Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it really considered correct to accept a second helping of food when your hostess offers it to you, or is this a sign of greediness?

A. One may certainly take a second helping, if one wishes. It is a compliment to the hostess' cookery to do so. However, if you don't care for a second helping, you may say, "No, thank you."

Q. My fiancée's married brother is to be his best man at our wedding. Am I supposed to ask his wife to serve as one of my bridesmaids?

A. Not necessarily. It is your right to choose whomever you wish.

Q. Is it permissible for a young unmarried girl to visit her employer when he is ill in a hospital?

A. There is nothing at all wrong with this.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me, I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heuth (Joann Reiter) who were married Sept. 5 at St. Mary's Church in Mt. Angel. The couple will live in Mountain Home, Idaho, where Sergeant Heuth is stationed with the U. S. Air Force. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Steve Reiter of Mt. Angel and Mrs. Joseph Heuth, all of Mt. Angel. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Dagenhardts Are Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dagenhardt were honored at a surprise open house on their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon when their three children entertained at their Market Street home. Thirty-five guests called during the afternoon to honor the couple.

The Dagenhardts were married in Lincoln, Neb. and have lived in Salem for 18 years. Their children include Miss Shirley Dagenhardt, who came north from Los Angeles for the occasion, Mrs. Robert Chambers and Gene Dagenhardt.

Bouquets of autumn flowers provided the decorative note. Miss Shirley Dagenhardt cut the cake and Mrs. Robert Chambers poured. Assisting were Mrs. Gene Dagenhardt and Connie Chambers.

BUTTEVILLE — Miss Bonnie Belle Hathaway was honored at a bridal shower by 40 women in the social rooms of the Butteville Congregational Church. Miss Hathaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hathaway, will become the bride of Leo Jantzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royden Jantzi.

Accidental falls from ladders, stairs and other heights take nearly twice as many U. S. lives as lung cancer; the latest figures for one year (1953) being 10,564 for cancer and 20,631 for falls.

Leaders Slate First Fall Meeting

The Salem Camp Fire and Blue Bird leaders' association will meet for their first fall program on Tuesday morning, September 20 in the basement fleside room at the First Methodist church. Membership in the group includes more than one hundred leaders and their assistants now active in Salem school groups. Again, as during the past winter, the association will meet on the third Tuesday morning each month, with a workshop or discussion program each time, in addition to the business meeting.

Mrs. C. P. Kuper, chairman of the Salem Leaders' Association and director of a Morningside school group of Blue Birds, will be the hostess. Coffee will be served at 9:30 and small children will be cared for in the church nursery room.

Mrs. Harold Hatzenbuehler, a Richmond school leader, will begin a feature of the program which is planned for each succeeding meeting, a review of one useful article published in the monthly Camp Fire Girl magazine. Mrs. R. L. Robertson, also a Richmond leader of Blue Birds, will demonstrate and explain one creative play project in which her girls have participated.

Mrs. Philip Hawley of the Marion District service committee will attend to present several plans for community projects in which the girls can take part. First of these will be the Camp Fire organization's plan for taking part in the children's parade when the United Fund campaign is launched in October.

Sponsors of active groups, neighborhood chairmen from each school, or any interested parents, are also invited to attend the monthly leaders' meetings which deal with the program directly related to the girls.

Degree of Honor will meet Wednesday night at the Salem Woman's Club at 8 p.m. Mrs. Ethel Gertson, state director, will be a special guest.
