

At Willamette Little Colonel to Be Crowned at Ball Saturday

By FLOSSY HODGE
Statesman Correspondent

Week-long suspense will be broken Saturday evening when the Little Colonel is crowned at the annual Military Ball. This dance, sponsored by Arnold Air Society and the AFROTC, will be held at the Crystal Gardens from 9 to 12 o'clock.

The three finalists in the Little Colonel contest are Anita Booth, New York City; Martha Eagleson, Beaverton; and Dena Lampropoulos, Klamath Falls.

Another beauty contest coming up is the search for Willamette's Ugly Man—the winner to be announced at the Halloween party Homecoming Weekend. Candidates are Dale Greenlee, sponsored by Alpha Chi Omega; Bill Bjorkman, Chi Omega; Willie Thompson, Delta Gamma; Sam Haina, Pi Beta Phi; and George Koani, Independents.

Glen Murray, a transfer from Linfield College, has been named chairman of Willamette's Christian Resources Week, to be held March 5 to 9. The purpose of Christian Resources week is to develop and bring out student ideas about religion.

Engagement Revealed

A mirror decorated with autumn leaves and silver bells announced to the members of the Chi Omega house the engagement of Ann Maxwell and Fred Chambers, both of Salem.

Miss Maxwell is a sophomore home economics major and is a member of Chi Omega and Beta Alpha Gamma, sophomore women's honorary. Mr. Chambers is a sophomore pre-law major and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

No date has been set for the wedding.

"We, of the junior class at Willamette, are pretty pleased to discover that we are generally above the national average in communication skills." This statement was given after a partial study of results of a communications skills test given at the beginning of the school year.

Ballet Classes At YW to Open

Classes in ballet for girls from pre-school age to teen-age will open on Monday afternoon, October 17 at the YWCA under the instruction of Miss Marcella Renoux of Portland. The class schedule is as follows: pre-school, 2 p.m., ages 6 and 7, 3-4; ages 8-12, 4-12, 5 p.m.; teen-agers, 5-6 p.m.

Miss Renoux was born in Europe and began her career at the age of four. She studied with the American School of Ballet in New York and acquired additional training with the San Francisco Ballet and with Adolph Bohm. Miss Renoux has had roles in films and in theatrical circuits. During recent years Miss Renoux has conducted her studies in Portland.

Those interested in the above classes may have additional details by calling the YWCA.

A Birthday Dinner

FOUR CORNERS—Mrs. E. A. Snook and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bernard Snook, of Keizer, were the honor guests on Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thayer and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Snook were hosts for a family celebrating the birthday anniversaries of the honorees.

Covers were placed for the guests of honor, the hosts and E. A. Snook, Bernard Snook of Keizer, Allen, Sybil and Vance Snook and Leta, Garnet, Aaron and Robin Thayer.

Modern Etiquette Delegates Named To Convention

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When a man takes a girl to the movies, should she go with him to the ticket window, or walk on into the theater?
A. If there is not much of a line, she can walk ahead very slowly. But when there is a very long line, she should stand beside him and keep him company until he gets close to the window. Then she goes ahead and waits for him to join her.

Q. If a girl becomes engaged, and she has no family, would it be all right for her fiancé's family to announce the engagement?
A. No. The bride-elect always has this privilege, and if she has not the means of giving an announcement party, then she can always extend her "good news" through the local newspaper.

SALEM HEIGHTS—Mrs. Howard Gardner entertained the Salem Heights Woman's Club at a desert luncheon at her home on Dakota Road.

The group made plans for being joint hosts with the Liberty Women's Club in entertaining the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs on October 27 at Leslie Methodist Church.

Named as delegates to the affair were Mrs. Clyde Barker, Mrs. William McClure, Mrs. Harvey Willard, Mrs. Howard Gardner, Mrs. Orville Raymond, and Mrs. Ralph Maude will be in alternate.

EUGENE—Rain ushered in the third week of classes, but did not dampen the Ducks' spirit at the first home football game of the year—last Saturday on Hayward Field. Julie Austrup and Julie Miller have been elected to the newly organized Oregon pep club.

The Ducks will meet California at Multnomah Stadium in Portland Saturday night in the last Portland game of the season. Seniors, who (after this weekend) will see their next Portland game as alumni include Jack Baker, Plum Brown, Helen Callaghan, Sharon Heider, Bruce King, Doug Liechty, Charlie McClelland, Jim Matheison, Ron Morganti, Ann Ritchey, Bob Robinson, Mary Jane Rud, Jean Smith, Mike Thomas and Jeff Walton.

The Union Derby was held last Friday evening at which time each man with his living organization was expected to dance 16 minutes at each women's organization for the price of a nickel. Barbara Bacon, Jan Cummings, Jan Ewalt, Herb Juran, Jean Liebbeck, Carol Madsen, Gladys Maude, Larry Newsom, Bob Payne, Sandi Pearson, Sylvia Rawlinson, Laura Smith, Robert Stevens and Jerry Walling were among the freshmen experienced this annual event for the first time.

At Oregon State House Dances Will Honor Pledges

By JODY RICKETTS
Statesman Correspondent

CORVALLIS—Scheduled for this weekend are house dances honoring the new pledges. Pi Beta Phi is having their annual pledge formal at the Woman's Club honoring their freshmen. The theme is "The House of Blue Lights." Two Salem girls to be honored are Nancy Owens and Betty Burnside. Clarice and Claudia Walters will also be attending.

The Gamma Phi Beta have chosen the Country Club for their dance honoring the pledges. Phoebe Lou Braun, Elaine Morrow, Kathy Busick, and Elsie Burke are the girls from Salem to be in the spotlight. Marilyn Olson, Roberta Sears, Pat Morton, Joan Hamman, Jody Boyer, and Doris Sterrett will also be at the dance.

The Beta's are having a fireside tonight at the chapter house, dancing and refreshments are planned. John Clayton, Dick Richardson are the upper classmen to be present. Gary Ramsey and Dave Sociolisky, the Salem freshmen Beta's, will attend this year. Steve Lee of Salem will head the Associated Independent Students annual Mayhem production. Steve was the co-chairman last year when A.I.S. put on a very successful Mikado.

This year they plan to present another Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "HMS Pinafore." This production is planned for Mother's weekend.

Charter Day Monday Many Guests at Bethel Meeting

University students will observe Charter Day next Monday with a varied program of lectures and concerts scheduled. People are also already planning Homecoming weekend which is to be held on November 18 and 19 with the Oregon vs. Oregon State football game here in Eugene. Other students planning to attend the game in Portland this weekend include Pat Deoney, Sally Hoy, Karen Johnson, Julie Miller and, of course, rally squad member Sally Jo Greig.

Friendship night was observed by Bethel 43, Job's Daughters at the Scottish Temple Monday night with Miss Karen Thomas, honor queen, presiding.

Among the honor guests were Nancy Snider, junior past honor queen, Carol McFarland, past senior princess, Meridian, Idaho; Mrs. T. Crump, junior past grand guardian and supreme chaplain; Mrs. Norman Fletcher, Eldon Cone, Mrs. Ronald Rossner and Robert Keudell.

The Bethel members will practice on Saturday, October 22 at the Scottish Rite Temple at 1 p.m. for inspection at the Bethel meeting on October 24. The council meeting will be held October 13 at the home of Mrs. Emmett Kleinke, 1815 S. High St., at 7:30 p.m. For the program Mr. and Mrs. Crump showed slides of their European trip.

Junior Guild Holds First Luncheon

Junior Guild members held their first fall luncheon Tuesday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Hostesses were Mrs. Floyd Colburn, chairman, Mrs. C. F. Patton, Mrs. Elmer H. K. Dorr, Mrs. Donald H. Upjohn and Mrs. Donald C. Roberts.

Mrs. George H. Swift gave a report from the monthly church council. The fall rummage sale is announced for October 27 and 28 at the parish hall. A food sale is also planned to be held during the sale.

The Rev. Willis A. Rosenthal gave a talk on the Girls Friendly society, which is being formed in the parish. Guests were Mrs. Gilbert D. Anderson, Mrs. E. C. Hobbs, Mrs. Dayl Burres, Mrs. William Blair and Mrs. G. J. Tucker.

Mrs. Alfred Brown gave a reading and Mrs. Paul Gemme gave a talk on her trip to Hawaii.

Ceeds to Shine Shoes

Scuffed shoes are becoming a common sight on campus as the men await the Delta Gamma pledge class' shoe-shining project to take place this Saturday from 11 until 4 o'clock. Representatives will be in all men's living organizations. Carolyn Miller, Forest Grove, is president of the group.

The engagement of Carol Smith and Dave Doerksen was announced at a band reception held at the home of Professor and Mrs. Maurice Brennan on October 1.

Miss Smith is a junior music major from Salem. She is senior scholar in music history and a member of Mu Phi Epsilon and Chi Omega.

Mr. Doerksen is a senior music major, a member of the band and is also from Salem. No date has been set for the wedding.

Silver Tea Set For Zena Church

ZENA—Mrs. Roy E. Barker opened her Zena farm home on October 6 for a dessert luncheon honoring the Spring Valley Home Missionary Society. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Worth W. Henry, Mrs. W. D. Henry and Mrs. Byron Purvine. Welcomed as a new member was Mrs. Earl Johnson of Spring Valley.

The new president, Miss Alpha Logsdon, presided. Other officers who were elected at the last Spring meeting are Mrs. Robert F. Yungen, vice president; Mrs. Fred Muller, secretary; and Mrs. Clarence F. Merrick, treasurer.

The president appointed chairmen of her standing committees: program, Mrs. Ben McKinney; publicity, Mrs. Lois Crawford; gifts, Mrs. Worth W. Henry; flowers and cards, Mrs. Roy E. Barker; finance, Mrs. Lloyd Hoxie; hostesses, Mrs. Harold D. Burns; devotionals, Mrs. Fred Muller; cook book, Mrs. Marvin Cherry; federation, Mrs. Robert F. Yungen; project, Mrs. Frank Crawford; and membership, Mrs. Joe Shepard.

The group voted to hold a silver tea at historic Zena church for the next meeting on Nov. 3 and invite other women's clubs of Polk county as guests.

The principal project outlined for the club year was the improvement of the Zena church.
