

Garden Club Begins Fall Season

Salem Garden Club members launched their fall activities Monday with interesting table arrangements, classes, a speaker and an enthusiastic audience. Members also brought an abundance of plants and bulbs for sale, which netted the club over $16.

The new president, Mrs. Kerby Johnson, presided. The speaker was Claude Mills of the Lilly Products Co. of Portland. His hobby is growing lilies and daffodils and working to grow them to superb quality. He showed slides of flowers grown in Oregon.

Winning prizes for flower arrangements were Mrs. Walter H. Smith, Mrs. G. A. Sprong and Mrs. Roy Smith. The surprise table was arranged by Mrs. Robert E. Shinn. The bridge luncheon table was covered with a hand-made linen cutwork cloth, which her mother, Mrs. William J. Kerr of Portland, made after she was 85. In the center was a two-tier epergne filled with bright fall flowers.

Pouring at the tea hour were Mrs. Seward Kellicut and Mrs. O. E. Snider. Mrs. Bryan Goodenough, Mrs. George Glisar and Mrs. Walter Smith arranged the tea table covered with an ice green satin cloth centered with autumn bouquet in shades of rose, orchid and pink.

Coeds Attend Rush Parties On Campus

By MARY JEAN SCHRUNK
Statesman Correspondent
PORTLAND—Classes have been in session for almost two weeks, new students have explored the Palatine Hill campus from the rose gardens to the football stadium, friends have been made, and everyone is settled and eager for another year of college life. These things all mean that it's time for the traditional events to begin.

Sorority rushing is one of the first activities that adds to the busy life of a student. Lewis and Clark's three local sororities, are making plans for their fall rush parties October 4, 5 and 6.

Working on the Del Phi rush party, "On a Cathay Terrace," are president Jody Ellis and Shirley Crothers. It's "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea" for the Alpha Gamma with member Joyce Randall participating. President Dorna Martin of Theta Kappa has "Pajama Game" plans for the Theta party.

It's Kangaroo Court time next Friday as freshmen face sophomores complete with a judge and prosecuting attorney. Freshmen Jody Bone and Lorraine Ellis have been carefully obeying fresh restrictions, memorizing the alma mater, and wearing their orange and black ribbons so as to escape any penalties of the court.

PRATUM—Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Silke on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pearson of Milwaukie and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Silke of Alameda, Calif. Harold Silke went on to Portland to complete her training as a dental nurse. Her husband is with the U.S. Coast Guard at Alameda and is a grandson of the Paul Silkes.

Co-Ree Club of the YWCA is Statesman, Salem, Ore., Thursday, Oct. 6, 1955—(Sec. 1)—7 sponsoring a game night followed by dancing Friday at the YWCA. All young people between 18 and 35 are invited to attend.
