EAST LANSING, Mich. UP Fullback Gerry Planutis w a i t e d exactly 364 days but exacted satisfying revenge Saturday by piling across for the winning touchdown, setting up another and kicking all three extra points as Michigan State wrecked Notre Dame's perfect record 21-7 before 52,007 roaring fans in Macklin Stadium.

A hard driving senior from Hazelton, Pa., Planutis broke up a 7-7 tie by crashing across from the one in the third quarter, then set up the clincher by recovering an Irish fumble deep in Notre Dame territory in the fourth quarter. It was a pulsating team victory for Michigan/State, a seven point underdog which gave a savage hard-hitting show before a national television audience to end Notre Dame's 11 game winning streak under Coach Terry Brennan. It was the first time that Notre Dame was scored upon this season

-a streak of 196 minutes and 48 seconds Personal Victory

But it was more of a personal victory for the blond Planutis who wore the goat horns by missing two vital extra points in last season's frustrating 20-19 loss to Notre Dame. The date of that defeat was Oct. 16.

Planutis, not only scored the game's deciding touchdown at 9:50 of the third quarter today, but was the big runner in moving the ball into scoring territory. He carried four times for 38 yards-but it was the last one which he probably will never forget.

He dove directly into the center of the line and just made it by inches, his fourth touchdown this season from the one.

Morris Scores Two Duck Touchdowns

By MATT KRAMER, PORTLAND, Ore. un-Oregon's fleet backs ran panting California into exhaustion here Saturday night and scored a 21-0 victory, their first Pacific Coast Conference win of the season. Fullback Jack Morris, a 10-second 100-yard dash man, raced to two touchdowns and his replace-over for the third. California never posed a serious threat. The visitors once penetrated to the Oregon 22. But that came on a drive that took 11 plays to go 20 yards, and the march sputtered to a halt there.

At the start, it appeared that neither team would get going. They went through almost the entire first quarter without a first down and exchanged punts seven times.

Morris Scores

But a 24-yard California punt gave Oregon the ball on the California 26 and Oregon seized the opportunity. Four plays moved the ball to the 14, and from there Morris took a pitchout and ram-bled around left end to a touchdown

Two California tacklers met him at the 5, but Morris had full speed up and he simply pushed them back with him into the end zone.

That was on the first play of the second quarter and by halftime, Oregon held a 14-0 lead. The second score came on a 78yard drive right after California had made its move to the Oregon 22. It took just six plays with Morris reeling off a key 14-yard run to the California 3. From there Miklancic punched over. Reserves Play

The final score came at the start of the third quarter. Oregon took the opening second half kickoff and moved 63 yards in 11 plays to a touchdown. Once again Morris provided most of the yardage in the march, climaxing .natters by slipping through the line the final yard.

Oregon reserves played much of the remaining time.

With California chasing futilely after Morris and the fleet halfbacks, Dick James and Jim Shanley, Oregon seldom turned to the air. There was only one pass in the three scoring drives and that one was a surprise toss by James
