CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—A nervous peace settlement on the Gaza border Monday after Israel apologized to Egypt for a border violation committed "through a mistake."

Winners of Miss America Race Forecast

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS United Press Staff Correspondent ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UP)—I can spot a pretty girl at 300 paces, but when it comes to picking the winners, I have to lean on my old pal, Mall.

Mall Dodson, 6 feet 7 inches of man, has been focusing his orbs on the comings and goings of the Miss America Pageant, which opened with registration Monday, for more years than he'll admit.

Washington Highway Toll 2 for Holiday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Washington State's violent death toll rose to six late Monday night as the long Labor Day weekend drew to a close.

Two teenagers drowned in Seattle's Green Lake Monday afternoon and nearby Lake Washington claimed the lives of two persons, one Monday and one Saturday.

Drowned in Green Lake were Christine Rutledge, 15, of Seattle and Lee Morgan, 18, of Concrete. Witnesses said the boy called for help suddenly as he and the girl were swimming near a raft some 40 yards from shore.

Grandmother Vet Leases Farm Land

RUPERT, Idaho (AP)—An Ogdon grandmother—the first woman veteran to draw and claim a farm on the North Side irrigation project—has arrived to make plans for converting her project into a home.

She is Mrs. Eeva Adams of Merrill, Ore., who already is farming a veteran lease of 76 acres on the Tule Lake project near the Oregon-California border.

control entered the 6 by 30-mile Egyptian-held Gaza Strip. An Egyptian communique said the patrol, composed of 20 soldiers, began firing at midnight at Egyptian forces in Tabet El Assra.

The Egyptians returned the fire after having warned the Israelis to withdraw, the communique said. The clash came only a few hours after the U. N. truce commission had succeeded in ceasing fire in the Gaza area.

Renewed Plea In response to a renewed plea by Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, U. N. truce supervision chief, Egypt and Israel declared Sunday they were standing by their previous promises not to commit aggressive acts.

Accounts varied as to the casualties in Sunday night's clash. The Egyptians said four Israelis were killed, whereas no Egyptians were killed or wounded.

An Israeli army spokesman in Jerusalem said three Israeli soldiers were missing. Egypt turned over the bodies of two patrol members to Israel Monday.

Anxiety Expressed Israeli official circles expressed anxiety over the third Israeli soldier, said by the U. N. informants to be a prisoner of the Egyptians.

A spokesman for Egypt's Department of Information said Monday Burns had informed the Cairo government Israeli officials said the border crossing had occurred by mistake, and "Israeli authorities and soldiers of the patrol are sorry."

In Jerusalem, U. N. truce officials said Arthur Lourie, acting director of Israel's Foreign Ministry, had told Burns Sunday night's incident was "regrettable."

City and county officers were on the lookout early today for two young men who reportedly attacked a 13-year-old Salem girl Sunday night.

Police quoted the girl as saying she accepted a ride with the two men, who then drove her to a side road near Salem where both men criminally assaulted her.

She was then driven back to town, she told police, where the men released her. She had been with them approximately two hours.

The girl described her assailants as being "about 19 or 20 years old."

Grand Jury To Report on Negro Killing

GREENWOOD, Miss. (AP)—A grand jury will report Tuesday on its investigation of the fatal shooting of a Negro youth from Chicago.

Dist. Atty. Gerald Chatham said his most important witness before the jury Tuesday will be a Greenwood doctor who examined the body of 14-year-old Emmett Till before it was shipped to Chicago for burial.

Three days passed between the kidnapping of young Till and the discovery of a body identified as Till in the Tallahatchie River.

Meanwhile, heavily armed men guarded the two white men charged with kidnaping Till. Officers said they had received calls threatening action against Roy Bryant, 24-year-old resident of the Money community, and his half-brother J. W. Milam, 36, of Glendora, Miss.

The men are charged with forcing Till to go with them after the youth whistled at Mrs. Bryant in her husband's country store. Bryant and Milam claim they freed the boy later.

Only five of the injured were serious enough to remain in Bicyrus City Hospital for observation. They were to be released by Tuesday at the latest.

Streamliner Hits Freight

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad's crack Manhattan Limited streaked through the early morning Ohio haze at 70 miles an hour Monday and smashed into derailed cars of a freight train near here.

Twenty-six persons, most of them holiday travelers, were injured as the wreck sped cars into an oat field and ripped up 550 feet of the railroad's main line. There were about 200 passengers.

Only five of the injured were serious enough to remain in Bicyrus City Hospital for observation. They were to be released by Tuesday at the latest.

Veteran railroad wreck workers marvelled that there were no fatalities or serious injuries.

Russ Hand 3 Mystery Men Over to U.S.

BERLIN (AP)—Three mystery men returned to U.S. custody Monday night after seven years in Soviet captivity.

The Russians turned the trio over to American authorities at noon in East Berlin, acting on a request from the State Department based on reports received from other returnees.

No one here knows much yet about any of the three—why they were in Soviet hands for so long or how they got there.

The Russian method of delivering them was unusual. Soviet authorities notified the U.S. Army to come and get the men at their Karlshorst headquarters. A liaison team left by car from West Berlin to make the 10-mile trip.

But meanwhile, a U.S. State Department official went to the Soviet consulate to pick up a transit visa and was buttonholed by a Russian who said: "By the way, will you sign this receipt for these three Americans?"

California Makes Good Showing in Angus Fair Show

Although the reserve grand champion female of the Western Aberdeen-Angus Futurity Show was won by an Oregonian, Dale West of Merrill, a number of the first places were taken by California breeders.

A business meeting and banquet Monday night completed the Futurity, which occupied one of the top spots in the 90th Oregon State Fair Sunday and Monday. Male animals were judged Sunday.

West also placed first with his junior heifer calf and the senior heifer calf.

Other first places were taken by Hacienda de Los Reyes of Selma, Calif., who showed first senior yearling, and the grand champion female; Dimeragran Ranch Inc. of Sonoma, Calif., which won senior yearling; Rancheria Angus of Napa, Calif., junior yearling; Emerald Angus of Elk Grove, Calif., summer yearling.

Southern California 'Only' Records 99 Degrees Monday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The sun eased up a bit on scorched Southern California Monday. It was only 99 degrees here.

For the past five days it has been 101 or higher with last Thursday's 110 setting an all time record for Los Angeles.

The heat wave, which has cost crop and livestock growers millions, also has taken a heavy toll of human life.

The coroner's office listed 48 deaths as due primarily to heat in which heat was a heavily contributing factor. The office had to call in extra help Monday afternoon to handle the extra work.

In addition, the natural death rate has more than doubled since last Wednesday: 277, compared to 113 for the same period last year. The coroner's office said heat was a contributing factor in this increase.

In 1949 there were 60 million dollars worth of $10,000 bills in circulation.

Men Sought After Attack On Salem Girl

City and county officers were on the lookout early today for two young men who reportedly attacked a 13-year-old Salem girl Sunday night.

Police quoted the girl as saying she accepted a ride with the two men, who then drove her to a side road near Salem where both men criminally assaulted her.

She was then driven back to town, she told police, where the men released her. She had been with them approximately two hours.

The girl described her assailants as being "about 19 or 20 years old."

Officers said the girl told them she was walking home about 7 p.m. along North High Street when the pair drove up and offered her a ride. She said she refused at first and then accepted. Despite her protests, she said, they drove her to a side road near the East Salem by-pass.

It was the second similar case reported in Salem that day. Another 13-year-old girl told police that a boy, about 16, attempted to throw her from her bicycle in an alley Sunday afternoon. The girl said she fought the boy off. The incident occurred in the 1400 block of North Capitol street.

Gino Prato Back Home With Father

STATALE, Italy (AP)—Gino Prato, the New York cobbler who won fame on "The 64,000 Dollar Question" television show, came home to Statale Monday.

He climbed the mountain to the village and tearfully embraced his aged father, thankful for the television "miracle" that brought him here.

Gonzaga U. Checks Nude Reactions

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The feeling of shame resulting from being seen in the nude by another person varies widely in intensity and effect, depending on who the observer is and what the circumstances are, a Spokane psychologist reported Sunday.

The Rev. John J. Evey of Gonzaga University gave a questionnaire on this to 162 American and 69 British men and women. He reported the results to the Catholic American Psychological Assn.

Nearly two-thirds of the subjects reported feeling shame when exposed to a member of their own sex. Shame was reported by 84 per cent of them when exposed to the opposite sex but they said the feeling was different from being exposed to a member of their own sex.

Slightly less than half reported that exposure was accompanied by a sexual desire for the observer. Nearly three-quarters of the group said frequent sex stimulation before marriage lessened the shame feeling in exposure incidents. Drinking also reduced it for most subjects. It also was lessened by the ability to hide or to conceal identity.

Women experienced it oftener and had it more intensely than men.

British subjects were more sensitive to exposure to members of their own sex than Americans.

Father Evey did not offer opinions as to the meaning of these findings.
