Kaylene Hicks Married to Lt. Shield

San Antonio, Texas will be the new home of Lt. and Mrs. Duane Shield, who were married Sunday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The bride, the former Kaylene Hicks of Salem, is the daughter of Mrs. Fred Haines of San Diego, Calif. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shield of Seattle.

The Rev. George H. Swift officiated at the 8 o'clock nuptials before a setting of yellow gladioluses and chrysanthemums. Peter Van Horn was the vocalist and Miss Ruth Bedford the organist. Miss Barbara Swegart and Miss Sharon Shafer lighted the candles.

For her wedding the bride chose a waltz gown of white crystallite satin fashioned with a bouffant skirt and a jacket of Chantilly lace made with raglan sleeves and a Mandarin collar. Her elbow length illusion veil was caught to a Chantilly lace headress adorned with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses in the form of a cross. F. L. Hicks gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Patricia Burrows was the honor maid and Mrs. Gene Small and Miss Marcia Cook the bridesmaids. They wore yellow brocade taffeta frocks and carried rosettes of daisies.

Brother is Best Man
Fred Shield Jr. stood with his brother as best man and ushers were Pete Reed, Robert Miller and Douglas Wall.

Mrs. Haines and Mrs. Shield both chose brown wool afternoon gowns for the wedding of their daughter and son. Their corsages were yellow baby orchids.

A reception followed in the parish hall. Pouring were Mrs. Robert Miller and Miss Susan Youngquist. Cutting the cake were Miss Anne Meeker and Mrs. Wayne Parsons. Assisting were Miss Marion Higley, Miss Marilyn Harland, and Mrs. Fred Shield Jr.

For going away the new Mrs. Shield changed to a lavender brocade jacket ensemble with matching velvet hat and navy blue accessories. The newlyweds will drive to San Antonio on their honeymoon.

Lt. Shield is a graduate of Willamette University and received his commission in the U. S. Air Force. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. His bride also attended Willamette University.

Luthes Feted On Golden Wedding

By B. NORBERG

DALLAS - An afternoon reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luthes Sr. on their fiftieth wedding anniversary was held at the Dallas Lutheran Church on Sunday. The Luthes, who live at 1201 Oakdale Ave., have been residents of Dallas for 28 years. Their three sons, Joseph Jr., Fred and Edward also live here. In addition the Luthes have eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mr. Luthes was retired from the Willamette Lumber Company this past June where he had been employed since coming to Dallas. He is 70 years of age. A television set was presented to the honor couple by their family, friends and the Lutheran Church congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rooper welcomed the arrival of a daughter Sept. 6. The little girl, named Hilary, has three brothers. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rooper of McMinville and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. MacMorran of Wellington, New Zealand.

Taking advantage of the long Labor Day weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Neale Povey visited friends in The Dalles, Hood River and Seattle. Their children stayed with relatives until the Poveys returned.

Home on Furlough
Visiting here on furlough are Pfc. Edwin Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Baker, Pfc. Kenneth Shreeve, son of the Varnum Shreeves, and Pfc. Donald Bartell, son of Dr. and Mrs. I. D. Bartell. Privates Baker and Shreeve were recently graduated from a guided missile school at Fort Bliss, Texas, and will return there as instructors at the end of this week. Private Bartell joined his friends for the trip home at Phoenix, Arizona, where he is serving as a medical technician.

The Rev. and Mrs. John Propp recently vacationed in Canada. Following a stay in Vancouver, B. C., Mrs. Propp visited her home in British Columbia while Rev. Propp visited friends and relatives in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Dental Wives to Meet
The Tri-County Dental Auxiliary has slated its first fall meeting for Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Johann Wold, 2770 Englewood Ave., at 8 o'clock. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. J. P. Staggas, Mrs. John Carns and Mrs. Roland Hochhalter. The program will feature snapshots of vacations taken during the summer by the dentists and their families.

Party Given
Diane Meola will be hostess at a party in the family home on Croisan Creek tonight for a group of friends. Invited are Kathleen and Gloria Schmidt, Zola Peterson, Ann Cates, Deanna Alexander, Frances Hennington, Eleanor Parker, Linda Seburn and Lois Ryser.
