

"Hello Teacher"

Looking . . . over the brand new Candalaria school, which they will enter this fall, are these two first graders, Ruth Moreland and Jeanne Brennen. They are accompanied by their mothers, Mrs. Thad Moreland, left, and Mrs. Maurice Brennen, right.

Statesman's HOME Panorama Women . . . Music . . . Fashions . . . Features

Oregon Statesman, Salem, Ore., Sunday, September 11, 1955

Registering . . . for the first grade at McKinley school is Nancy Shay, daughter of the Vern Shays, who is looking over her registration blank with Miss Esther Long, first grade teacher.

(All photos by Kennell-Ellis Studio)

Off to school they go . . . Katrinka Johnson, daughter of the Stewart Johnsons, Timmy Cheney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall C. Cheney Jr., and Mark Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle B. Roberts. They will enter the first grade tomorrow at Baker School.

First graders . . . at McKinley school this year will be Deborah Boone, daughter of the Ralph L. Boones, and Catherine Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn F. Woods.

Greeting . . . four first graders, who will enter Grant school Monday, is Principal Al W. Hoerauf. The children left to right are Richard Kessel, son of the John W. Kessels, Susan Kaser, daughter of the Ray V. Kasers, Beverly Kraft, daughter of the John Krafts, and Mary Ann Gale, daughter of the Lauren Gales.

Shopping . . . for their first school supplies are, left to right, Vicki Chambers, daughter of the Richard Chambers, Jimmy Boals, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert T. Boals, Louise Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Smith, and David Harvey, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harmon Harvey. The four will be first graders at the new Candalaria school this fall.