Band Parents Of Woodburn School Meet

Statesman News Service

WOODBURN — Woodburn Band Parents in its first fall meeting heard the report of the Band Booth committee Tuesday evening which revealed a profit earned at the fair of approximately $145 for the organization.

The group voted to seek space at the North Marion County Fair for a similar concession in 1956. Committee members and President Clifford Applegate expressed appreciation to those who gave time to the project.

A change in the meeting date from the second to the third Tuesday in the month was the decision of the club. A letter from Mrs. Helen McGaffee was read in which she thanked members for their part in making possible her receipt of the Arion award, given each year to an outstanding music student. The group voted to buy such uniforms for the band as were revealed necessary in a survey conducted by Donald Jessop, band director.

Committees for the year were announced as follows: Hostess—Mrs. Tom Higginbotham and Mrs. Joe Nathman; publicity—Mrs. Frank Doerfler; ways and means—Mrs. Lewis Paulson, Mrs. Sidney Cummings and Frank Doerfler; program—Jessop and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pickering; and chaperones—Mrs. Fred Chapelle, Mrs. Donald Hayes and Mrs. Ernest Livesey.

Mrs. Higginbotham, Mrs. Nathman and Mrs. Charles Cornwell were named hostesses for next month. Mrs. Leland Plank, Mrs. Applegate and Mrs. Layman Baird served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Preceding the business session Miss Jean Hayes played two cornet solos, accompanied by Miss Barbara Mouser in a short program.
