At Bush House

Picture of Month on Display

"Salmon Creek Burn," an oil painting by Nadine Nunn, will be shown throughout September as Picture of the Month at the Bush House, Salem Art Museum. The picture shows a tender and hopeful resurgence of life in a desolate, burned-over area. The locale is near the Detroit reservoir.

The artist is Mrs. J. Anthony Nunn. A native Oregonian, Mrs. Nunn has studied with Constance Fowler at Wilhamette, the Famous Artists School, and Carl Hall.

Bush House is open daily except Mondays from 10 a.m. until noon and from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. The public is invited to attend and view the various exhibits at the museum.

Reception to Fete Silkes On Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Silke will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at a reception on Sunday afternoon, September 11 at their country home, Route 6, Box 806. Friends and relatives of the couple are being invited through the press to call between 2 and 5 o'clock.

The Silkes have lived here for 40 years and have two sons, Paul W. Silke of Salem and Eugene Silke of Troutdale. There are five grandchildren.

The couple's marriage took place on September 12, 1905 in Steubenville, Ohio.

Rev. Leary Guest At Klampe Home

LABISH CENTER—A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Klampe was her brother, the Rev. John P. Leary, S.J., of Spokane, who has just returned to the states from Europe, most of his time having been spent in Rome. He received his Doctor of Philosophy degree from the Gregorian University there.

While in Europe Father Leary had occasion to meet with many of the economic advisers of the various countries, as he traveled extensively during the summer months. He will be the new dean of education at Gonzaga University in Spokane this year.

Miss Anne Corcoran of Pullman, Washington, was an overnight guest at the Klampe home the following week, stopping on her way from Seaside. Miss Corcoran teaches at Washington State College.

Rebekahs Invited To Open House

Clyde Gilmore of Tacoma was a visitor at the meeting of Salem Rebekah Lodge Monday evening. An invitation to the wedding of Miss Dorisjean Shafer on September 17 was read.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucian LeCompte, who were recently married, have invited all officers and members to an open house at their Apartment, No. 12, 1000 N. Capitol Street on Saturday, September 10. The hours are between one and five in the afternoon, and from seven to ten in the evening.

There will be no meeting of the Three Links Club on Friday afternoon due to the Fair.

White Cross Meeting

The Tabitha Missionary Fellowship of the First Baptist Church will hold its White Cross meeting Thursday in the downstairs fireplace room of the church, beginning at 10 a.m. Members are asked to bring a sack lunch for noon. The business and devotional meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m. All women of the church are invited to attend.

CLOVERDALE—The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kunke was the setting for a family reunion when members of their families gathered. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fliflet of Twin Falls, Idaho, Oscar Fliflet, Palma Fliflet, Mr. and Mrs. Al Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Massey and son David, Joyce Kunke, all of Salem, Mrs. Levi Fliflet of Dallas, Mrs. Ted Whitehead Sr. and Helen Peetz of Turner.

Miss Susan Brutke is Bride of John Williams at Garden Rites

Pink, burgundy and white was the color scheme Miss Susan Helen Brutke of Amity selected for her wedding Saturday afternoon, Sept. 3 for the garden ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Brutke, when she became the bride of John Herbert Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Williams of Vancouver, B.C. The Rev. Lowell Montgomery of Tacoma, assisted by Rev. Olaf Tønning of Dallas, officiated at the nuptials. The organist was Mrs. Jake Penner, and soloists were Mrs. Lowell Montgomery and Ray Heinton.

For her wedding the bride selected a waltz dress of imported Chantilly lace over satin. The fitted bodice of lace was made with a scalloped Peter Pan collar with sweetheart inset of scalloped lace. The bouffant skirt was scalloped at the hemline. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a tiara trimmed with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. A pink cymbidium orchid with stephanotis topped her white Bible, a gift of the groom. She carried her mother's lace handkerchief.

Attend the Bride
Matron of honor was Mrs. Herbert Braun of Vancouver, B.C., dressed in a bluish pink nylon tulle ballerina gown over taffeta. She carried a heart-shaped nosegay of pink and white carnations. Miss Vivian Casteel in pink flecked net dress lighted the tapers. Two nieces, Anita Barner and Judy Nell Brutka, dressed in nylon dotted swiss gowns of aqua blue and tulip yellow respectively, were flower girls.

Herbert Braun of Vancouver, B.C., was best man, and Walter Brutka ushered for his sister's wedding. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brutka wore a teal blue afternoon crepe dress and Mrs. Williams chose a two-piece mauve suit. Their corsages were of pink Elfe roses.

Farm Bell Rings
At the close of the ceremony,

the youngest brother of the bride, Edward Brutke, rang the old family farm bell.

A reception was held in the gardens and patio of the Brutke home. Cutting the cake was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bud Casteel, and Mrs. Walter Brutka, a sister-in-law. Pouring was Mrs. Freida Houston, cutting the ices was Mrs. Louis Buczynski, and at the punch bowl was Mrs. Bruce Barner, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Brutke, a sister-in-law. Assisting were Misses Elsie Diwert, Louise Keene, Evelyn Buczynski, Terry Brutke, and LaVonne Casteel, the bride's niece. David Houston, Victor Casteel and Robert Williams, nephews of the bride and groom respectively, passed the dream cakes.

For their trip to the Oregon beaches, the bride wore a powder blue costume crepe suit with white accessories. The couple will be at home at 131 W. 12th Ave. in Vancouver, B.C.

War Mothers Will Attend Conventions

A number of the Salem American War Mothers will be in McMinnville this week to attend the state convention. Plans for the convention were made at the War Mothers business meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the Carrier Room of the First Methodist Church. The War Mothers will go by bus to McMinnville and those attending are asked to meet at the corner of Liberty and State Streets Thursday morning at 8 a.m.

The War Mothers are asked to take their cookies to the home of Mrs. Ben Randall by September 12 and they will be sent to Camp White for the Sweetheart party.

Mrs. Howard Hunsaker, president of the Salem chapter, is en route for Rochester, N.Y. on September 14 to attend the national convention of the American War Mothers. She will be away six weeks, also visiting in New York City, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Miami, and New Orleans. Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, a past national president of the American War Mothers and Mrs. Goldie Kyle will also attend the convention.

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Culley, who were married Aug. 19 at Stevenson, Wash., will be honored at a reception Saturday, Oct. 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Craig L. Clark on Digerness Road. The hours have been arranged from 8 to 10 p.m. and friends of the couple are invited to attend.

Miss Bentson to Teach in London

SILVERTON—Miss Marial Bentson, former Silvertown grade school teacher, has written relatives that she has resumed her new duties as a third grade teacher in London, England. She is attached to the U.S. Air Force education division.

During the past few years, Miss Bentson has been teaching in Salem. She is the sister of Rolf Bentson and Miss Elsie Bentson of Silvertown and the niece of Mrs. Nels Langseth, also of Silvertown.

Miss Bentson made the trip to England in the company of 75 other teachers. She said they had practices for three life boat drills, putting on life jackets, and going to assigned stations during the crossing.

CLOVERDALE—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Feller and daughter, Jane, have left for a vacation trip to Canada. They will spend time at Vancouver and Victoria, B.C., before arriving home on Thursday.
