

Miss Edna Marie Hill Bride Of Eugene Natkin Saturday At First Methodist Church

Miss Edna Marie Hill became the bride of Eugene Natkin of New York City at a beautiful all white wedding Saturday night at historic First Methodist Church. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Edward Tolbert Brock Hill and the late Mr. Hill and the bridegroom is the son of Hyman Natkin of New York City and the late Mrs. Natkin.

It was at 8 o'clock that Dr. Brooks H. Moore performed the 8 o'clock nuptials before several hundred relatives and friends. Vocalists were Betty Starr Anderson and Edith Fairham Gunnar with Prof. Josef Schelker the organist.

The altar was banked with bouquets of white Fugli chrysanthemums and stock and woodwardia fern. The alternate pews were marked with clusters of the flowers tied with white ribbon. Lighting the dozens of white tapers were John Lippold and James Breithaupt, cousins of the bride.

Five pretty attendants and a flower girl walked before the bride. Mrs. Herbert Schell of Crater Lake was her cousin's matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. William F. Johnson of Corvallis, Miss Bonnie Belle Stewart, Miss Barbara Ann Pearcey of Portland and Miss Shirley Hill of Whittier, Calif., cousin of the bride. They wore identical ballerina frocks of white imported French lace fashioned with scalloped sweetheart necklines and long torso boricis. They carried cascades of white spider pom poms backed with camellia leaves and wore headbands of white velvet leaves.

Rosamond Gunnar was the flower girl and her dress was of white nylon with lace trim.

The Bridal Gown

Lon C. Hill of Whittier, Calif., escorted his niece down the center aisle and gave her in marriage. Her bridal gown was of imported Chantilly lace and tulle over satin designed with a scalloped, sweetheart neckline and long, lace sleeves. The bouffant skirt, which terminated in a court train, was embellished with lace applique extending to the end of the train. Her illusion veil was caught to a petal cap of hand-clipped Chantilly lace outlined in seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white spider chrysanthemums.

Herbert Schell of Crater Lake served as best man for Mr. Natkin. Seating the guests were Donald Bennett, Paul Baker, Robert Wilkins of La Grande, William F. Johnson of Corvallis, Gerald Evanson, Calvin Cooper of Portland and Paul Lippold, the bride's uncle.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Hill selected a gown of gold crystallette with bronze shoes and white gloves. In her hair she wore a spray of yellow and brown baby orchids.

Greet Guests at Reception

The wedding reception was held in the church dining room. Pouring were Mesdames John Lippold, the bride's grandmother, Lon C. Hill of Whittier, Calif. Alma Jarvis, the bride's aunt, Edwin P. Armstrong, Ludwig Mickelson, and Miss Augusta Breithaupt, the bride's great-aunt. Cutting the cake were Miss Marie Lippold, Mesdames Ellis Walker of Corvallis, aunts of the bride, George H. Grabenhorst, G. Herbert Smith, A. C. F. Perry and H. K. Stockwell.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mesdames Paul Lippold, the bride's aunt, E. F. Breithaupt, cousin of the bride, L. Don Hunsaker, Atlee Pearcey of Portland, Robert L. Elfstrom and Ivan Stewart. Assisting were Mesdames Robert Wilkins, Gerald Evanson, Paul Heath, the bride's cousin, Louis Lorenz, Jr., Allan R. Mann, Jr. of Portland, Bruce Rankin, Misses Diane Perry, Marjorie Becke and Coralie Doughton. Passing the dream cakes and rice bags were Peter and David Lippold, cousins of the bride, Martha de Weese, Stephanie Merrill, Katrina Johnson, Lucia Venegas

A bride of Saturday night at the First Methodist Church was Mrs. Eugene Natkin, the former Edna Marie Hill, daughter of Mrs. Edward T. B. Hill. The bridegroom is the son of Hyman Natkin of New York City. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Miss Minden Is Bride of Mr. Lulay

St. Boniface Catholic Church in Sublimity was the scene of the wedding of Miss Roseanne Minden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Minden of Sublimity, and Adrian W. Lulay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lulay of Salem, on Saturday morning.

Father Robert O'Hara performed the 10 o'clock nuptial mass before a setting of pink and white gladioluses and blue delphinium. Vocalists were Duane Heuberger and Father Edmund Raum. Mrs. B. J. Minden was the organist.

For her wedding the bride selected a gown of tulle and lace over misted taffeta, fashioned with a floor length skirt and a wide border of lace around the hemline. The long, sleeved bodice was also of lace. Her fingertip veil was caught to a headdress enhanced with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a bouquet of pink Elf roses and stephanotis.

Sister Is Honor Matron

Mrs. Paul Stuckhart was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Orville Lulay, sister of the bride, Miss Doris Minden, the bride's cousin, and Miss Carole Frank. They wore ballerina gowns of satin crystallette combined with matching lace. Mrs. Stuckart and Mrs. Lulay wore blue and Miss Minden and Miss Frank were in dusty rose. Their bouquets were of white gladioluses.

Gilbert Lulay stood with his brother as best man and ushers were Melvin Lulay, Glen Minden, Edward Spitz, Paul Stuckart and Orville Lulay.

Mrs. Minden selected a charcoal grey satin gown with pink accessories and Mrs. Lulay chose a green wool gown with black accessories. Their flowers were pink rosebuds.
