dame's Ralph Guglielmi, Baylor's L. G. DuPre and Ohio State's tiny kicking specialist, Ted Weed, combined to lead the College All-Stars to a rousing, record 30-27 upset of the favored Cleveland Browns Friday night.

While it was the 146-pound Weed's 34-yard field goal in the final period which provided the victory margin, the passing of quarterback Guglielmi and great running and receiving of DuPre broke the back of the Browns.

A Soldier Field throng of 75,000 watched in amazement as the All-Stars carried a vicious game to the National Football League champions all the way to take the nationally televised contest. String Broken

The collegiate victory broke a string of four straight pro triumphs and left the series in favor of the pros, 13 to 7, with 2 ties. The previous top collegiate scoring in the series was the 1938 All-Stars 28-10 victory over the Washington Redskins, and their 1940 loss to the Green Bay Packers, 45-28.

The All-Stars scored on touchdowns by Frank Eidom of Southern Methodist, Henry Hair of Georgia Tech and Mel Triplett of Toledo, but the real damage was done by Weed's three field goals and two extra points for 11 points. Back to Wall

The Browns had their back to the wall throughout the wind-swept night, as Guglielmi connected with devastating passes and DuPre sifted through the huge Cleveland defense at will. Guglielmi completed 10 of 19 passes for 129 yards in outplaying George Ratterman, the Browns' successor to the retired Otto Graham.

It was a great team victory for the All-Stars, whose running was hard and line play on a professional level. It also was a great achievement for the pro staff, headed by Curly Lambeau, which directed the Collegians for the first time in the colorful series.

Thrilling Game
Like a typical, thrilling pro game, the showdown came in the final quarter as Guglielmi passed 19 yards to DuPre on the Brown 1, and Triplett plunged across for a touchdown. Ohio State quarterback Dave Leggett surprised Cleveland by running wide for the extra point and a 27-20 lead.

A few minutes later Weed calmly booted his third field goal, from 34 yards, to put the All-Stars in front 30-20. The desperate Browns came back for their final touchdown with the clock running out as Curly Morrison smashed 5 yards to score. That left it 30-27 as the game ended.

Shrine Stars Eye Walling
PORTLAND (AP)—Injuries will keep at least three players out of the annual Shrine All-Star football game Aug. 20.

Doug Minthorn, Pendleton, and Paul Eckel, Medford, both guards, turned up as State casualties Friday. Minthorn suffered a knee injury and Eckel's eye, hurt in a recent logging accident, will prevent him from playing.

Jerry Walling, 230-pounder from South Salem High, was put on the squad to replace Minthorn. The Portland area team lost Morris Arntson, tackle from Cleveland High.

Both the State and City teams, made up of standout seniors from 1954 Oregon high school squads, will wind up their first week's practice with scrimmages Saturday.

Eckel will be replaced by Dave Lockhard, a 185-pound guard from Eugene.

Arntson's replacement on the Metro team will be Larry Wilkins, who played at Lincoln High in Portland.

Indians Swat Four Homers Against KC

By ED WILKS
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The new-born Cleveland Indians, with their home run punch finally out of storage, moved a full game ahead in the American League race Friday by belting Kansas City in both ends of a day-night doubleheader, 7-1 and 6-5, while second place Chicago held out for a 2-1 triumph at Detroit.

Cleveland also gained ground with the help of hurricane Connie as rain storms postponed the New York at Baltimore game and the Washington at Boston contest. That left the third place Yankees 1 1/2 games short and the Red Sox four games back.

Cincinnati Loses
The rains also sliced the National League action in half, postponing Philadelphia at Brooklyn and Pittsburgh at New York. Chicago punted Milwaukee 7-1 and St. Louis rallied to beat Cincinnati 8-7.

Cleveland, with nine home runs in the last three games, swatted four in the afternoon game, tagging the A's for seven runs in the first inning. Bobby Avila had two of the homers and drove in six runs. Jim Hegan contributed a grand slam blast in the big first inning and wound up with five RBIs.

Lemon Sparkles
Bob Lemon, making his first start in more than three weeks because of a leg injury, gave the A's just four hits in the six frames he worked. The big righthander fanned one and walked none for his 13th victory with Sal Maglie hurling the last three frames. Loser Arnie Portocarrero and two relievers were pelted for 18 hits.

At Smith's two-run homer and a two-on-triple by Hal Naragon triggered a five-run sixth for the Tribe, overcoming the A's 2-0 lead. (Cont'd. next page.)

Rosburg Tops World Golfers

CHICAGO (AP)—Pudgy Bob Rosburg put his duffer-like golf swing to work for a 32-35-67 Friday to leap ahead in Tam O'Shanter's money stampee with a searing 36-hole total of 133—11 strokes under par.

The bespectacled Palo Alto, Calif., pro, who couldn't even qualify for last year's "world" tournament, created a new, longer-shafted driver for his sensational 68-67 rounds.

"I'm driving the best in my life with this new club," said the 28-year-old non-conformist. He uses an "unlabeled" baseball grip and unwinds with a swing that has been dubbed "home-made." Gets Results

"It may not be pretty but it gets results," laughed Rosburg, who has won $15,000 on the PGA circuit this year. "Guess I'm swinging just the same as when I was two and told me to go ahead and hit a golf ball."

The former Stanford University golfer and baseball second baseman—a tourney pro since April, 1953—started off his second round with a one-over-par 5 after being trapped.

He birdied the long second by reaching the green in two shots. Then, starting with the fifth, he fired three straight birdie 3s with putts of 12, 10 and 25 feet.

Rosburg's booming 290-yard drives set up easy birdie 4s on the 9th and 10th as he birdied the 150-yard 11th by gluing a six-iron two feet from the pin.

See Shot Hooked
His second over-par hole came on the 215-yard 16th where he hooked his tee shot. He salvaged par on the 17th with a stiff chip after overshooting the green, and. (Cont'd. next page.)

Dials Pitches 5 to 3 Victory

Frailey Smacks 16th Home Run in Contest

LEWISTON (Special)—The Salem Senators ran their Northwest League winning streak to four in a row here Friday night by taking a 5-3 victory over the Lewiston Broncs in the first game of their series.

Bill Dials went the route for the Senators for his 13th victory. He hurled an eight-hitter and shut out the Broncs after the fourth inning.

See-Saw Start
Salem got off to a 2-0 start in the first off Bill Franks, but Lewiston tied it in the second. Then in the fourth Lewiston went ahead on a single by Franks and Joe Jacob's triple.

Salem tied it in the fifth when a walk and Mel Krause's single, on which an outfield error was made, were turned into a run.

The Senators went ahead to stay in the sixth when Don Frailey smashed his 16th home run of the season with nobody on base. Steingale Triples

An insurance run was added in the ninth when Jack Steingale slammed a 406-foot triple and scored on Ron King's single.

The Senator's first two runs came as a result of a hit batter (Krause) and singles by Jack Dunn and Floyd Robinson.

Lewiston threatened in the ninth when Bob Williams singled with runners on first and second. Jacobs rounded third as if to score, but turned back suddenly. Joe Riney rounded second too far and when he tried to get back, Frailey's throw to Gene Tanselli cut him off for the final out.

Salem Girls Softball '9'

KLAMATH FALLS—(Special)—The Salem Merchants, girls softball team, defeated the defending state champion Klamath Falls girls team here Friday night in the state girls softball tourney.

Earlier Friday, Salem defeated the Albany girls, 4 to 1. The Salem ladies bopped Klamath Falls, 7 to 3.

Marge Hurley was the hurling star in both games for Salem. In the Albany tilt, Marge yielded four hits. The offensive attack for Salem was led by Betty Schroeder, who smacked a triple, double and single in three times-at bat.

In the Klamath Falls contest, Marge gave up eight hits in a game that was highlighted by a seventh inning homer, with two on, by Leona Hass of Salem. The Klamath Falls team was favored to win the tourney again.

Salem thus enters the semi-finals here and Saturday night will play Oswego at 8:30 p.m. at Jem Field. Albany 102 000 0-1 4 2

Salem Barracks No. 113, Veterans of World War I will have a "night" at Waters Field Wednesday, August 17, when the Salem Senators are playing the Spokane Indians in the final game of their series here.

Highlighting the entertainment for the special occasion will be Miss Mary Jane Wait, of Ritzkreal, the champion baton twirler of the Northwest. The entertainment, which will include other features also, is to start at 7:45 p. m.

A special section of the grandstand will be roped off for the members of the Barracks, and tickets may be secured at the Rialto Coffee Shop, 475 State St.

Revenue from all ticket sales for the "night" will go to the Senators Baseball Club.

Steeler Boss Sights 49ers

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Pittsburgh Steeler Coach Walt Kiesling expressed respect but no fear for the San Francisco 49ers in advance of their National Football League exhibition game here at 8:15 p. m. PDT Saturday.

Kiesling said injuries reduced his squad by two players: Dan McBride, an end from Iowa, and Dewey McConnell, Wyoming halfback. The Steelers lost 35-24 to the Los Angeles Rams last Saturday at Portland, Ore.

The 49ers last week squeezed out a 7-6 win over the Washington Redskins in an exhibition. They are expected to take on added strength with the return of ace halfback, Hurrying Hugh McElhenney, to full duty. He saw only brief action in the Redskins game because of a shoulder injury last year.

Army, Navy Game Talked

CHICAGO (AP)—Army and Navy may play in any post-season football game, a congressman told the Football Writers Assn. of America Friday.

Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La.) of New Orleans said top level approval had been granted for both service teams to play in a bowl game, if invited. Navy played in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans Jan. 1.

Hebert said Air Force Secretary Talbott, before his recent resignation, also gave approval for the new Air Force Academy to play in post-season games when that branch is ready for competition.

It was through Hebert's efforts that Navy got to play in the Sugar Bowl last New Year's Day. The Middies blanked Mississippi, 21-0. Hebert told the writers Coach Red Blaik of Army agreed to play the Cadets in future bowl games.

Olson to Box Classy Youth

PORTLAND (AP)—Middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson faces his first test Saturday night since his knockout defeat by lightweight titlist Archie Moore.

He meets Jimmy Martinez, a classy, durable boxer from Glendale, Ariz., in a 10-round non-title scrap here. The fight, first of three Olson has scheduled as warmups for a championship defense against Sugar Ray Robinson in November, will go on about 9 p. m.

Olson has appeared mean and determined in workouts here this week, and those who watched them in the gymnasium gave the 25-year-old Martinez little chance for an upset.

Formidable Foe
Nevertheless Martinez, who had a record of 55 wins, 13 losses and 4 draws through last year, was considered so formidable a foe that some 10,000 fans were expected to turn out at Multnomah Stadium. The fight will be telecast to some California points but not to the Pacific Northwest.

Martinez has beaten such fighters as Bobby Dykes, Del Flanagan and Joe Micelli and has fought, in losing decisions, Willie Pastrano, Bobby Jones and Ramon Fuentes. But he has scored only 19 knockouts and there was doubt that he has the wallop and stamina to stay with the tireless Olson.

The 27-year-old champion from Honolulu and San Francisco seemed as sharp and fiery as he did in running up a streak of 20 victories before the heavier Moore belted him out in three rounds.

Olson said he was not underestimating Martinez, whose style was compared by observers to that of Rocky Castellani. Olson had to get off the floor to decision Castellani in a 15-round title bout at San Francisco Aug. 20, 1954.

Martinez hopes to catch Olson coasting on a rebound from the Moore pounding. He is not ignoring the fact that the champion has scheduled fights with Joey Giambra in San Francisco Aug. 26 and with Bobby Dykes at Miami Sept. 21 before the Robinson match.

Olson's rich purses of the past two years will be swelled by $10,000 guaranteed for this fight.

Portland (AP)—The Portland Baseball Club Friday signed a 26-year contract with Multnomah Civic Stadium officials, allowing the Braves to play their home games in the Pacific Coast League at the stadium starting in the 1956 season.

Negotiations for the lease began early this year. The ball club agreed to pay annual rental of $35,000 or ten per cent of its gross receipts, whichever is more.

The old Vaughn Street park has been Portland's home field for many years.

runs in the last of the second inning, to take a brief lead. Ed Mickelson's homer was the big blow in Portland's rally.

It was Bradford's ninth victory of the season against four losses. Carl Scheib, who replaced Bill Werle in the second, took the loss for Portland.

The Seattle Rainiers gave Manager Fred Hutchinson a welcome birthday present at his 36th birthday celebration Friday night, a 13-5 hitless victory over Hollywood at Seattle. The win moved the Rainiers three games ahead of the second place Stars.

game of the series against San Diego at Los Angeles. Jim Brown received credit for his 12th victory of the season but needed help in the sixth from Turk Lown. Lloyd Dickey batted out in the third by the Angels.

Tennis Tilts Washed Away
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A bantam cloudburst Friday washed out the opening singles matches of the Australia-Italy interzone Davis Cup final and thereby caused problems galore.

The big question facing tennis officials at the ancient Germantown Cricket Club is: What happens if it rains again Saturday? Weather permitting, the first two singles, pitting Lew Hoad against Fausto Gardini and Ken Rosewall against Nicola Pietrangeli, will be held.

Hurricane Connie was reported heading for the New Jersey-Pennsylvania area. If it reaches here, any chance of playing, of course, is out.

There was talk of putting the whole thing off until next weekend until Aussie Captain Harry Hopman appeared on the scene.

Cascade Wins Softy Crown

Cascade Meats is the new champion of the city Industrial softball league. The team last night at Phillips Field downed Ray & Wilma's, 5 to 4.

Winning hurler was Sandy Potter, who allowed six hits, as did the losing twirler, Warren Miller. Cascade scored four runs in the first innings on three hits and two errors. The winning tally came in the third inning, when Chaddick was hit by a Miller pitched ball and scored on a single by V. Potter.

Ray and Wilma's also got four runs in the first frame on a double by Chuck Pullman, a walk and three singles. The team never scored again.

The game, after the first inning, was pretty much of a hurler's duel. L. Busby made a spectacular catch for Cascade of a long line drive to save the day for the winners in the sixth inning. The well-hit ball was tagged by Emery Alderman.

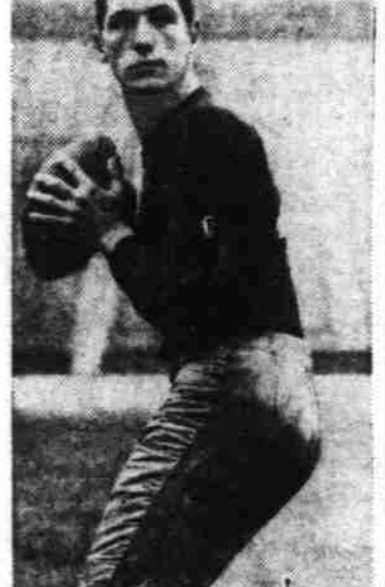

The gam marked finis to industrial League softball activity this season. The tussle was witnessed by approximately 200 fans. Cascade 401 000 0-5 6 2
