Modern Etiquette By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it necessary for a hostess to rise when greeting a guest who has just arrived, and other guests are already present?

A. Yes, always. A hostess is very discourteous who does not rise to greet every guest.

Q. When is a guest privileged to leave a wedding reception?

A. At any time he wishes, but not before speaking to the bride and bridegroom.

Q. When a telegram or other message is delivered to a person, and other persons are present, is it all right for him to open and read it?

A. Yes; but he should first ask, "May I?"

Q. Would it be all right for the sister of a bride-elect to give a party for her, or would that imply that gifts are expected?

A. This is all right if it is emphasized that the party is not to be a shower. Or, give the party in the evening and invite men, too.
