Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When writing a letter of application for a position, should it be written by hand or typed?
A. A typewritten letter for this purpose is usually preferred. Unless, of course, you are answering an advertisement which specifies that letters be handwritten. Some firms base their initial interest on the applicants' handwriting.

Q. Is it necessary to repeat the name of a person to whom you have just been introduced, as, "How do you do, Mr. Johnson?"

A. This is very good form. It indicates that one has paid strict attention to the introduction and is more sincerely pleased at the meeting.

Q. If a young man is taking a girl out to dinner, should he ask her where she would like to eat?

A. This is not necessary. It is the man's privilege to decide beforehand where they are going.
