Hollywood Wins 2; Seals Stop Oakland

SEATTLE IM - Seattle's Pacific Coast League lead over Hollywood was trimmed to three games Sunday as the Seattle Rainiers lost a doubleheader to the Portland Beavers, 9-4 and 4-0.

Lou Kretlow of Seattle lost his first game of the season after 13 straight victories when Seattle was blanked by Royce Lint in the night-

In other PCL games, the San Francisco Seals climbed out of the cellar with a double win over Oakland, now in last place, 5-2 and 5-3. Red Munger notched his 19th win of the season and Joe Trimble just missed a shutout in the second game as Hollywood swept a coubleheader from Los Angeles by 2-1 scores in each Sacramento and San Diego split a doubleheader, the Solons taking the second game, 4-3, after losing the opener, 2-0.

A grand slam homer by Wally Westlake in the first inning helped Portland to its opening game victory. Homers in each game by State, Metro also helped.

Kretlow, trying for his 13th victory, gave up Portland's first run in the second inning of the afterpiece. Westlake singled, and went to second when centerfielder Bobby infield out, Frankie Austin singled Westlake home

A double by Luis Marquez and a single by Ed Mickelson brought sonally carried State to the Portland's second run in the fourth. In the seventh, Eggert homered, Lint doubled and Dick Whitman singled for Portland's final tallies, Westlake's grand-slam homer in the first inning put Portland on the victory path early in the first game. The base-cleaning blow sent Seattle starter Ewell Blackwell to the showers. Vic Lombardi finished up. Portland's southpaw Bill Werle kept Seattle in check, although the Rainiers pulled to a 6-4 deficit in triumph Balcena of Seattle homered in the sixth.
