Charlotte Woods is Bride of Dale Cooley at Church Rites

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the scene of a beautiful late summer wedding Sunday afternoon when Miss Charlotte Lenore Woods became the bride of Dale Wilbur Cooley. Miss Woods is the daughter of Mrs. Arthur Willis Woods and the late Mr. Woods and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Cooley of Albany.

It was at 4 o'clock that the Rev. George H. Swift officiated at the nuptials before a setting of pink and white chrysanthemums. Ronald Craven was the vocalist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist. The acolytes were Patrick and Michael Kelley.

The exquisite blush pink imported Chantilly lace and tulle wedding gown was made by the bride. The lace bodice was enhanced with applique flowers of the lace edging the low neckline. The bouffant tulle skirt was fashioned with a cascading train from insets of pink Chantilly lace. Her fingertip illusion veil, caught to a pink lace headdress adorned with pink pearls, was made by her mother. She carried a bouquet of cream roses and lily-of-the-valley on her Job's Daughters Bible and over her arm was a pikaki lei, which had been flown over from Hawaii. Curt L. Hogan of Alameda, Calif., came north to give his niece in marriage.

Walk Before the Bride

Of bon bon pink crystalene were the ballerina frocks worn by the six attendants. The dresses were made with long torsos and they wore matching satin slippers and pink horsehair braid picture hats enhanced with a velvet bow and streamers in a deeper shade. They carried crescent colonials of pink gladioluses with rosebud centers and the honor attendant's bouquet and velvet streamers were of a deep fuchsia hue.

Miss Mary Lee Flower of Sunnyside, Wash., was the honor maid and the bridesmaids were Miss Sidney Shepard of Portland, formerly of Salem, Miss Marjan Parsons of Albany, cousin of the bride, Miss Carol Smith of St. Paul, Miss Patsy Snider and Miss Victoria Ward. Marcia Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Platt Davis, of Albany, was the flower girl and she wore a pink tiered nylon dotted Swiss frock. Ring bearers
