

Preps Booked in Inter-League Grid Games

Although the District 3 A-1 teams will again be involved in circuit play this weekend, most of the valley area's prep football teams will occupy themselves in inter-league skirmishes which will have no bearing on loop standings.

The District 3 A-1 games find the Sweet Home Huskies at South Salem High, Albany at Bend and Lebanon at Corvallis. North Salem is idle this week.

Here's the non-league picture for Friday: Serra Catholic at Central Hl, Stayton at Estacada, Dallas at Mt. Angel, Molalla at Silverton, Cascade Union at Newport, Gervais at Canby, Sandy at Woodburn, Sherwood at North Marion, Taft at Williams, Sheridan at Creswell and Philomath at Amity. Concordia plays at Salem Academy Saturday afternoon, 2 o'clock.

Two Marion County B League games will serve as openers for that loop Friday, Mill City playing at Scio at 2 p.m., and Chemawa and Sublimity getting together at Stayton, at 8 o'clock, in the two.

Four BLMP six-man football games are on the Friday menu also, with St. Paul playing at Valset, Oregon School for the Deaf at Ales, Eddyville at Perrydale and Falls City at Detroit. The BLMP's got their campaign under way last week.

The Marion B League games will bring on the first outings for Chemawa, Sublimity and Scio, although all played briefly in the jamboree at Mill City earlier in the week. Mill City got off to a flying start last week by traveling to Maupin and beating Maupin High.

For other than their appearances in jamborees this week, the Friday games for Mt. Angel, Gervais and Woodburn will be their first of the season. All others have tasted competition.

A 3:30 o'clock game today, at South Salem High, will send the Saxon Varsity against Albany JVs. The Saxon JVs last week topped Sublimity High in an opener at Sublimity.

Cougar Center Breaks Leg

Tailbacks of USC Shine in Workout

PULLMAN (AP) — Junior John Clark of Wallawa, Ore., surprise starter at center on the Washington State football team this season, was benched Wednesday with a broken leg.

The injury, evidently received when the Cougars took a 50-12 drubbing from Southern California last Saturday, was discovered by x-ray. The break is in the fibula and is expected to keep Clark out of action for at least six weeks.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tailbacks Jon Arnett and Ernie Zampese looked impressive in the passing department Wednesday as the University of Southern California ran through a two-hour drill in preparation for Oregon here Friday night.

SEATTLE (AP) — The final heavy workout of the week was held Wednesday by the University of Washington football squad as it sharpened its aerial offense and defense for the game with Minnesota in Minneapolis Saturday.

The reserves got the hardest going over while the regulars worked hard for 10 minutes then dawdled through a final tuneup on dummy scrimmage and signal drills.

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — The University of Idaho football team spent the day sharpening up offensive plays Wednesday and then ran through a brisk 45-minute scrimmage just at dusk.

The Vandals should be in better physical shape for Utah at Boise Saturday than they were in losing a 14-7 opener at Washington, coach Skip Stahley said.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The middle of the UCLA line, already weakened by two injuries at the guard slot, was hit again Wednesday when x-rays revealed that second string tackle Preston Dill broke his right thumb in Tuesday's scrimmage.

Tom Thaxter broke a bone in his left wrist Tuesday and is out of the Maryland game Saturday.

Rams Place Paul On Waiver Listing

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams Wednesday placed co-capt. Don Paul, veteran star lineman, on the waiver list of the National Football League and there were no takers since he is sidelined with a knee injury.

The move cut the Rams down to the current maximum limit of 25 players and affords the Rams a chance to call the popular Paul back for duty after four games.

BOWLING

Results in Wednesday night's Capital Major League Bowling play were as follows: Gerlinger Carrier 4, Kars 0; Scotties Stores 3, The Jewel Box 1; Marion Hotel 3, Jaysons 1; Lana Avenue Service 2, Barclay's Brother 2; University Bowl 3, West Salem Machinery 1; High Team Game and Series—Scotty's Stores 1142 and 2080; Individual Game and Series—Chet Boyce 269 and 666; Other 600's: Bob Lawless 600, Bob Price 619, Tom Brennan 622, Bob White 606.

Salem Well Represented on OCE Squad

Dodgers, Yankees Beset By Troubles in Outfield

NEW YORK (AP)—Outfield problems beset the Brooklyn Dodgers as well as their probable opponents, the New York Yankees, in the forthcoming World Series.

The Dodgers go into the fall classic with two established outfield stars, Duke Snider in center field and Carl Furillo in right field. But the left field position could prove slightly troublesome in Brooklyn's quest of its first world's championship after seven futile efforts.

Gilliam to Start
Junior Gilliam appears to be manager Walter Alston's selection as the starting left fielder for the Dodgers with Sandy Amoros held in reserve. Gilliam, a switch-hitter, was the regular second baseman before being switched to the outfield and he might have some difficulty judging fly balls in Yankee Stadium. The triple-deck stands cast tricky shadows in the left field area and even experienced outfielders have looked bad there in past series.

Both Gilliam and Amoros are hitting around .250 and neither has impressed with defensive skills. Amoros was the regular left fielder before a back ailment forced him out of action midway in the season.

In Snider and Furillo, the Dodgers can boast of two of the best all-around outfielders in the game. Both are rated tops defensively and have powerful arms. Each is hitting at a better than .300 clip with Snider, a distance swinger, leading the league in runs batted in with 134.

Solid Array
With Mantle available for full-time duty, the Yankees present a solid array of gardeners. Hustling Hank Bauer is a standout in right field, while rookie Elston Howard and Irv Noren loom as two-platoon operatives in left field. Howard, a right-handed batter, faces lefty pitchers and the southpaw-swinging Noren sees action against the right-handers.

The speedy Mantle has developed into a fine all-around outfielder who can cover center field with the best. Offensively, he owns a .307 average and his 37 homers top the American League.

Willamette University officials announce that sections A and D at McCulloch Stadium will admit holders of general admission tickets for Saturday night's Bearcat game with Whitworth College.

Usually, these sections admit only holders of reserved seat tickets. They provide a composite view of the playing field.

Viewers of the game, which will start at 8 p.m., will be admitted to the sections on a first-come, first-served basis. General admission tickets for the contest are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12.

Bruins Eye Passing Game

Maryland Expected To Toss Ball, Too

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — If you can place any reliance on hints, UCLA and Maryland are apt to throw the football around and have themselves a spectacular time Saturday, in contrast to their head butting of last year.

The Bruins passed only twice in grinding out a 12-7 victory last season. Coach Red Sanders admitted they were thrown just to keep Maryland on its toes and not with any idea of gaining that way.

Maryland passed only twice in the second half, although trailing all the time.

May Be Different
For this Saturday's game, it may be different. Whether Sanders and coach Jim Tatum of Maryland will really discard their conservative approaches, in what could be the most important game of the year for each, remains to be seen.

Sanders has planned all along, in preparations for this season, to pass more than usual.

For the first time, he said, he has an outstanding passer in Ronnie Knox and more than one good receiver. He stuck to his promise last week when Knox threw passes for all three UCLA touchdowns in a 21-0 opening victory over Texas A & M.

Whits Have Big Grid Unit

The Whitworth Pirates of Spokane, who play the Willamette U Bearcats in their 1955 football opener here Saturday night, may not be the best team the Methodists will face during the campaign. But they'll be one of the biggest.

The men from the Inland Empire, who boast a trio of three-year lettermen in their starting lineup, will field a 203-pound line and a 183-pound backfield for the Saturday nighter. Such size is comparable with many of the Coast Conference clubs, and is bigger than some of those.

On the other side, Coach Ted Oggahl's Bearcats will beam an even 190 in the starting line, and 174 pounds in the backfield. End Jerry McCallister at 170, and Guard Vern Coates at 168 pull the line average down considerably, and 139-pound Bobby Zoelch and 151-pound "Windy" Sequiera don't do much for the backfield in the weight department.

For other than 185-pound Warren Lashus at left half, the Whitworths will field an all-veteran outfit. End Bob Bradner (195), Guard Walt Spangenberg (192) and Center Bill Vanderloop (205) are all three-year vets. Guard George Blood (185) and tackle Coby Freeby (225) are winners of two awards at the Spokane school. Tackle Daryl Squires (220), End Ward Woods (195), Quarterback Don Price (180), Halfback O. L. Mitchell (180) and Fullback Bernard Rakes (185) all lettered last season.

The Bearcats will field an almost all-veteran lineup also, but only four were starters last season. Tackle Dave Anderson (212), End Dean Benson (185), and Halfback Sequiera and Zoelch were the 1954 regulars. With them Saturday will be McCallister at end, Gordon Chung (198) and Coates at guard, Chuck McClure (183) at center, Bennie Holt (185) at quarter, Sam Haina (220) at tackle and Charlie Koani (220) at fullback. Saturday's kickoff is at 8 p.m.

2 Women Top Play at SGC

Mrs. Robert DeArmond and Mrs. John Johnson topped Salem Golf Course ladies in low net play Wednesday at the course. Each shot a 71 for 18 holes while playing in the ladies' C class.

Other winners were, championship class, Mrs. Harold Olinger, net 75; A class—Mrs. Clifford Ellis, 78; B class—Mrs. G. Robert Hoffman, 75; D class—Mrs. James Stone, 85.

Johnson store prize went to Mrs. DeArmond. Meanwhile, the Fall Handicap Tournament will get underway next Wednesday at the course, and this Sunday the annual husband and wife tournament starts.

The latter will be a four-ball match meet and will continue for four Sundays. Those not yet registered for this tourney are urged to call Mrs. Hans Nichols, Mrs. John Johnson or Mrs. Robert Ebersole. Pairings will be announced later.

Yanks Sell Out Series Reserve Seat Tickets

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees announced Wednesday a sell out of box and reserved seats for the World Series.

The Yankees said no more orders will be accepted. However, standing room tickets at $4.20 each are on sale at the Yankee Stadium and 14,000 bleacher seats at $2.20 each will be sold the day of each game.

Johnson Beats Dykes

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Hard-hitting George Johnson caught elusive Bobby Dykes with vicious knockdown punches in the sixth and tenth rounds Wednesday night as he pounded out an easy decision over the world's sixth ranking middleweight fighter.

cities. Dick was with the Thetford Mines entry in the Class C circuit, and still totes his potent bat. In 78 games he smacked 20 home runs, including five with the bases loaded. . . . And Eddie Bockman, the veteran who played third base for Lewiston in 1954, did himself a fine piece of work as manager of the Albuquerque, N. M. club this past campaign. Eddie was named the West Texas-New Mexico League's "manager of the year" . . .

Apparently it isn't to be Stanford U. after all for Herb Juran, the pass-pitching quarterback of South Salem High's state co-champions of last season. Herb was supposedly set on the Palo Alto school, but has been at the U. of Oregon much of the week. Registration for the new terms started yesterday and it will be interesting to note just where the kid does land. His dad was telling us earlier in the week that the U. of Washington had been making lucrative offers in an effort to pull Herb into Seattle, but that the boy wasn't particularly interested. . . . Pappa Hank Juran plans doing some prep football officiating in these parts, incidentally, and joins such other coaching members of the Salem system as Bob Donovan, Hank Ercolini, Herb Ahnmarud, Cal Bonney, Hank Decker, Earl Hampton and "Squeak" Nelson . . .

Eight Years Since 'That Day' in Brooklyn

How the years do slip by. Here it is almost World Series time again, and whenever we think of the baseball classic we seem to automatically remind ourselves of the October 3 day in Brooklyn when Bill Bevens lost his no-hitter with two out in the ninth inning. That was eight years ago, yet it seems not nearly so distant. We'll betcha Bevens' name is mentioned in the radio and TV casts more than once next week, for the simple reason that his 1947 game will always be among the classics of the Classics . . .

The annual Salem Senators stockholders meeting and election of directors comes up in mid-October, which is a reminder to the baseball folk of the village to keep the date open. The financial status of the Senators will of course be given by Pres. George Paulus at that time. George has said many times during the last few months that this would be his last year as a club official, and might submit his resignation during the meeting. So it would be a good idea for all hands to be present there, not to accept the resignation if it comes, but to swarm over the guy and bar the exits so that he can't get out unless he agrees to continue as boss. He has done a tremendous job, and his loss would be a mighty big one . . .

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Davis Cup star Ken Rosewall of Australia, the top seeded foreign contestant, was knocked out of the singles play in the Pacific Southwest tennis tournament in shocking fashion Wednesday by Gilbert Shea, fourth man on the United States cup team.

The 26-year-old Shea sent the 20-year-old Aussie to the sidelines, 6-3, 6-3.

Favorites otherwise came through, although the American champion, Tony Trabert, and the defending titlist of this event, Vic Seixas, had to go all out to win. Trabert disposed of Neale Fera of Australia, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3, and Seixas had a fight before defeating Mike Franks, UCLA sophomore, 11-9, 7-5.

Lew Hoad, Australia's co-cup star, won handily from California's Art Larson, 6-3, 6-4, while another Aussie, Rex Hartwig, took extra time to subdue Bob Perry, Los Angeles, 7-5, 6-4.

Besides setting the all-time mark of 60 home runs in 1927, Babe Ruth won the American League home run title in 10 other years and shared it once.
