

Miss Lorene Edwards is Married

Pink gladioluses and purple delphinium banked the altar of the First Presbyterian Church Saturday night for the wedding of Miss Lorene Ellise Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Edwards of Turner, and James R. Quick, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Quick of Castle Rock, Wash.

Dr. Paul Newton Poling officiated at the 8 o'clock rites. Miss Sharon Anderson sang and Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist. Miss Janice Siddall of Portland and Miss Elizabeth Tate of Sublimity lighted the candles.

The bride's gown, which was made by her mother, was of lace and tulle over satin. The lace bodice, embellished with crystal beads, was designed with a sweetheart neckline. The skirt was of nylon tulle over satin and enhanced with cutout roses applied on the side panels and around the train. Her short, nylon tulle veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of Esther Reed daisies centered with pink rosebuds.

Walk Before the Bride

Four attendants preceded the bride to the altar, wearing crystal-embellished frocks with long torso bodices. The matron of honor, Mrs. Ted Stook, wore tulip pink and the bridesmaids, Miss Lora Lee Brown, Miss Sally Klein and Mrs. Dave Teyema, wore Italian purple dresses. Mrs. Stook carried a purple fan with pink and purple daisies and the bridesmaids' fans were pink adorned with purple and pink daisies.

Robert Radakovich stood with Mr. Quick as best man and ushers were Gene Flippin, Lennie Edwards, William Swift and Donald Taylor.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Edwards chose a champagne lace gown with avocado accessories and pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Quick wore an aqua crepe gown with white accessories and corsage of pink carnations for her son's marriage.

Reception Follows

A reception followed in the social hall. Pouring were Mrs. Arthur Edwards, the bride's grandmother, and Mrs. John Seim. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Nobel Deebert, the bridegroom's aunt, and Mrs. Ella Given, grandmother of the bride. Assisting were Mrs. Robert Purdy, Misses Dona Given, Jeannette Siddall, Diana Watson, Tamara Needham. Passing the dream cakes were Ronnie Stock, nephew of the bride, and Beverly Quick, sister of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds have gone to Victoria, B. C. on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride donned a black and white sheath dress with white top coat and hat and black patent accessories.

The couple will be at home at 718 East Lincoln Ave., Hillsboro, after September 10. Mr. Quick will coach at Aloha-Huber Junior High School and his wife will be secretary to the principal of Beaverton High School.

Death or divorce disrupted 1,076,000 U.S. families in 1954.

SCANDINAVIAN FOODS?

Get Your Recipe Books Krumkake Irons Aebleskiver Irons Rosette Irons Swedish Glass Norwegian Coffee Spoons Danish Dishes at

Inga's and Aage's

108 N. Water Street, Silverton Write for prices

Mrs. James R. Quick (Lorene Ellise Edwards) who was married August 20 at the First Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Edwards of Turner and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Quick of Castle Rock, Wash. (Jesten-Miller Studio).

Hostesses to Entertain for Miss Woods

Miss Charlen Woods, popular August bride-elect of Dale Cooley of Albany, is being feted at a round of parties prior to her marriage next Sunday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. James B. Manning, Mrs. Leslie Wadsworth and her daughter, Miss Karen Michelson, will be hostess for a pre-nuptial party Wednesday evening at the Wadsworth home on North 14th Street.

The affair will be held in the garden and late refreshments will be served by the hostesses following the kitchen shower. Thirty-five guests have been invited to the party.

Miss Mary Lee Flower of Sunnyside, Wash., who will be Miss Woods' maid of honor, will entertain at luncheon and a linen shower for the pleasure of the bride-elect and a few of her friends on Thursday. The affair will be held at Lipman's Cherry Room.

Millers to Chicago

Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Miller will entrain for Chicago on the City of Portland Monday. Mr. Miller will attend a meeting of the executive council of the National Interscholastic Music Activities Commission in the Hilton Hotel. He is the representative from the Pacific Northwest states on this commission. On the return trip the Millers will stop over in Denver to visit their son A/2c Charles Eugene Miller, who is a radar instructor in the B47 school at Lowry Air Base. They will return to Salem August 31.

WCTU Convention day, August 26 at the Leslie Methodist Church beginning at 11 a.m. A covered dish luncheon convention is scheduled for Friday will be served at noon.

STUDENTS! Put the INK in the pen... NOT the PEN in the ink!

Pull off cap, unscrew point holder, drop cartridge into barrel...replace point holder...and WRITE!

YOU NEVER DIP IT IN INK!

★ TRANSPARENT CARTRIDGES. VISIBLE INK SUPPLY.

PEN with 2 cartridges

$2.95

Pen with matching pencil and 4 cartridges, $4.95.

Extra Skrip cartridges in handy 5-PACK. Seven popular colors. 49¢ pack of 5 cartridges.

New SHEAFFER'S Fineline CARTRIDGE PEN

Unlike any pen ever offered at this price! Gives you true pen point writing PLUS convenience of mess-proof cartridge filling! No more messy ink bottles! Just pop a transparent Sheaffer's Skrip cartridge into the barrel... and write! Points tipped with precious metal for satin smooth writing.

Cooke STATIONERY COMPANY Phone 3-4404 370 STATE ST. SALEM, ORE.

Garden Reception Follows the Davis-Williams Rites Saturday

MT. ANGEL—A late summer wedding, followed by a garden reception, was that of Miss Farrell Lillian Williams, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Williams of Mt. Angel, and Robert W. Davis, son of Mrs. Margaret Davis, Salem, on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. Clement Frank, Mt. Angel, read the vows and was celebrant for the nuptial mass in St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Mike Penner and David Schmidt served the mass and Mrs. Al Schroeder of Salem and Miss Eustelle Bauman of Mt. Angel sang. Miss Helen Keber was the organist.

The bride chose a floor length gown of nylon tulle over misted taffeta, the portrait neckline outlined in imported Italian lace. A matching lace headdress, embroidered in sequins and seed pearls held her fingertip veil. Her cascade bouquet was fashioned of white Elf roses and stephanotis. She wore white wrist gloves and carried the bridegroom's gift, a sterling and crystal rosary.

Maid of honor was Miss Betsy Looney of Brooks and bridesmaids were Miss Helen McGee, Santa Monica, Calif., and Miss Toni Williams, the bride's sister.

Gowns of the Attendants All were dressed alike in embroidered nylon organdy over porcelain blue with ballerina skirts. Matching flower crowns held tiny veils and each wore a single strand of pearls and wrist gloves, gifts of the bride. They carried small cascades of gardenias surrounded by a blue fluff of net.

Mrs. Williams attended the wedding in a beige dress of raw silk, beige hat, brown accessories and a corsage of garnet roses. The groom's mother chose a blue linen dress embroidered in white, white stole and accessories and a corsage of garnet roses.

The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Dan Thorp of Mt. Angel, and great-grandmother, Mrs. Otto Schaubel, Salem, and the bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams, of Alhambra, California, were present for the rites.

Hugh Clark Hyndman was best man for the groom and groomsmen were James Dardis and David Given, both Salem. The ushers were Francis Platz, Roy Palmer, Mt. Angel and Michael Curulla, Seattle.

A wedding breakfast was served in the Mt. Angel hotel to the bridal party and the two families. Serving were Miss Anita Wilde, Miss Maxine Geck and Miss Charlotte Kintz.

After the breakfast, the bride and her husband went to the chapel of Mt. Angel Academy, her alma mater, where she pla-

Delta Gamma Picnic

The Delta Gamma alumnae will entertain their husbands and families at a no-host picnic on Sunday, August 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John William Stortz, 1567 Strong Road, at 2 o'clock. All Delta Gammans in the vicinity are invited to attend. Assisting Mrs. Stortz with arrangements are Mrs. Leon Margosian and Mrs. Joseph Matujec.

ced a spray of white gladioluses and larkspur at the Blessed Virgin altar.

A Garden Reception

The reception was held on the patio and lawn of the Williams home on Pershing street.

Mrs. John O. Hyndman, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Richard Wilkie, Seattle, godmother of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Ellery Berry, Portland and Mrs. Robert Crowell, Salem, poured.

Miss Janet Cobalt, Sweet Home, Miss Carol Rickert, Portland, Miss Mary Virginia Schmidt, Miss Judy White, Portland, Miss Helen Allen, Oswego, Miss Patricia Wagner, Mt. Angel, Miss Rose Gaul, Miss Beth Reiter, Salem, Mrs. Allie Schmidt, Miss Carol Wachter, Mt. Angel, Miss Jeanette Wavra, Salem, Mrs. Victor Hoffer, Misses Shirley Schlecht, Geraldine Gooding and Margie Schwab assisted.

Following a wedding trip South, Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home in Seattle after September 1. For her trip the bride wore a beige suit, white hat and gloves and green accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. Angel Academy and attended Portland University and her husband graduated from Mt. Angel Prep and is now a senior in Seattle University.

The label that brings you serious fashion at fun prices! Popular new styles in exciting textures! So popular for your Back-to-School Wardrobe.

Various Prices

Miller's

Miller's BACK TO COLLEGE BLOUSES

Tailored to taste... the prettiest blouses we've seen this season... some classic in concept, some dramatic... all styled with College and you in mind. Come see our selection featuring—

PEEK-A-BOO yoke of nylon marquisette and tucked faille is dramatic accent on Morlove's dressy costume blouse of "Moro-Tishu" faille. Elegant and appropriate to wear from first class to last... always in perfect taste. Attractive colors of Navy, White, and Rose. $11.95

MORLOVE

America's Cozyest Blouse

GRACIOUS LADY in finest opaque nylon tricot. Morlove puts soft, slimming diagonal pleats in yoke formation. The flattering bow tab collar is caught with double row pearl ornament and pearl button finish front. Washable of course, and needs no ironing. Colors of Navy, Magenta, and L. Blue. $9.95

BUTTONED BOWNOT puts soft petals of luxurious "Silk Treasure" at your neckline. It's Morlove's elegant hand washable textured pure silk in a dressy blouse that has fly-front, cuffed sleeves and an air of sophistication. In Pink, Blue, Olive, and Toupe for only $11.95

You will find Everything for the College-Minded in Our Sportswear Dept. 2nd. Floor

Miller's

"The Best Place to Shop... After All"

Super Ricohflex

- 3.5 Lens
- 1/10th to 1/200th Shutter Speeds
- Flash Shutter is Fully Synchronized
- Takes 12 Pictures on 620 Film

• Fully Guaranteed

• Accessory Back Available for Adaption to 35 mm.

Amazingly Priced at Only... $29.50

Budget Terms

Salem's Kodak Dealer

ARTZ Photography

325 Court St. Ph. 2-4716