SPORTSLIGHTNER

Sunday sorties:

Spokane Indians Mgr. Eddie Lake should hire OCE's Dr. Bob Livingston to follow him around during the baseball seasons. It might do wonders for the mighty mite of the Tribe, who not so long ago played plenty of shortstop for the Detroit Tigers. Bob was in town Wednesday night for the ball game and saw Lake powder one of Bud Francis' serves for a home run. After the game the Monmouth mentor told that on four straight previous occasions, all at Detroit when Lake was with the Tigers, Eddie had hit home runs "I've seen him play in only five games, and he's homered in all five," revealed Livingston, adding, "He could use me on his bench" . . . Livingston and OCE grid boss John Chamberlain, who's subbing for Bill McArthur this year, haven't been idle during the summer. They spent considerable time finding their way back to civilization recently, after attempting to track down a football prospect in the Silverton hills. They had been told that a young husky of 6-feet, 6-inches in height and 240 pounds in weight had moved into the hills to the east, and that he was on the verge of going to college. "We spent three days and nights looking for the lad," confesed Chamberlain, "but all we got was lost. A fellow needs a compass, radar and three bloodhounds in those hills, believe me. If the kid is up there, he's probably lost too" . . . One would think that the prime objective in young Mary Jane Wait's life at present would be to win the national baton twirling championship at St. Paul, Minn., next January. Which would be okeh with the artistic Rickreall kid, whose talent with the baton was exhibited (and thoroughly enjoyed by all) at Waters Field the other night. But what Mary Jane wants to do most of all, we're told, is to become the No. 1 majorette of either the U of Oregon or Oregon State College bands after she finishes prep school. She's already good enough with the whirling stick to be given an athletic scholarship at either place . . .

MARY JANE WAIT
Would be rah-rah majorette.

The Rocky Marciano-Moore fistic biggie of September 20 will be TV'd in Oregon, but not in your living rooms. Both the Liberty and Roxy Theaters in Portland are to show the fight, via direct television, and it will amount to the first time the state has had a direct televised heavyweight championship fight in a theater.

But don't get the idea that an ordinary show ticket will get you in on the party. The ducats will cost $6.00, $5.00 and $3.50. Which is more than some of the winning bangtails will pay off at the mutuel windows during Leo Spitzbart's extravaganza earlier next month at Lone Oak Track.

Speaking of the racing ponies, latest Caliente Future Book odds on the forthcoming Swaps vs. Nashua match (August 31) has the California great at 1-2 and Nashua at 8-5. Get a quiniela on 'em and you can't loss . . .

South Salem Arena Gets New Scoreboard Too

It's costing St. Elmo Massengale of the local Coca Cola Bottling Co. a cool $4,000 to install it, but South Salem High's brand new football stadium will be equipped with a modern, electric scoreboard for the coming campaign. The board, parked at the east end of the field, will be 18 feet wide and 10½ feet tall. It will have everything on it but what play the quarterback should call next . . .

We had hoped that Thursday night's 75-yard dash at the ball yard would determine the speed championship for the Senators club. But it fizzled and fell flat. Not because Lewiston's Joe Jacobs nosed out Salem's Floyd Robinson for the win in the "75," but because so many of the swift members of the local clan refused to run in it. Bill Shields claimed he had a bad leg. Bill Whitson was pitching that night and didn't want to extend himself. Bill Dials backed off entirely and both Gene Tanselli and Mel Krause figured they were too old for the romp. Phooey!

Needless to say, where Shields, Robinson, Tanselli, Krause, Whitson, Dunn, Agosta, Frailey and Dials to got at it in a match, it would be right interesting. All can run, fast. Thursday night's first prize obviously wasn't enough to interest some of the local dandies . . .

Only Eight More Games on Home Schedule

Not much left on the Senators' home schedule. Eight games to be exact, plus those which will come with the post-season playoffs. Yakima is here August 27-28, with a twin bill on the 28th, Wenatchee is in August 29-30-31 and Tri-City closes it all out with a September 5 (Labor Day) double- header.

The Senators have to date lured slightly more than 57,000 customers this campaign, in 57 home games. Thus for their total if they retain the "thousand-per" average, the total will be around 64,000.

This is a far cry from the 100,000 each club aims for at the start of any season, but it's still enough to show a favorable operation here for '55. Fact is, the organization this year may show a profit. Which has been a thoroughly extinct animal in the Waters Field premises for the past seven straight years . . .

Mat Nasties Again Collide For NW Title Here Tuesday

The nasties go at it again Tuesday night at the Armory in Matchmaker Elton Owen's mat main event, a rematch of last week's "all-meanie" tag scrap for the Northwest championship trophy. Monacled Kurt von Poppenheim and Catalina George Drake get another whack at the title held by Ivan (Killer) Kamaroff and Dirty Douglas Donovan.

Kurt and George won via disqualification over the other pair in their first mix, as Referee Gory Guerrero reversed his verdict at the conclusion of the fracas. It was a good thing that he did, for the fans were well on their way to storming the ring to get at the villainous Ivan and Douglas.

A technicality prevented "Poppy" and his pal from snatching the trophy, for no mat title can change hands on a disqualification.

Usually von Poppenheim and Drake are just as hootable as any other rasslin' varmint at the Armory. But when up against the hated Kamaroff and Donovan, "Poppy" and George find themselves the peoples' choices. A mighty unusual role for them.

3-of-5 Falls

Owen figures the rematch will be a bloody bristler, for it has two important rules. (1) There will be no disqualification in this one and (2) instead of the usual 2-of-3 falls, the rematch will be best three of five falls, the first time such a long mat brawl has been installed here.

Extra ringside guards will be on hand to keep the battle within the ring premises as much as possible.

The prelim card: 8:30 opener, one fall, Gory Guerrero vs. John Arjon. Semiwindup, 1 fall, Luigi Macera vs. Henry (Muscles) Lenz.

Owen has not yet decided on a referee, but wants the best available. Things are apt to be right rough during the main event.

Santee Defeats Dwyer With Slow Mile Time

TORONTO (AP) — Wes Santee, the lean mile flyer now competing in the colors of the U. S. Marines, came from behind in the last 220 yards Saturday to beat Fred Dwyer and England's Gordon Pirie in a slow 4:11.1 mile on a sweltering hot day.

The thermometer hit 95 degrees, dulling the incentive of the four runners in the special feature race of the fourth annual Legion Day Track and Field Competition at Varsity Stadium.

Not So Wild Pitch

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Bill Greason, Houston pitcher, executed a rare play in a Texas League game here by making an unassisted putout at the plate on a runner trying to score on a wild pitch.

Here's how it happened. With a man on third Greason uncorked a wild heave which sailed over the catcher's head. As the runner headed for home, the ball hit the grandstand railing on the fly and caromed back to Greason who was dashing to cover home plate. Greason caught the rebound and tagged the sliding player for the out.

Yankees Whip Orioles, 3-2

Phillies Again Top Brooklyn Club, 3-2

scored five runs in the 12th inning for a 14-9 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Cincinnati Reds chased over three runs in the 7th inning to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 7-4 in another night tilt.

Indians Falter

The Indians jumped out in front of the Athletics 3-0 in the first inning but couldn't hold it as the A's battled back with Hector Lopez's fifth-inning homer knotting the count at five all.

Ted Williams hit his 22nd homer for the Red Sox but his mates could do little with Ramos' offerings. The Senators beat Willard Nixon for the third time this season. He has lost only seven while winning 12.

The switching-pitching strategy of Baltimore Manager Paul Richards backfired in the Yankee game when Elston Howard doubled home the vital two runs in the fourth.

Howard Doubles

With the Orioles leading 2-1, runners at second and third, one out and Howard, a righthanded batter up, Richards moved starting lefthander Bill Wight to first base and called on righthanded Bill Zuverink to pitch.

Howard promptly lashed a double to left center to score the tying and winning runs. Wight, who yielded only five hits, returned to the mound in the fifth inning and went the rest of the way. Wight was charged with his fifth loss.

Lefty Tommy Byrne pitched five hit ball for seven innings to rack up his 12th win against three losses. He retired after the seventh because of the 90-degree plus heat and Bob Grim and Gary (Rip) Coleman finished up.

Trailing 7-4, the White Sox scored two in the seventh and two more in the eighth to nose out the Tigers. Singles by Nelly Fox, Jim Rivera and Kell in the eighth produced the winning run.

Kell Belts Ball

Kell sent his five runs in with two doubles, a single and a sacrifice fly. Fox and Rivera each collected four hits in the 18-hit assault on four Tiger hurlers.

Crone and outfielder Henry Aaron were the big guns in Milwaukee's fourth straight victory. The 24-year-old righthander set down the Cubs in order from the third through the seventh inning to record his eighth win against seven losses. Aaron drove in five runs with a single, double and a bases-loaded triple.

See-Saw Game

Dick Littlefield's wildness opened the gates for the Giants in the 12th inning of a see-saw contest. A single, sacrifice and a wild pitch put Giants on second and third.

After intentionally walking Sid Gordon to fill the bases, Littlefield forced in two runs with successive walks to Don Mueller and Hank Thomson. Vernon Law then was rapped for three more runs on singles by Wayne Terwilliger and Bobby Hofman.

Roberts vs. Newk

The Phils scored all the runs off Johnny Podres in the last of the eighth. Stan Lopata hit a two-run homer to tie the score. Then Andy Seminick doubled and scored on Glen Gourbous' single.

The Dodgers got two men on with two out in the top of the ninth when Bob Miller was relieved by Robin Roberts, who beat the league leaders 3-2 Friday night. Don Newcombe was sent up to pinch hit for Clem LaBine.

Roberts whizzed two strikes past the Brooklyn pitcher before forcing him to ground out. Roberts personally made the putout.

Joe Nuxhall, who was blasted from Friday night's game in the first inning, came back after Joe Black had been driven to cover in the first to pitch the Redlegs to a 7-4 victory over St. Louis. The Reds broke the 4-4 deadlock in the seventh when Chuck Harmon and Rocky Bridges singled after the bases had been loaded on walks.

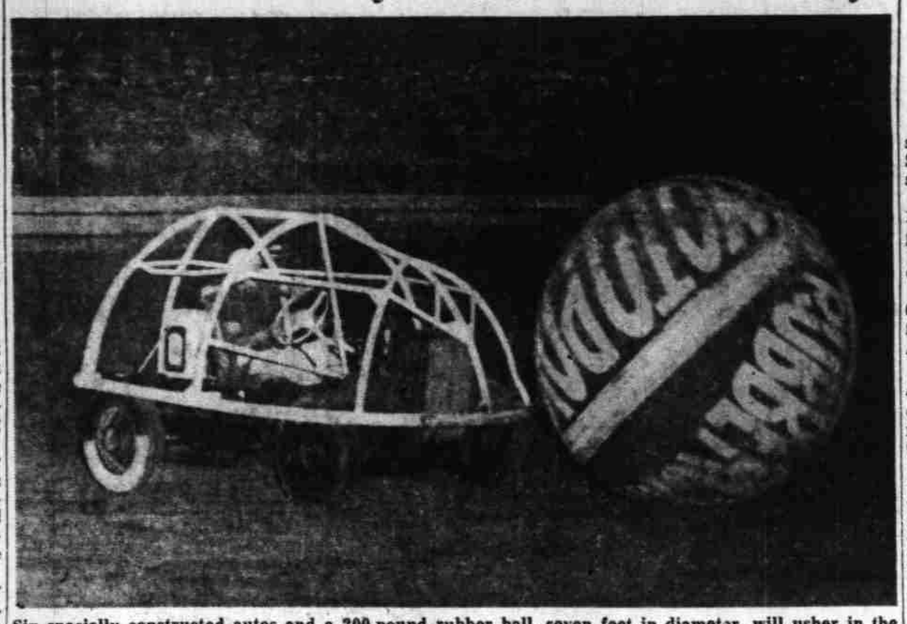
Moto-Polo on Hollywood Bowl Menu Friday



Six specially constructed autos and a 200-pound rubber ball, seven feet in diameter, will usher in the first Moto-Polo game at Hollywood Bowl Friday night of this week. Object of the game, which is played in four quarters and with a referee, is to push the ball through opponents' goal at each end of the field. Each side is made up of three cars, driven by race pilots. (See story below.)

Palmer Captures Canadian Crown

TORONTO (AP)—Arnold Palmer, who deserted the simon pure ranks a year ago after winning the 1954 U. S. Amateur title, had his first big pay day as a professional Saturday as he won the Canadian Open golf title with a near record 265—the second lowest score in the 46-year history of the tournament.

The 25-year-old ex-Coast Guardsman from LaTrobe, Pa., toured the final 18 holes of the Weston Golf Course Club in two-under par 70 to smash par for the 72 holes by 23 strokes. He took the lead at the half-way mark and steadily pulled away with sub par performances.

The 5-11 170-pound son of a LaTrobe pro beat back the closing challenge of Red Hawkins of St. Andrews, Ill., and Jackie Burke Jr., of Kiamesha Lake, N. Y. to win by four strokes.

The only better score ever turned in by a winner of the Canadian Open was 263 by Johnny Palmer of Baden, N. C. (no relation), who carded a 263 at Winnipeg in 1952.

Burke shot a 69 for a 4-round total of 269.

Krause Hurls 11-1 Victory

Williams, which made seven of the nine tallies unearned. Biggest wallop of the inning was Jack Steinagel's three-run double off the right field wall.

Krause tripled to start the surge and later picked up a single off Reliefer Warren Cox. Agosta's double figured heavily in the scoring also.

The Senators had quite a day with the willow, banging out 15 hits.

Although he's done bits of relief work this season, Krause notched his first victory Saturday.

Cast Partners All Tied Up

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Gilbert Weiss, a fishery technician for the Missouri Conservation Commission, says he and his wife became fishing partners through one of those once-in-a-million oddities.

The first time they went fishing, he baited her line with a minnow, then went upstream to do some casting.

"I've got one," he yelled.

"Me too," said his wife.

Both were hooked into the same 12-inch bass.

Klamath Falls Discus Ace Nabs First Place

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — William Badorek of Klamath Falls, Ore., took first place in the men's discus event at the B. C. senior track meet here Saturday. Badorek threw the discus 143 feet 7½ inches.

Vern Iverson of Snohomish, Wash., came out on top in the men's javelin with a throw of 170 feet 4 inches. Runner-up was Charles Lauver of Seattle.

Martin Has a Way

FORT CARSON, Colo. (AP) — Billy Martin, former Yankee infielder whose hit won the 1953 World Series from the Dodgers, is still winning championships while in the Army.

The playing-manager of the Fort Carson club led his team to a 17-7 win over Worland at Worland, Wyo., for the Rocky Mountain Invitational title. Martin hit a home run with two on base to highlight an eight-run uprising.

Dual Program Set at Bowl

Hollywood Bowl thrill-seekers will have a dual program this week, Valley Sports officials have announced shows for both Friday and Saturday nights, with a new novelty occupying the spotlight the former night.

It's "Moto Polo," a fast-moving and spectacular game which is played with a large, 7-foot rubber ball and six specially constructed autos which are surrounded by protective roll bars and large bumpers, and are driven by race pilots.

With three cars on each side, the drivers attempt to bump, push and roll the ball through goals at each end of the field. "Anything goes" rules prevail, and it is not uncommon to see the mounts roll over as much as does the huge ball.

This sport originated in southern California and has been popularly acclaimed in other Northwest cities in which it has been played during the current season.

The stockcars take over the bowl Saturday night for their season championship race card, full details of which will be announced by Valley Sports officials later in the week.

Grimm Comment

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Manager Charley Grimm of the Milwaukee Braves says he hasn't given up on Danny O'Connell, the infielder the club paid a reported $75,000 to obtain from the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1953.

O'Connell was benched during a recent Braves-Pirates series here. He was hitting only .229 clip but Grimm said O'Connell is "having one of those years that come to all players. He has wonderful spirit and I don't think this will get him down."

Ed Oldfield Gains Lead at Roseburg

ROSEBURG, Ore. (AP) — Ed Oldfield, 22-year-old host professional, took over first place in the Roseburg Open golf tournament Saturday after Friday's leader, Tom Boucher of Walla Walla, slipped to a 72.

Boucher's Saturday score was 10 strokes over his first round and gave him a 36-hole total of 134.

Oldfield, who had an opening 67, carded 66 Saturday for 133.

Bob Duden, Portland pro, shot 69 Saturday after a first round 66 for third place with 135.

40 Men Qualify

These were the leaders as the 40 qualifiers prepared for Sunday's closing 36 holes in the $2,000 pro-money tourney. It took 151 or better to qualify.

Senior professionals and amateurs also play 18 holes Sunday with the pros playing for a special $200 purse. Joe Mozel, Portland, was leading them with 148. Dick Burns, Coos Bay, and Marvin Clark, Grants Pass, led the other amateurs tied at 158.

In the regular tourney Eddie Hogan and Tom Marlowe, both Portland, followed Duden with 140s.

Mason Shoots 142

Woody Ball, Portland, led the amateurs with 141. Tied with him was Wendell Wood, Eugene pro, on rounds of 72 and 69.

Tied at 142 were professionals Bunny Mason of Salem, 71-71, and Al Feldman, Tacoma, 72-70.

Harold West of Eugene's Laurelwood County Club, was alone at 143 with rounds of 74 and 69.

Other scores included:

Ken Myers, Salem, 73-76—149.
Clark Good, Klamath Falls, 75-75—150.
Sid Milligan, Eugene, 77-74—151.
Bob Gasper, Cottage Grove, 75-76—151.
Paul Sundin, Salem, 79-74—153.
Bob Johnson, Eugene, 76-78—154.
Don Bick, Coos Bay, 77-77—154.
Ken Omlid, Cottage Grove, 80-74—154.
Dan Strite, Portland, 75-80—155.
Hilding Norberg, Eugene, 79-76—155.
Abe Johnson, Eugene, 79-76—157.

Angler With Angle

WINDY HILL BEACH, S. C. (AP) — Danny Peddycord, a Winston-Salem, N. C., teenager, is claiming a record blue marlin catch. A record for the tackle used, that is.

Anglers at a pier here spotted the four-foot fugitive from the Gulfstream threshing around the pilings beneath them. They all tried to catch him.

Peddycord entered the battle by standing on a barnacle-encrusted piling support. From there he speared the marlin with a four-pronged pitchfork. After giving the fish time to die he dropped into the water and wrestled his prize to the beach.

Ken Carpenter Victory Spark

REGINA, Sask. (AP) — Sparked by Ken Carpenter's two touchdowns, Saskatchewan Roughriders opened the Western Interprovincial Football Union season Saturday night with a 17-7 victory over Winnipeg Blue Bombers before 13,500 fans.

Within three minutes after the opening gun, the Roughriders had counted two converted touchdowns.

Carpenter went four yards around right end for the first, and a minute later end Gord Sturtridge intercepted a lateral by Winnipeg quarterback Buddy Leake and ran 25 yards unmolested for the second major. Guard Reggie Whitehouse converted both.

Carpenter, a holdover import from the Cleveland Browns who led the Western Conference in touchdown passes last season, went over center four yards for the Riders' third TD in the third quarter following a 31-yard march. Whitehouse's conversion attempt was blocked.

Jim Konstanty, ace relief pitcher for the Yankees, was a four-sport star at Syracuse University—baseball, basketball, soccer and boxing.
