

Miss Kaufman Betrothed to Mr. Hall

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kaufman of Chehalis, Wash., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Gaylord Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hall of Salem.

Miss Kaufman attended Willamette University for two years and at present is serving as secretary in the Chehalis School system. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi.

Mr. Hall is a senior at Willamette, majoring in Biology and physical therapy.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman and Barbara were guests at the Hall home this last weekend.

No definite date has been set for the wedding but is planned for next summer.

The betrothal news was first revealed at the Pi Beta Phi house this last weekend, when Miss Kaufman passed the traditional box of candy.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wackerbarth (Verna Leonhardt) who were married in September at Christ Lutheran Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Leonhardt and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wackerbarth.

Juniors Will Enter Project In Contest

A special program presented by Mrs. Wallace Cowan and her committee explained the functions of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, the relation of individual clubs to the State and National Federation, and the accomplishments of the Salem Junior Club since it was organized for the benefit of prospective members at the Monday meeting of the Junior Club.

During the business meeting Mrs. Howard Elwood reported on the playground project. The Salem Juniors are submitting this outstanding project as an entry in a nation-wide contest sponsored by the National Federation of Women's Clubs and the Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

The greatest amount possible to win is the Sweepstakes prize of $10,000 with lesser amounts in various other divisions. Cooperation by other groups and individuals receives 25 points of the possible 100. Volunteer help and donations have been and will be greatly appreciated in an effort to bring national recognition and future community service through the contest to the city of Salem.

Mrs. Leonard Rotolo reported on the Third District Workshop which was held in Portland. The Salem Club received praise on its outstanding service to the community. Chairman of the fall fashion

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When your home is being used for a reception by the club to which you belong, should you head the receiving line?

A. The president of the club should receive officially as hostess. You can greet the guests at the door, and also circulate about to see that they are receiving the proper attention.

Q. My wife and my widowed mother have the same name—Mrs. Robert J. Johnson. How should they be distinguished on visiting cards?

A. Your mother has "Sr." after her name.

Q. Who pays for the bride's bouquet, and for those of her maid-of-honor and bridesmaids?

A. The bridegroom pays for the bride's bouquet, and her family stands the expense of the bouquets for her attendants.

benefit, Mrs. Cliff Bowder, reported that plans are nearly complete for the November 14 show with Johnson's furnishing the fashions. Tickets may be obtained from Mesdames William Ferguson, Howard Elwood, or Clark Carleton.
